POETRY.

TO A CHILD.

Thy memory, as a spell
Of love comes o'er my mind,
As dew upon the purple bell,
As perfume on the wind;
As music on the sea,
As sunshine on the river;
So hath it always been to me,
So shall it be for ever.

I hear thy voice in dreams
Upon me softly call,
Like echo of the mountain streams
In sportive waterfall.
I see thy form as when
Thou wert a living thing,
And blossom'd in the eyes of men
Like any flower of spring.

Thy soul to heaven hath fled,
From earthly thraldom free;
Yet 'tis not as the dead
That thou appear'st to me:
In slumber I behold
Thy form as when on earth;
Thy locks of waving gold,
Thy sapphire eye of mirth.

I hear in solitude
The prattle kind and free
Thou uttered'st in joyful mood
While seated on my knee.
So strong each vision seems,
My spirit that doth fill,
I think not they a e dreams,
But that thou livest still.

SONG OF THE PITCHER.

Down there came a dancing lassie
To the singing fountain's side;
Loudly laughed outright the pitcher
As it stood beneath the tide.

There young Willie, with his sickle,
Came a whistling through the wheat,
And he sat beside the maiden
On the cool and mossy seat.

Now she heard the pitcher filling
With the water's merry din,
And she felt her heart a drinking
All the tide of true love in:—

Till from out the vessel bubbling,
She beheld the waters pour,
While her heart, like that cool pitcher,
With true love was brimming o'er.

AMUSING INCIDENT.

An amusing incident is pleasantly recorded in the following passage from a letter of a writer "down east:"

"Sancho Panza says, 'Blessed is the man who first invented sleep.' I do not say, 'Cursed is the man who first invented straps on pantaloons;' but I do say, 'Blessed is the man that first abolished their use.' In how many a awkward predicaments have they not been the cause of placing us! How much more free! how much more comfortable! how much more natural, to dispense with these pulling, knee-irritating monstrosities! Is it not enough that we have 'suspenders,' or 'gallowses,' as our juvenile nomenclature used to have it—and a very suitable name it was, by the way to bind us down to earth with the pressure of the night-mare, but we must also have the upward pressure of foot-straps, both drawing us together with the power of a twenty-horse hydraulic press! I rebel! For one, I have dispensed with both straps and suspenders; and I address you, Mr. Knickerbocker, as a man of plain common sense, discretion and age, to do likewise. But all this is not furthering the object of my writing to you 'on the present occasion.' I wish to tell you of an incident that occurred to me some time since, when coming from Halifax to Boston, on board the packet brig A———. It was all owing to those unhappy straps! One of my fellow-passengers was a fat old lady, who suffered very much from sea-sickness. More than twenty times in the day the old woman would put the good-nature of the steward, who was a jolly Irishman, to the test, by wishing to be lugged upon deck, then below again, insomuch, that they used to call her 'Mrs. Tee-to-tum.' Sometimes she longed to recline on the deck; but then it was cold, and she had nothing to wrap herself up with. I made myself a great favorite with her by spreading out my buffalo robe and 'tucking her up' with my cloak. You have no doubt been to sea, and are acquainted with the exceedingly easy toilets that gentlemen and ladies make (and unmake) on ship-board. Following the general practice, I usually, in pulling off my 'fie-for-shames,' hung them up to the ceiling of the state-room, opposite the door, with my boots dangling in them.—The old lady's berth was immediately opposite to mine, and one morning she woke much earlier than usual, having been prevented from sleeping by certain 'serious qualms.' The doors of both our state-rooms happened to be wide open, and Mrs. Tee-to-tum, casting her eyes over toward mine, saw a sight which would have made each particular hair to stand on end, if she had had any of her own.—She shrieked out at the top of her voice: 'Oh, Lord! Oh, Lord! Captain! Steward! Mate! Oh, Lord! Oh! Mr. W——— has hung himself! He's dead! he's dead!—Out rushed the passengers from every berth, and down tumbled the whole ship's crew; and such another peal of laughter the broad Atlantic never before echoed. And all this was caused by my boots dangling in those pantaloons by their unfortunate straps!"—Knick.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That all surplus money which may at any time be in the Treasury not required in the judgment of the Treasurer, to pay the ordinary expenses of the State, the current interest on the main public debt, the interest on the Bonds given for Coupons and certificates of interest as aforesaid, and the Certificates given for the difference between six per centum and the interest actually paid in any year on the said bonds, shall be by the said Treasurer applied first to the payment of such interest in arrear as may remain unfunded, and after such unfunded interest is entirely discharged, either to the purchase or redemption in his discretion of the bonds issued for arrears of interest under the second section of this act, until all said bonds shall have been purchased or redeemed, after which all such surplus money shall be applied to the increase of the sinking fund, and the extinguishment of the main debt.

"SUGAR COATED" PILLS.

BEWARE! CAUTION!!

The increasing popularity of Dr G. BENJ SMITH'S IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE SUGAR COATED PILLS, has induced a number of persons to make something they call PILLS, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine, while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even assimilate in appearance to the original, Dr Smith's Pills. In short they are intended FRAUD upon the community. A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. Y., has given them up, as he says on account of the miserable dishonest parties concerned in manufacturing them. The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr. Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public. Dr Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another case against a similar party, in which he recovered a large amount of damages. These miserable imitators have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know that Dr. Smith's are the original and genuine. Several instances have come to public notice in which life has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits. It is Dr Smith's Pills that are doing so much good in the country—as the following plainly show.

MORE MINISTERS.

Use and Recommend Dr Smith's Pills than all others.

This is to certify that I have used the Sugar Coated Pills Manufactured by G. Benjamin Smith of New York, for some time, and believe them to be a good medicine; also, from inquiry in that city, I am persuaded that he is the original inventor, and therefore is entitled to the benefit of the invention

S. WILLIAMS.
Pastor 1st Baptist Church.

From the Blue Hens's Chicken, (Del.)

We call the attention of our readers to the certificate of Rev. S. Williams, Pastor of 1st Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, in relation to Dr Smith's Pills. We can ourselves bear testimony to the excellence of these Pills, one of us having used them and experienced great relief from them.

The above is the best paper in the State of Delaware.

The "improved indian vegetable Pills," (Sugar Coated,) are certainly doing much good in the whole country, and are highly esteemed, if one half is true that people write and say about them. They are so easy in their operation that all like them. The editor of the Northern State Journal, (one of the largest and best papers in the State of N Y.,) writes as follows.

Watertown, May 31, 1846.

Dr. G Benj Smith—

Dear Sir: I was laid up with a bad cold some time since my return from N Y. and during my illness I made trial of your pills and I must say I found them excellent. They are the best medicine for the purposes they are intended, that I have yet seen I seldom take pills, but I found yours entirely free from the objections to which other pills are liable. I hope they will continue to be a source of profit to you, as I doubt not they will be a means of relief to the afflicted on a large scale. Yours truly,

J. GREEN.

Tonawanda, Pa., Sept. 18, 1846.

Dr. G. Benj. Smith—

Dear Sir: Your agent left with me a lot of your Sugar coated Pills, and I have but a few boxes left. Every box I have sold has given entire satisfaction. I have taken them myself and I consider them the best pills I have ever used, and I am not afraid to recommend them to the public. I wish a further supply at once.

Yours respectfully,
JACOB KIBLER, P. M.

Huntington, Ind., June 21, 1846.

Dr. Smith—

Dear Sir. I am most out of your "Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills," and find them selling so fast that I think you had better send me two gross immediately. They give such general satisfaction that people come at least twenty miles for them, and as it is generally known I am agent for them, I would be very sorry to get out.

Yours respectfully,
SAML. MORE & Co.

BEWARE!!!

If G. BENJ. SMITH be not written with a pen on the bottom of the box, all "Sugar Coated" pills are counterfeit!
