THE CONVICT SHIP.

BY THOMAS K. HARVEY.

Morn on the waters!—and purple and bright,
Bursts on the billows the flashing of light—
O'er the glad waves, like a child of the sun
See, the tall vessel goes gallantly on;
Full to the breeze she unbosoms her sail,
And her pennant streams onward, like hope, in the gale!
The winds come around her in murmur and song,
And the surges rejoice, as they bear her along!
See! she looks up to the golden-edged clouds,
And the sailor sing gaily aloft in the shrouds;
Onward she glides, amid ripple and spray,
Over the waters—away, and away!
Bright as the visions of youth, ere they part,
Passing away, like a dream of the heart!
Who,—as the beautiful pageant goes by,
Music around her, and sunshine on high,—
Pauses to think, amid glitter and glow,
Oh! there be hearts that are breaking below—

Night on the waves! and the moon is on high,
Hung like a gem on the brow of the sky!
Treading its depths, in the power of her might,
And turning the clouds as they pass her, to light?
Look to the waters!—Asleep on their breast,
Seems not the ship like an island of rest—
Bright and alone on the shadowy main,
Like a heart-cherished home on some desolate plain!
Who,—as she smiles in the silvery light,
Spreading her wing on the bosom of night,
Alone on the deep—as the moon in the sky—
A phantom of beauty!—could deem with a sigh,
That so lovely a thing is the mansion of sin,
And souls that are smitten lie bursting within?
Who?—as he watches her silently gliding,
Remembers that wave after wave is dividing
Bosoms that sorrow and guilt could not sever,
Hearts that are parted and broken for ever;
Or deems that he watches, afloat on the wave,
The death-bed of hope, or the young spirit's grave?

'Tis thus with our life, while it passes along,
Like a vessel at sea, and sunshine and song!
Gaily we glide, in the gaze of the world,
With steamers afloat, and with canvas unfurl'd;
All gladness and glory to wandering eyes,
Yet charter'd by sorrow, and freighted with sighs:—
Fading and false is the aspect it wears,
As the smiles we put on—just to cover our tears;
And the withering thoughts which the world cannot know
Like heart-broken exiles, lie burning below!
While the vessel drives on to that desolate shore,
Where the dreams of our childhood are vanish'd and o'er?

THE NAIL IN THE COFFIN.

BY T. WESTWOOD.

What, threescore years and ten!—laughed a child, with eager look—
Oh, good my mother, there'll be time—nay, close that weary book!
Hark! very sweet the ousel sings upon the old elm bough,
And my trusty hound he waiteth me—I hear him whine e'en now;
For I have promised he shall scour to-day the beech-wood by the burn,
And rouse the coney from the brake and the hare from out the fern:
Oh! good my mother, chide me not—sweet mother, smile instead;
I'll read anon, when skies grow dark, and the merry months have fled.
Tap! tap! said the hammer
To the nail in the coffin-lid!

Drink, drink, thou solemn sad-faced loon! why list what dullards say?—
Quoth a yeoman old, with rosy cheek, of stalwart heart and gay!—
There's no such virtue in their prayers and preachings, well I trow,
As sparkles up from this merry bowl, that saith—"Come, quaff me now."
Life's sand runs fast, too well I wot—I'm old, I know, and grey,—
But troth! it seems to me, sir knave, I grow more hale each day:
Knock at my door, thou sad faced loon, when ten good years have fled,—
And—ha! ha!—we'll drain as jolly a bowl, and never a drop be shed?
Tap! Tap! said the hammer
To the nail in the coffin lid!

Oh, life is very long!—said the maid between her smiles;
What reck I for the solemn priest, who all earth's joy reviles?
The time, indeed, may come for this glad heart of mine to wear
The sadder colored vesture meet for trial and for care:—
But I have lovers twain, to day—as all the world doth know.
And the sky is very blue above and bright the earth below;
And round about my pathway all sweet sounds and scents are shed—
I'll give good heed, O solemn priest! when youth—and these—have fled.
Tap! tap! said the hammer
To the nail in the coffin lid!

"SUGAR COATED" PILLS.' BEWARE! CAUTION!!

The increasing popularity of Dr G. BENJ SMITH'S IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE SUGAR COATED PILLS, has induced a number of persons to make something they call PILLS, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine, while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even assimilate in appearance to the original, Dr Smith's Pills In short they are intended FRAUD upon the community. A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. Y., has given them up, as he says on account of the miserable dishonest parties concerned in manufacturing them. The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr. Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public. Dr. Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another case against a similar party. in which he recovered a large amount of damages. These miserable imitators have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know that Dr. Smith's are the original and genuine. Several instances have come to public notice in which life has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits. It is Dr Smith's Pills that are doing so much good in the country—as the following plainly show.

HOPE MINISTERS.

Use and Recommend Dr Smith's Pills than all others.

This is to certify that I have used the Sugar Coated Pills Manufactured by G, Benjamin Smith of New York, for some time, and believe them to be a good medicine; also, from inquiry in that city, I am persuaded that he is the original inventor, and therefore is entitled to the benefit of the invention

S. WILLIAMS
Pastor 1st Baptist Church.

From the Blue Hens's Chicken. (Del.)

We call the attention of our readers to the certificate of Rev. S. Williams, Pastor of 1st Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, in relation to Dr Smith's Pills. We can ourselves bear testimony to the excellence of these Pills, one of us having used them and experienced great relief from them.

The above is the best paper in the State of Delaware.

The "improved indian vegetable Pills," (Sugar Coated,) are certainly doing much good in the whole country, and are highly esteemed, if one half is true that people write and say about them. They are so easy in their operation that all like them. The editor of the Northern State Journal, (one of the largest and best papers in the State of N. Y.,) writes as follows.

Watertown, May 31, 1846.

Dr. G Benj Smith—

Dear Sir I was laid up with a bad cold some time since my return from N Y. and during my illness I made trial of your pills and I must say I found them excellent. They are the best medicine for the purposes they are intended, that I have yet seen I seldom take pills, but I found yours entirely free from the objections to which other pills are liable. I hope they will continue to be a source of profit to you, as I doubt not they will be a means of relief to the afflicted on a large scale. Yours truly,

J. GREEN.

Tonawanda, Pa., Sept. 18, 1846.

Dr. G. Benj. Smith—

Dear Sir. Your agent left with me a lot of your Sugar coated Pills, and I have but a few boxes left. Every box I have sold has given entire satisfaction. I have taken them myself and I consider them the best pills I have ever used, and I am not afraid to recommend them to the public. I wish a further supply at once.

Yours respectfully,
JACOB KIBLER, P. M.

Huntington, Ind., June 21, 1846.

Dr. Smith —

Dear Sir. I am most out of your "Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills," and find them selling so fast that I think you had better send me two gross immediately. They give such general satisfaction that people come at least twenty miles for them, and as it is generally known I am agent for them, I would be very sorry to get out.

Yours respectfully,
SAML. MORE & Co.

BEWARE!!!

If G. BENJ. SMITH, be not written with a pen on the bottom of the box, all "Sugar Coated" Pills are counterfeit!
