OUR COUNTRY'S FLAG!

BY DOCTOR C. C. COX.

Fling out our flag from the gallant mast,
Let the shout of the crew be heard—
While the barque that we ride is flying fast
O'er the sea like a mountain bird!
Let it rest on the breast of the glorious sun,
When the sky grows calm at noon—
And on let it float when the day is done
In the sheen of the silvery moon!

For it breathes a charm in that tender light
Thro' the skyward sailor's eye,
While he looks on peace as she nestles bright
'Mid the stars and stripes on high;
It speaks to the heart of his mountain home
Where in quiet it long shall wave,
And he knows that his sons are free if they roam,
If dead in a freeman's grave!

Let it stay thro' the night on that lofty spire,
And talk with the midnight star,
For the Heavens will glow with a warmer fire,
To gaze on its face afar;—
They will hail its lights as kindred all,
Long sent from the parent sky,
To laugh in scorn o'er the Tyrants fall,
And beam where the Tyrants die,

Should the thunder growl o'er the raging deep,
And the cloudy waves come fast,
Let it battle in wildness mid wind and rain
From the top of our old oak mast!
For it holds domain in the tempest sky,
And the lightning's wing flames bright,
As it rides at home o'er the billows high
Like a being of power and right.

That flag! how oft did it wave in pride
By the side of our noble sires,
When they kindled on liberty's altars wide,
Her pure and unquenching fires!
'Mid the sabre stroke and the cannon smoke
It would fly unharmed and free,
And wherever the voice of a freeman woke
It would join in the jubilee!

It has waved since then as a holy shield
'Mid the nightly multitude,
And summoned full many a battle field
To scatter dissention's brood;
And the speaker's heart would burn and bound
As that proud sheet met his gaze,
While his voice poured out through the crowds around
The thrill of heroic days;—

It has spread its wing over peak and vale,
Where the current of life beat strong,
And shouts of rejoicing rose far on the gale—
There, there it has passed along;
It has folded its pinions in silent grief,
For the death of the true and brave,
Where the forest tree sheds a fading leaf
Or the winds spread a watery grave.

Far over the wave in the foreign bay,
Wherever our ships may ride,
Mid the flags of the earth it floats to day,
Like a fair and a happy bride;
And on be its flight! till from every strand
It shall flutter as wild and free,
As it now looms out from our own gay land;
Or swells o'er the chainless sea!

Let it live till the last great day of time,
And proud o'er a falling world,
Far up in its own congenial clime
Triumphant hang unfurled;—
And when this fair earth shall no more be given
For the home of its stars so bright,
May they turn in love to their native Heaven
And dwell in eternal light!

LINES OF ADVICE.

Never speak of natural defects in the company of the deformed.

Utter no word that will wound the feelings of those who are in humble circumstances.

When attacked by vulgar and brutal language, be as mild as possible in your replies.

Laugh not at those who make an awkward appearance, remembering what you would have been without the polish of society.

Ridicule not the aged and infirm. You may live to be old.

Spurn not a person with a darker skin than your own. God, not man, is answerable for this.

If possible, take sides with the weak. The powerful will never lack supporters.

Love your neighbors—serve your Maker—exert a good influence, and prepare for a better world.—Boston O. Branch.

GOOD JOKE.—On the night of the late illumination at Cincinnati, a highly excited crowd assembled in front of the residence of a patriotic citizen, who had given out that he would exhibit a Drummond light on the joyful occasion. When expectation was at its highest point, a colored man walked out with something mysterious in his hand. A loud shout from the multitude rent the air. The colored man placed upon a dry goods box a paper drum with a lighted candle stuck in the end of it, and underneath was written, in large capitals "Drum and light."—The crowd, good humoredly, forgave the author, for the sake of the joke.

"SUGAR COATED" PILLS.
BEWARE! CAUTION!!

The increasing popularity of Dr. G. BENJ SMITH'S IMPROVED INDIAN VEGETABLE SUGAR COATED PILLS, has induced a number of persons to make something they call PILLS, and coat them with sugar, in order to sell them for the genuine, while they do not possess a particle of the goodness, nor even assimilate in appearance to the original, Dr Smith's Pills. In short they are intended FRAUD upon the community. A minister who at first had an interest in an imitation Sugar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. Y., has given them up, as he says on account of the miserable dishonest par ies concerned in manufacturing them. The same party are now industriously circulating reports calculated to injure Dr. Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public. Dr. Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another case against a similar party, in which he recovered a large amount of damages These miserable imitators have to resort to the most abominable means to palm off their counterfeit pills as the public know that Dr. Smith's are the original and genuine. Several instances have come to public notice in which life has been endangered by the unfortunate use of the counterfeits. It is Dr Smith's Pills that are doing so much good in the country—as the following plainly show.

MORE MINISTERS.

Use and Recommend Dr. Smith's Pills than all others.

This is to certify that I have used the Sugar Coated Pills Manufactured by G. Benjamin Smith of New York, for some time, and believe them to be a good medicine; also from inquiry in that city I am persuaded that he is the original inventor, and therefore is entitled to the benefit of the invention

S. WILLIAMS.
Pastor 1st Baptist Church.

From the Blue Hens's Chicken, (Del.)

We call the attention of our readers to the certificate of Rev S Williams, Pastor of 1st Baptist Church, Pittsburgh, in relation to Dr. Smith's Pills. We can ourselves bear testimony to the excellence of these Pills, one of us having used them and experienced great relief from them.

The above is the best paper in the State of Delaware.

The "improved indian vegetable Pills," (Sugar Coated,) are certainly doing much good in the whole country, and are highly esteemed, if one half is true that people write and say about them. They are so easy in their operation that all like them The editor of the Northern State Journal, (one of the largest and best papers in the State of N. Y.,) writes as follows.

Watertown, May 31, 1846.

Dr. G Benj. Smith—

Dear Sir I was laid up with a bad cold some time since my return from N Y. and during my illness I made trial of your pills and I must say I found them excellent. They are the best medicine for the purposes they are intended, that I have yet seen I seldom take pills, but I found yours entirely free from the objections to which other pills are liable. I hope they will continue to be a source of profit to you, as I doubt not they will be a means of relief to the afflicted on a large scale, Yours truly,

J. GREEN.

Tonawanda, Pa., Sept. 18, 1846.

Dr G. Benj. Smith—

Dear Sir: Your agent left with me a lot of your Sugar coated Pills, and I have but a few boxes left. Every box I have sold has given entire satisfaction. I have taken them myself and I consider them the best pills I have ever used, and I am not afraid to recommend them to the public. I wish a further supply at once.

Yours respectfully,
JACOB KIBLER, P. M.

Huntington Ind., June 21, 1846.

Dr. Smith –

Dear Sir. I am most out of your "Indian Vegetable Sugar Coated Pills," and find them selling so fast that I think you had better send me two gross immediately. They give such general satisfaction that people come at least twenty miles for them, and as it is generally known I am agent for them, I would be very sorry to get out.

Yours respectfully,
SAML. MORE & Co.

BEWARE!!!

If G. BENJ SMITH, be not written with a pen on the bottom of the box, all "Sugar Coated" pills are counterfeit!
