And afterwards towit on the 15th day of January 1848 came the Complainant Etheldra Harris by her Solicitor Thomas S Alexander Esquire and filed in the said Cause her petition in the words following towit.

Etheldra Harris vs William Morris } In Chancery
To the honorable John Johnson Chancellor of Maryland.

The Complainant humbly shows that under a Commission issued in this cause she examined John G Chapman and Elizabeth Chapman as witnesses in her behalf as by the proceedings will appear that on the 21st day of December 1847 the cause was submitted for hearing on the part of the defendant and at the same time exceptions were filed to certain parts of the depositions of said witnesses on the ground that the same was given in answer to leading Interrogatories she further says that if the said Interrogatories are liable to such exception it has so happened through inadvertence of her Counsel and not from any design to violate the rules of the Court and she therefore humbly prays that another Commission may be issued to enable her to re examine said witnesses and with liberty to either party to take such further testimony as may be necessary and as &c.

Th S Alexander

In Chancery 17th January 1848

On which petition the Chancellor passed the following order

Ordered In Chancery 17 January 1848

Ordered that a Commission issue to James Mc Cormick and John H Mitchell to take the testimony in this cause but the issuing of said Commission shall not delay the hearing of the cause at March Term next, unless the defendant shall so require

John Johnson Ch.

And thereupon a Commission was accordingly issued in pursuance of the said order to James Mc Cormick and John H Mitchell of Charles County to take Testimony in the said cause

And afterwards towit on the 26th day of February 1848 the said
