the other party, but we are certainly authorized to say, that in all the qualifications for the duties of the places to which they aspire, no man can assert any superiority on the part of their opposing candidates. On the contrary, we believe that an impartial judgment would decide, that the three candidates for the Legislature combine such qualities as would entitle them to be regarded as more sound discreet and useful representatives of the people—while the candidate for the Commissioner from the Chapel District, cannot suffer by a comparison with his competitor. The crowning virtue of all of them is, they are firm State-faith men. Can the same be said of their opponents?

☞Who wrote the article signed, "Justice," in the "Star" of Tuesday week?

We propound this interrogatory in great sincerity and with anxious desire to ascertain the truth. We shall speak plainly on this subject and right out to the point.—Public opinion here without division of sentiment points to the Democratic candidate for Governor, Mr. Thomas as the author. Can this be? yet we are constrained to say that the signs of the times are in favor of the correctness of this impression. That something was on hand, on the anvil, we well knew—one of the faithful gave us an intimation that Mr. Thomas would in due season annihilate the "State faith party" as he sneeringly termed them—and we were aware from some facts coming under our own knowledge that he was gathering materials for a grand effort, and that the old Whig Central Committee address was to be relied on. This was all natural and proper. But we were not prepared for such a production as that of "Justice". Independent of the miserable logic and pettifogging sophistry of the piece, the bold and open defence of such an iniquitous, flagitious measure as the celebrated bill of Mr. T astounded us. We did not suppose a man however humble, having proper regard for his character could be found among us to defend such a measure. What then must have been our surprise when public opinion almost unanimously fixed upon Mr. Thomas himself as the author of this defence. Oh morals, oh virtue! But look too, at another feature of this piece—"no man in that house either answered or even attempted to reply to the irresistible argument which he (Mr. T.) offered"—"in a speech said to have been marked with ability" etc. We think this a severe tax upon public patience and sufference at the hands of a public man, seeking office from the people. The people can bear a great deal, but not every thing in silence. We stood the account of the manner in which the waves were made to roll and foam and echo back the eloquence of Mr. Thomas on the steamboat deck at Easton Point—and the trees to bow their heads and whisper their admiration and applause etc.—and also the account of the maddening effect of his eloquence upon the democracy in public meeting assembled on their day of nomination. We thought them in bad taste, but we overlooked it because done by those revolving around him, and offering up grateful incense in advance, for future smiles to be bestowed in certain contingences.

We had seen the puffing system going on extensively out of the county and looked upon it as part of the political machinery of the times. We thought it unnecessary here, as the Democratic candidate had always resided among us and we knew him perfectly well. But we will not abide every thing. If this piece signed Justice be written by Mr. Thomas, the public ought to know it in order that the defence of his iniquitous bill may be fastaned upon him. The community, too, ought to be apprised of the "forcing system" going on. We want a plain answer—yea or nay. A celebrated General, who is now in Mexico, is said to have tried this system, and when run so hard that proof was had of the piece coming out of his own household, he having denied the authorship, he then said it was written, meaning copied, by a female of his family. Now we want no evasions. We want to know who composed, who dictated, who originated this piece signed "Justice!"—Are we understood? We want to do no injustice to Mr. T.—we would be the last to do it. But in this matter we are forced to demand for the people an unequivocal answer.

THE STATE FINANCES AND P. F. THOMAS, ESQ.

In a report, by the Easton Gazette, of some remarks made by P. F. Thomas, Esq., on board the steamer Jewess, on a late festival occasion, Mr. Thomas was represented as having attacked one of the former delegates in the General Assembly from the city of Baltimore. This, it appears, was a mistake; and the Gazette thus corrects it: "We see by the remarks of our neighbor of the "Star," that the authenticity and correctness of our report as to that portion of the remarks of Mr. Thomas relating to Jno. L. Carey, Esq., is questioned. We intended no misrepresentation—we are incapable of it, on this or any other subject, we trust. Our informant now states that we are in error in saying he denounced Mr. Carey."

The Gazette goes on to quote Mr. Thomas as having said that he served with Mr. C. in the House of Delegates, "and agreed with him on most financial subjects of the session, &c."

We believe the only vote, on a financial subject, upon which the two foregoing names are found together on the journal of the House, is that which is recorded on the "Coupon resolutions," as they are called. The published speeches of the two would show, if the matter were worthy of investigation, the several grounds upon which each opposed the resolutions in question The views, however, entertained by Mr. Thomas on the subject of the State debt and its payment, are fully set forth in his bill relating to that matter—views which no State faith man could regard otherwise than with regret. The bill proposes simply a declaration of bankruptcy, with a yielding up to creditors of the assets of the State, as represented by her interest in the various public works. This was to be accompanied by a repeal of the tax laws—all of them; and this was to end at once, the State's indebtedness along with the State's integrity. If the public are not familiar with the features of this bill they will become so, we presume, before the Gubernatorial canvass is over.

SOMERSET NOMINATIONS.—The Whig Convention which met in Princess Anne on Tuesday last, nominated the following gentlemen for the Legislature viz: Sydney C. Long, Col. Leven Tyler, Nathan C. Conner, and Benjamin I. Dashiel.

NOMINATION DECLINED.—Hon. Albert Constable declines a nomination for Congress, in the fifth district in this State, by the Locofoco convention which will assemble on Tuesday next.

☞On Saturday night week, Mr. J. P. Greenly, at Hall's Cross-roads, Queen Anne's county, Md., was broken open and robbed of goods to the amount of $150.

A Telegraphic despatch in the Patriot of yesterday, dated Wheeling August 12 P. M. says:—

We have accounts from Nashville of the election in Tennessee. The returns are favorable to the Whigs, and it is believed that the Whig Governor is elected

ALABAMA.

The election in this State took place on the 2d instant, and was for Governor, members of the State Legislature, and seven members of Congress.

1. John Gayle, Whig, gain—maj: 500.

YELLOW FEVER AT NEW ORLEANS.—The Board of Health of New Orleans, reports that the yellow fever is on the increase, and that it exists in every part of the city. They assert that it is assuming an epidemic type, and the unacclimed are warned not to expose themselves. There were 47 deaths from it during the week ending the 31st ult.

☞Mr. J. W. Long, editor of a southern paper, asks: "When will the editor of the Louisville Journal learn to tell the truth?" To which Prentice replies, There's no doubt but I shall tell it before Long!"

MORE "AID AND COMFORT."—We learn that on Saturday last Two Millions of Specie passed over the Harrisburgh railroad, on its way to Mexico, via New Orleans. This, with Five Millions previously forwarded, makes Seven Millions of the people's money which have already been drained from the specie of this section of the country to maintain this useless war; and to enrich the Mexicans at our expense.

DEATH OF MARYLAND VOLUNTEERS.—A letter from a member of Capt. Merricks company, at Matamoras, announces the death of Sergeant Yates and private Burroughs, both of St. Mary's county.

MR. CLAY GOING NORTH.—A letter from White Sulphur Springs, August 2nd, says:—Mr. Clay leaves here in a week, accompained by his friend, Dr. Mercer, of New Orleans, for the recreation to be found in sea-bathing at Cape May, Long Branch, and Newport.

LIEUT. TANEYHILL.—We have been favored with a letter from Mr. Wm. Mercer, of the late Capt. Boyd's company of mounted volunteers, to the family of Lieut. Taneyhill, who, it will be remembered, was severely wounded during the expidition of Col. De Russy against Gen. Garay, in endeavoring to succor the American prisoners, some weeks since. His wound is from a large ball, through the thigh, very similar to that which causes the death of the lamented Ringgold. Our first advices stated that he was mortally wounded, and, it was thought, had afterwards died of his wounds. We are gratified to learn, however, that he was still alive on the 20th ult., although a prisoner in the hands of the Mexicans. He was, however, in charge of Gen. Garay's family, and was receiving every kindness and attention that his wounds required. The letter also speaks of the bravery evinced by both Capt. Boyd and Lieut. Taneyhill.—Sun.

HON. ROBERT C. WINTHROP, after a sojourn of several weeks in London, arrived in Paris about the first of June, and left there on the 23d for the South of France and Switzerland. This accomplished statesman has been received with the utmost favor by the most eminent men of Europe. Very few Americans have been honored with an equal degree of attention, and none more deservedly so.—Boston Journal.

TRAVELLING TWO THOUSAND MILES PER HOUR.—A message was received in New York on Sunday, over the telegraph wires from Montreal, delivered, answered, and the receipt of the answer acknowledged by the operator in Montreal, in the short space of thirty minutes. It came by way of Toronto and Buffalo, and had to be re-written at the latter point.

FROM BARBADOES.—By an arrival at New York, we have Barbadoes dates to the 19th of July. The price of sugar at Georgetown, was, at the last accounts, below the average price of the eight years. In consequence thereof, the merchants complained sadly of the new tariff.

PRICES CURRENT.

BALTIMORE, August 12, 1847.

GRAIN.—The receipts of all kinds of of grain are small for the season; good to prime new Maryland red wheat is selling at 1 15 a $1 25, and white at 1 25 a $1 35—the latter price for such as are suitable for family flour. About 5,000 bushels were sold to day. Oats are in better request; sales at 37 a 40 cents. White and yellow Corn 68 a 70 cents: scarcely any arriving.

DR. MARTIN'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

This compound is one of the best remedies ever offered to the public in Cough, whether arising from Colds, or the Hooping Cough, or that dreadful malady Consumption. Few remedies in the short time it has been before the Public, have effected so many cures The proprietors are every day receiving orders for it in this City, and at a distance, in which they have been highly gratified to learn its good effects We have the permission of the Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church of Maryland (the Right Rev. W. R. Whittingham) to say he has used the remedy in his own person with decided benefit. Our medical friends do not scruple to recommend it as one of the best remedies in Consumption Asthma &c which they have ever met with the following is from a highly respectable Physician on Kent Island to whom we made known the ingredients of the preparation

Kent Island, June 22d, 1847.

Dr. G. T. Martin,

Dear Sir,—Since my return home I have prescribed your SYRUP of WILD CHERRY in several cases, one in particular a case of Asthma of long standing (about 12 years) a neighbor and patient of mine. Her disease has never been benefited by any medicine which she has taken, and for the last year or two she has been confined entirely to the house. I do not know that she has had a good nights rest for a long time, but since she commenced taking your medicine (and she has only taken one bottle) she is enabled to go to bed and sleep well all night. I think the medicine will make a perfect cure of her and she is determined to give it a fair trial. Her husband Mr. R Erickson is a merchant here and says if you will send him some of it, he will act as your agent. I think you might send him some of your other preparations which will meet with ready sale. I send a small bill for medicines which you will please send me and
