For the Easton Gazette.

"I am in favor of representation according to taxation; that is, if you pay taxes on a dollar's worth of property more than I do, I am willing you shall have a dollar's worth of influence more than I have!!!"

Such, Mr. Editor, were the sentiments uttered by the democratic candidate for Governor, the Hon. P. F. Thomas, in a speech at Hagerstown a few days ago.—There is an old and true saying, that "out of the fullness of the heart, the mouth speaketh," and in the present instance it has been fully verified, for we cannot for a moment suppose that Mr. T. in addressing his fellow citizens and soliciting their votes for the highest office in the State, would utter other than the true sentiments of his heart, and endeavor to impress them upon the mind of his hearers. The "democracy" admit that the object of Mr. T.'s "splendid" speechifying is reform. But what sort of reform does he want? "Representation according to taxation." Well, let us now see what will be the effect of this great reform. In the first place, what effect will it have upon the hard working, industrious mechanic, who toils from morn till night to earn a scanty subsistence for himself and family; who live by his daily labor and who brings every energy into play to accumulate some little, to live upon after his strength is exhausted and his limbs become enfeebled by age and incessant toil? He loves his country as dearly, as devotedly, as Mr. T. or any other person in the community—pays the taxes upon his "little all" more promptly than his wealthier neighbor—but because he is poor and pays taxes on but $1,000, he must have but one vote, while his neighbor, Mr. T., who pays taxes on $10,000, and has his coach and servants at his beck and nod, must have ten votes. In the second place, what would be the effect on the "old defender," reduced to poverty from his love of country; "the invalid, wounded and shattered in constitution, returning from the hard-fought battle fields of Palo Alto, Resaca, Monterey and Buena Vista?" Because they have been spending their days in the service of the country, and having accumulated no property, they pay no taxes and are consequently deprived of the right to vote. That this would be the effect of Mr T.'s reform no one can doubt. Freemen of Talbot! can you listen to this "Syren song" of reform and stand unmoved? Mechanics of Talbot!! are you prepared to relinquish your dearest right and place in the hands of the wealthy aristocrat the power to do with you as they please; to pass such laws as may suit their interests, while you have no right to raise your voice in your own defence, but must stand by, idle spectators, and see your long cherished rights trampled under foot by the lordling in power? Citizens of Talbot!!! are you prepared for this? If so, vote for Mr. Thomas. But if you are not, then I say,

"Have not to do with him; beware of him
Repudiation hath set its mark upon him,
And all its ministers attend on him."

Place your mark upon him, and let him know that you are still freemen, and as freemen opposed to such "dark and damning" doctrines, and my word for it, after the 6th of October next, he will be compelled to exclaim,

"Nay, then, farewell!
I've touched the highest point of all my greatness!
And from the full meridian of my glory,
I haste now to my setting. I shall fall
Like a bright exhalation in the evening,
And no man see me more."

JUSTITIA.

For the Easton Gazette.

MR. EDITOR:—At a Democratic meeting held in Denton on the 31st ultimo, a difficulty arose between Col. Z. W. Potter and Thos. R. Stewart, Esq., originating in a misunderstanding between both gentlemen. Since then the matter has been properly adjusted, and the difficulty settled honorably and peaceably, to the satisfaction of both parties and their friends.

We make this statement as the friends of both gentlemen, to correct the erronious rumors afloat relative to the misunderstanding.

Yours respectfully,
P. OVIDE CHERBONNIER,
JOS. EARLE ROCHESTER.

NOT A FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE.

We copied about two weeks since, a paragraph from the New Orleans Delta, announcing that Dr. W. G. G. Wilson, who, in a rencontre some time previous, had dagerously wounded a son of Mr. Whitney in that city, was sojourning in Baltimore, and that a letter had been received there from the firm of Cook, Zell & Ridgely, stating their readiness and ability to deliver him up as a fugitive from justice, provided the proper requisition was made. We now learn from Mr. Zell, of the above firm, that they have received information from New Orleans that there was no intention of arresting Dr. Wilson, as he acted in the matter wholly in self-defence, and that the young man wounded had since recovered. We have also been shown a letter from Dr. Wilson, stating he is now and has been, since his return from New Orleans, sojourning at the residence of his mother, near Easton, Md., reaserting the facts stated by Mr. Zell, and stating his intention to immediately return to New Orleans, and that if Mr. Whitney and his friends do not prosecute he will. His letter is also accompanied by a certificate, signed by seven eminent physicians of New Orleans testifying to his uniform good character, and the high esteem in which they held him during his residence in that city.—Balt. Sun of Aug. 18th.

POTATO ROT IN MARYLAND.—The Cumberland Mountaineer, yesterday, says: "The farmers of the Glades, we are told by a gentleman who has just left that section, have again been visited by the destructive rot which has been very prevalent for the last two or three seasons. Whole patches and fields have been destroyed by its effects, and the most surprising effect of the rot is, that it first makes its appearance in the stem, and in twenty-four hours after, the whole root is completely destroyed."

POSTSCRIPT.

BY YESTERDAY'S STEAMER.

From the Baltimore Sun.

VICTORY! VICTORY!!

Glorious News from the Seat of War—Battles at Penon and San Angel—Defeat of Guerillas, Santa Anna and Valencia—The City of Mexico at our feet—Suspension of Arms—Probability of a Speedy Peace—Major Lally at Jalapa—Guerillas—Alvarado, Campeachy, &c.

The steamer Fashion, Captain Ellery arrived at New Orleans, on Thursday evening, the 2d inst., from Vera Cruz, having left that port on the 27th ult., She brings files of the El Arco and El Sol de Anahnac to the 26th ult., and a series of letters from the Times correspondent, Indicator reaching to the period of the Fashion's departure.

THE CITY OF MEXICO IN OUR POWER—Battle of San Angel.—The sum of the intelligence brought by the Fashion, is of the most important nature, since it announces another victory that has crowned the American arms—a victory that will in all probability be most blessed in its results, bringing about a peace between the two republics. It appears that the march of our army under Gen. Scott from Puebla, to within eight or nine miles of the capital, was uninterrupted by any resistance on the part of the enemy. At El Penon—a position fortified by Santa Anna—the two hostile forces first came into collision, where according to El Sol de Anahuac, a division of the American army made an onset on the enemy, the main body passing through Gaudaloupe, and to the surprise of the Mexicans, appearing suddenly in their rear.

A regular fight then ensued at a place called San Angel, situated at about six or eight miles Southwest of the capital; the result of which was that Gan. Valencia's division of the Mexican army was totally routed, when Santa Anna fell back with the remainder of his troops on the city. Here the greatest consternation prevailed, and as the only means to stop the victorious career of the American arms, it was decided to solicit from Gen. Scott a suspension of arms. A flag of truce was dispatched to the American headquarters for this purpose, with the view of giving time for the opening of negotiations for the renewal of pacific relations. The Mexican Government intimated to Gen. Scott that it was ready to treat for peace on the propositions brought by Mr. Trist. Thus, at the eleventh hour, has the stubborness of our hitherto intractable neighbor given way, and the best hopes may be entertained that we are on the eve of sheathing the sword, a consummation heartily to be desired by every friend of humanity.

The American Commander in chief at once acceded to the request of the Mexican Government, and a truce was declared.—The city of Mexico, we learn, is absolutely at our mercy, being surrounded by our army. Gen. Worth, at the head of his division, is in the rear of the capital, having it in his power to cut off all the supplies from that quarter. The decisive action at San Angel, where Valencia's troops were put to flight, took place on the 26th ult. Of course, we know nothing of the details, nor of the loss sustained in the two conflicts by the 2 armies. The express which brought the intelligence to Vera Cruz, came by the way of Orazaba; the despatch concludes with these remarkable words:—"Peace will positively be the result!"

MAJOR LALLY'S TRAIN.—The train under the escort of Major Lally was at Jalapa when last heard from, having been continually harrassed throughout his march from the National Bridge. The Boletin of that city states that the train came in there on the morning of the 20th ult., El Sol. of the 20th ult., says, in relation thereto: "At 11 o'clock, on the 19th. Major Lally inquired of the alcalde whether citizens of Jalapa would commit hostilities against the Americans if they entered or not. To which the alcalde answered, that the population was unarmed; but that a great number of guerillas being in the neighborhood, he could not take the responsibility of their actions. On the morning of the 20th the train of wagons and the troops entered the city. The Boletin says that the wagons are filled with the sick and wounded.

Our correspondent intimates that Major Lally had been twice wounded in the various conflicts he had with the foe.

ALVARADO.—We find by our correspondent that a party of guerillas lately made an irruption into Alvarado but had not done so much harm as was reported here on the arrival of the New Orleans. They murdered some three or four of our marines attached to the Custom-house at that port.

CAMPEACHY.—Indicator states that the Indians had risen en masse in the neighborhood of Campeachy, and had marched into that place, carrying havoc and devastation in their train. We have already given, in late advices from Merida, some details of the insurrection in Yucatan, which seems to have been wide spread.

RAVAGES OF THE SHIP FEVER.—The accounts of the ship fever raging among the immigrants landed at Quebec, Montreal and Frosse Isle, still continue to be of the most melancholy character. At Gross Isle, the deaths are from 30 to 50 every twenty four hours, and at Montreal about 30 during the same period.

It is said that vessels arrive with the most awful forms of the disease on board.—Passengers have died when but a few days out on the voyage, and the fear of infection has been so great, that the dead bodies have been allowed to accumulate, and when the vessels arrived in port, the putrid remains have actually been carried out in buckets.

FROM THE PACIFIC SQUADRON.—The Washington Union states that despatches have been received at the Navy Department from Commodore Biddle, of as late a date as May 3, 1847, at Monterey, from which the following intelligence of the movements of the squadron under his command is obtained. The "Independence," the "Cyane," and the "Portsmouth" were on the coast of Mexico, enforcing the blockade of Mazatlan and Guaymas. The frigate "Congress" was on her way from San Diego, and the "Dale" had sailed from Panama to Monterey.—The "Warren" was at San Pedro. The "Preble" arrived at Monterey on the 23d April, with Mr. Norris, bearer of despatches from Washington. The store-ship "Erie" was at Monterey.

MR. THOMAS & THE FREE NEGROES.

Mr. Thomas, in his speech in Carroll county, says "that he was in favor of representation according to population," consequently the free negro population of Baltimore city would, in the new Constitution which his "REFORM" calls for, be entitled to the same weight of influence and representation that is now possessed by two of the most respectable counties of the State. After the census of 1840, their weight and influence would be equal to four or five of the small counties? People of Maryland, are you ready for Mr. Thomas' system of "Reform."—Rough and Ready.

HORRIBLE CATASTROPHE.—The Baltimore American contains a letter from Knightstown, Indiana, which states that on the evening of the 24th inst. as Messrs. Welch & Delavan's Circus Company were performing at that place, a tremendous hurricane passed over, upset their canvass tent, and tore parts of it to atoms At the time it occurred, Mr. Levi North, a well known equestrian, was going through his favorite four horse act, when the horses took fright, and threw him on the planks in the ring, dashing his brains out, and killing him instantly. The ring master was run over by some of the horses, and had one of his arms broken and was otherwise injured, but it is thought not dangerously. Several others of the company were hurt, and among the spectators two women and a child were killed instantly, and several others more or less hurt. The storm lasted only a few minutes and devastated a space of a half mile wide, blowing down buildings and killing several persons in the country. The destruction to timber, horses, cattle, sheep, crops, &c. is immense.

☞ MR HAAS, the Daguerreotype artist who has been expected here for some time, and detained at Cambridge for the last four weeks, will now be here very shortly. The citizens of Easton will be delighted on seeing the fine and beautiful daguerreotypes of this great artist. We saw a few days ago, some of his specimens exhibited at Mr. Peter Tarr's, and we can truly say that nothing has been seen equal to them. No painting excels the beauty and correctness of these pictures—they are perfectly life like. We have heard from several who have seen the daguerreotypes of this great artist at the Whig Convention at Barren Creek Springs, that they exceed in every respect any thing of the kind exhibited in this part of the country.

Robert H. McKnett vs. Edward Valliant Mary Ellen Valliant and Thomas Valliant. } In Chancery Aug. 1847.

THE object of the Bill filed in this cause is to obtain a Decree for the sale of the Real Estate, whereof Thomas Valliant of Caroline county, died seized for the purposes of division amongst those entitled.

The Bill states that the said Thomas Valliant, died seized of Real Estate, in Caroline County called and known by the name "Valliants Delight" having first made his will and that he left the following persons his heirs, and legal representatives to wit, a surviving widow Ann Valliant, and the following children Polly Valliant, Thomas Valliant and ——— Valliant a child then unborn! but with which the said widow Ann Valliant was encient, and who was subsequently born and named Henry Valliant. That said Ann Valliant widow to whom under the said Will of said Thomas Valliant his Real Estate was left during her natural life or widowhood, hath since departed this life and the Real Estate of said Thomas Valliant deceased, devolved upon and descended to the aforesaid children Thomas Valliant, Henry Valliant and Polly, as Tenants in common. That said Henry Valliant hath sold and transferred his undivided interest in said Real Estate to the Complainant Robert H. McKnett. That the said Thomas Valliant is living and resides in Caroline county, and that the said Polly Valliant intermarried with a certain Edward Valliant of the state of Ohio, and is since deceased, leaving a husband surviving her and an only child, Mary Ellen Valliant an infant of tender years who with her father resides in the State of Ohio. That it would be greatly to the interest of all parties concerned, that the said Real Estate should be sold and the proceeds thereof divided among the parties entitled.

It is thereupon ordered that the Complainant by causing a copy of this order to be published in some Newspaper in Talbot county once in each week for one month before the 30th day of September next, give notice to the said non resident defendants of the substance and object of this Bill and warning them to appear in this Court in person or by a solicitor on or before the 24th day of January next to show cause if any they have why a decree should not be passed as prayed,
