And the said cause thus standing was continued until the next Term of the said Court, at which next Term Towit July Term 1849, Came the defendant Stephen L Lee by his Counsel Alexander Randall Esq and filed in the said Cause his petition in the words following Towit

To the Honorable John Johnson Chancellor of Maryland

The petition of Stephen L Lee of Anne Arundel County respectfully states that on the tenth day of January last John B Welham administrator of John Welham filed a bill of Complaint in this Court against your petitioner and others to foreclose a mortgage or have a sale of mortgage property belonging to your petitioner to pay a debt which the said Wellham claims by assignment whereon such proceedings were had that your petitioner now understands and believes that a decree interlocutory was obtained against him on the fourth day of last month whereon a Commission was taken out and certain proof taken before the Commissioners and returned to this Court on the 27th day of last month, all of which will more fully and at large appear by reference to the said proceedings now on file in this Court which your petitioner prays may be taken as part of this his petition,

Your Petitioner further states that he never was to his knowledge served with the writ in this cause that the Sheriff some time this spring told him he had a writ against him, but that the Sheriff on enjury
