heartfelt condolence on their melancholy bereavement.

The "Standard by which the "Monitor" judges us is so pure, chaste, exalted and refined that we could scarcely hope to come up to his ideas of gentility, even if we had vanity enough to aspire to such distinction, nor can we consent to imitate his ruling "Star," and play the part of second fiddle to the faithful "Argus."

We shall pursue the "even tenor of our way," regardless of his admonition, and would advise him to pay more regard to the "inward monitor," and "pluck the beam out of thiee own eye &c."

☞We have received from a most estimable source an article on the subject of bribery and corruption, which nothing but the crowded state of our columns, being the last sheet, prevents us from publishing. The views are sound and well expessed and at a future time we will publish it.

EASTERN SHORE LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST.

The time is rapidly approaching when every Eastern Shoreman will be called upon to deposit his ballot for Governor of his State—and well should he know the sentiments of each aspirant to that office before he casts that ballot. Let every Eastern Shoreman reflect before he votes for Col. P. F. Thomas, that he is in favor of robbing the Eastern Shore of her just and proper rights and influence in the Legislature of your State, by giving to the Western Shore counties, on account of their wealth and riches, a larger represen tation than they now have, (using Mr. Thomas' own language,) and diminishing the representation of the Eastern Shore counties. Will you, Eastern Shoremen, tolerate such doctrines?—are you prepared to say that you have no right to your present ratio of influence in the counsels of your State?—are you prepared to say, that because Providence has blessed our Western Shore neighbors with more wealth than we, that therefore, they should have the mastery over us?—if so, vote for Col. Thomas.—He has never, throughout his many masterly speechifications over the State, told you what he would do for the Eastern Shore, but has left her as a loafer upon the wide world, to take care of herself. I have often heard it said that the poor man has no friends, but the rich man can draw them around him at his pleasure.—So stands the two Shores of our State as respects Mr. Thomas' assistance. The Eastern Shore in her measureable poverty, will not rec ive the helping hand of Col. Thomas, as he tells you—but the Western Shore, with her broad rich acres, and her mines of great value, hears the encouraging news from Col. Thomas that he will help her to a greater share of the benefits from your State treasury than she now has.—Remember that this is no idle declamation—that it is no fanciful sketch drawn by an over zealous politician, but it is a fair deduction from Colonel Thomas' Hagerstown speech, and his letter to the Hon. John T. Mason. Then look carefully to your rights and your interests and be not deceived by the miserable humbug cry of "Thomas and Reform," but cast your votes for the plain, sensible honest farmer, Wm. T. Goldsborough, and thus secure to yourselves and your posterity a steady, uniform and permanent system of government, that will advance your interest and maintain the honor and credit of your State.

For the Easton Gazette.

Mr. Editor:—I have heard it asserted that Mr. Thomas, the Locofoco candidate for Governor, in 1843 voted against a proposition in favor of a Convention to revise our Constitution, and in 1845 voted and spoke in the Legislature in favor of the same measure. I have heard that he voted in the Legislature in favor of the Biennial Session Bill, and against it at the Polls, when the Law was before the people.—Are these things so? I have no journals and should like to be informed.

BAY SIDE.

Sept. 30, 1847.

In answer we have to state that Mr Thomas did in both cases vote as charged as far as we can ascertain. If wrongly informed, our neighbors of the Star can correct us. [Editor.

TO THE INDEPENDENT VOTERS OF TALBOT COUNTY.

You are to be called upon to vote at the approaching election, for a commissioner to fill a vacancy from the Chapel district, in your County Commissioner's board. Richard A. Stevens, a very recent settler in your midst, has been brought out by the Democratic party as candidate for that office.

It is but right and proper, fellow voters, that you should be made acquainted with the character of the candidate who comes before you for your suffrage, and for that purpose the following certificates are offered you without comment—they speak for themselves. A CHAPEL VOTER.

I hereby certify that my father, Thomas Greenhauk, lived upon the land of Richard A. Stevens, the present candidate for Commissioner upon the democratic ticket. Mr. Stevens knowing him to be in debt, distrained upon his property before the rent became due. The distress was made on a Thursday during my fathers illness, and he died upon the following Friday. Mr. Stevens finding my father extremely ill, and likely to die every minute, said he "came there to throw the dam'd old son of a bitch upon the floor and take the bed from under him, but as he was so near dead, he would let him die upon it, but take it afterwards." My father died on Friday morning—was buried on Sunday, and on Monday Mr. Stevens came with his carts and removed every dollars worth of property, amounting in all to about eighty dollars, to satisfy a debt not then due, of thirty dollars. Mr. Stevens never exposed this property to public sale, but kept it to himself without making a return of one cent, to either his Widow or his children.

I farther certify, that having loaned my father two bushels of wheat, which had not been used at his death, I went to his house and took it away. Mr. Stevens hearing of the fact, came and searched my house for it. And I further believe that said Stevens kept a watch upon the premises of my father, from the time of his death untill the property was removed.

Test.—George W. Scott.

I hereby certify, that one or two days after the death of Thomas Greenhauk, I fell in company with Richard A. Stevens in the Chapel district, and heard him say in reference to his matters of business with Mr. Greenhauk, that "he (Stevens) did go to Greenhauk's with the intention of throwing the damned old son of a bitch off his bed upon the floor, and take his bed from under him for rent, but he found him so near dead that he thought he would let him lay on it until he did die.

JOHN LEAVERTON.

I hereby certify, that the language charged upon Richard A. Stevens, in the foregoing certificate, or language of the same meaning, was used in my presence by said Stevens.

JAMES KINNEMAN.

For the Gazette.

Mr. Editor:—It has only been a few days since I heard that the Hon. P. F. Thomas was going to extirpate himself from Talbot and from the Eastern Shore, but I had more confidence in his Democracy, than to think for a moment he would advocate doctrines that would disfranchise the old Shore that gave him birth, and made him all that he is. If he has made up his mind to remove from among us, it shows a desire to strip us of all, first of representation, by having it according to axation; and then by depriving us of one Governor in three, which our Western Shore friends cordially conceded to us; and if Mr Thomas has determined to go, and only remains to see if he is elected, he is certainly already extirpated, and cannot be called an Eastern Shore Governor. Now my dear friend, Mr. Thomas, if you are determined to deprive us of your talents, your eloquence, and your very amiable self, don't deprive us of our darling rights, for you know if we are Eastern Shoremen we love our rights, and will repudiate the man or set of men who will dare to wrest them from us, and with more success than your bill of 1843 repudiated the ponderous tax of twenty-five cents on the hundred dollars, which was grinding us to dust and our citizens were not able to pay, but which must be repudiated, as you said. But I would say to you, Mr. Thomas, if you should take up your residence in the city of Baltimore, you will find faith loving and tax paying people, to the tune of fifty or sixty cents on the hundred dollars, and if you were to gravely propose to them Repudiation, it would shatter their nerves and astonish all except a few sycophants, who are always ready to do and say any thing for the spoils.

AN EASTERN SHOREMAN.

For the Easton Gazette.

Mr. Editor:—Unavoidable circumstances prevented our noticing until now, the piece in the "Star," of 13th ult. signed "An Independent Voter," in which we are charged with circulating a "foul slander against an honest and upright citizen." We disclaim all such intention and deny that it is a slander, and furthermore, can assure the puny gentleman, that we are so far above every thing of the kind, that we cannot stoop to so mean and contemptible a subterfuge to promote the interest of any one. Our motto always has been "fiat justitia ruat cœlum," and while we continue to fight under that banner and battle in so just a cause, we have no fear of our "very signature bringing condemnation on us."

We have not the piece before us, nor do we recollect the wording of it, but we believe he asks if we know Mr. Thomas.—We do know Mr. Thomas, and have probably known him longer than the "Independent Voter," even if he has known him from his "youth," and we have always entertained a very different opinion of Mr. Thomas' democracy, from what the gentleman now does, and he will soon find that there are a great many in our community, well acquainted with Mr. Thomas, who hold opinions consonant with our own.

We are aware that Mr. Thomas' democracy extends as far as his interests, but no farther, for we have some knowledge of his making a lengthy speech in favor of a certain measure, but afterwards finding it did not sit so well upon the stomachs of his democratic friends as he expected, he turns a complete somerset and goes the "whole hog" against it. The "Independent Voter" may not recollect that, as he was then engaged in other pursuits, or was too young to trust his unfledged pinions upon the atmosphere of politics, or to take upon himself to inflict certain "stripes" (and such stripes) upon the worthy people of Talbot, and all other readers of the "Star."

We confess we were surprised that Mr. Thomas should advocate such doctrines at the hustings, (as we always thought him too wily and cunning a politician to throw such a stumbling block in his own way, while in pursuit of the highest honors of the State,) but while we have the evidence of so many disinterested witnesses, gentlemen of standing in their own community, —members of Mr. Thomas' own party, many of whom have enjoyed the trust and confidence of their fellow citizens to a great degree, we cannot but believe he did utter the sentiments imputed to him, notwithstanding his evasive and unsatisfactory letter to the contrary, and the weighty opinion of "An Independent Voter." They say Mr. Thomas did not mean what he said. Oh no! certainly not. Neither did he mean to repudiate the whole of the State debt when he brought forward his famous bill in 1843, but only a part of it, and now his pedantic parasites would have us believe he only meant a part of what he said in his Hagerstown speech. Out upon such hypocrisy! The gentleman says he is going to put his "mark of approbation" upon Mr. Thomas on the 6th. It will be but a small mark to be sure, but before he does act, we would advise him to consider well, lest when too late he should be compelled to exclaim,

"Had I but served my God with half the zeal
I served my King, he would not, in mine age,
Have left me naked to mine enemies."

JUSTITIA.

From the Rough and Ready.

EVERY MAN TO HIS POST.

The question to be decided at our coming election is one which concerns, deeply concers, every man in the State, as well as those who hold landed estates as those whose industry are their only capital in trade.

If WILLIAM T. GOLDSBOROUGH should be elected he will carry out the wise policy of his predecessor, and assume the payment of the interest on the State Debt in January next, and thenceforth Maryland will be restored to the enviable condition of a debt paying State, and rank, as she ought to rank, in the eyes of the world, as an honest commonwealth, and her people will at once be respected at home and abroad, as a community among whom integrity and the obligation of contracts are justly appreciated.

If P. FRANCIS THOMAS should be elected, we have every reason to apprehend, that he will pursue the course pursued by Governors Grason and Frank Thomas, who made no exertion to rescue the State from the condition of a defaulting one. The policy of these two democratic Governors as well as the action of Mr. Thomas, the present candidate, while in the Legislature, go to confirm this belief. It is known to almost every voter in Maryland, that in 1843, Mr. Thomas introduced a repudiating bill into the House of Delegates of this State, and it is but reasonable to infer that he would carry out that doctrine in the event of his election. Men do not often desert their first love.

To prevent an event at once so disastrous to the honor of our State and to the prosperity of our people, it becomes the duty of every good citizen to see that every voter, who is opposed to repudiation, should be brought out to the polls, and there, by his vote, declare his abhorrence of that destructive heresy, Repudiation, of which Mr Thomas is one of the fathers, and the only man who had the hardihood to introduce a bill into our Legislature to carry its monstrous principles into effect.

Let not the fact that there may be no Locofoco ticket in any one of the counties, deter the friends of State faith from bringing out our entire strength—the absence of such an opposition may be the result of a purposed omission to lull the Whigs into a state of "insecure security"—to keep the Whigs at home, and thereby effect the election of Mr. Thomas. We therefore say to the Whigs throughout the State, BE NOT DECEIVED, BUT RALLY YOUR ENTIRE STRENGTH. NOW IS THE TIME TO CRUSH REPUDIATION.

Appointments by the President.—Consuls of the United States.—John McPherson, of Virginia, for the port of Genoa; Hugh Keenan, of Pennsylvania, for the port of Dublin; Charles Hoffnagle, of Pennsylvania, for the port of Calcutta.—Union.

Yellow Fever at Pensacola.—We regret to learn, by a young gentleman just arrived from Pensacola, Florida, that the yellow fever is very prevalent at that place, whole families being down with the disease, and deaths occurring daily.

"The Old Man Eloquent."—The venerable John Quincy Adams will take his seat in Congress during the ensuing session. He thinks he can winter in Washington more comfortable than in the severe climate of Massachusetts.
