and Henrietta may seperately discover and set forth what Consideration was actually paid by them or either of them upon the execution of the deed of the 29th Jany 1838 and how and to whom it was paid and why the sum of eleven thousand dollars was agreed upon and inserted as the apparent Consideration for said deed and what communications passed between them or either of them or the said Deborah Randall and John T. Randall in relation to it prior to or about the time of its execution and whether the proposition to make it came from them or either of them or the said Deborah in the first instance or from the said John T. Randall or was suggested directly or indirectly by the said Beale Randall and whether any agreement written or verbal or any informal understanding in relation to said deed or to the uses to which it was to enure was entered into or took place between the parties to it prior to or at the time of making it or has been entered into or taken place between them since and whether the said Beale Randall was privy to its execution and when he was made aware of it and what communication was made him on the subject and whether it was not part of some arrangement entered into at the time of its execution or shortly after that they the said Deborah Charlotte and Henrietta should execute wills or codicils to wills of the same tenor in relation to the property embraced in it and what their property and means were on the first day of January 1837 and January 1838 and on the 28 June 1838 independent of the property conveyed to them as aforesaid by the said Beale Randall in the months of April and September 1834 and December 1835 and whether the said Charlotte Henrietta and Deborah were made aware of the payment of the mortgage debt hereinbefore mentioned to Micha Lloyd and when they learnt it and what was actually paid and how and to whom and when was it paid and from what source were the necessary funds derived and that the said Charlotte and Henrietta may set forth and discover what consideration was actually paid by them or the said Deborah Randall upon the execution of the deeds of April and September 1834 and how and to whom it was paid and what communications passed between them and the said Beale Randall in relation to said deeds prior to their execution and whether the proposition to make them came from them or him and whether any agreement written or verbal or any informal understanding in relation to said deeds or the uses to which they were to enure was entered into or took place between the parties to them prior to their execution or at that time or has been entered into or taken place since and that the said Henrietta may set forth and discover what consideration was actually paid by her upon the execution of the ~~the~~ deed of the 31st December 1835 and how and to whom it was paid and what communications passed between her and the said Beale Randall in relation to it prior to its execution and whether any agreement verbal written or verbal or any informal understanding in relation to said deed or the uses to which it was to enure was entered into or took place between the parties to it prior to or at the time of its exec or has been entered into or taken place since and that the said John, Charlotte and Henrietta may set forth and discover what they have received of the rents issues and profits of the pieces or parcels of land conveyed to them by the several Indentures aforementioned and to whom or for whose use they have paid the same or any part thereof and that the said Beale, John, Charlotte and Henrietta may seperately set forth and discover what property of every description the said Beale had on the first day of January 1834 and that they and Exhibit a schedule thereof specifying the several items and their supposed value and the disposition made of them and what monies they the said John, Charlotte and Henrietta and the said Deborah in her life time have paid to the said Beale Randall, or for his use since the 22d April 1834

And that by this Honorable Court it may be adjudged ordered and decreed that the several Indentures hereinafter mentioned from the said Beale Randall that is to say one of them bearing date the 22d April 1834 executed in favor of Deborah Charlotte and Henrietta Randall and recorded among the land records of Baltimore County Court in Liber T. K. No. 240 folio 503 &c. another of them bearing date the 22d May 1834 executed in favor of the said John T. Randall and recorded among the land records aforesaid in Liber T. K. No. 240 folio 305 &c. another of them bearing date the 6th September 1834 executed in favor of the said Charlotte, Henrietta and Deborah Randall and recorded among the land records aforesaid in Liber T. K. No. 241 folio 139 &c. another of them bearing date the 31 December 1835 executed in favor of the said Henrietta Randall and recorded among the land records aforesaid in Liber T. K. No. 257 folio 319 and also a certain other Indenture executed by the said John T. Randall in favor of the said Charlotte, Henrietta and Deborah Randall bearing date the 29 June 1838 and recorded among the land records aforesaid in Liber T. K. No. 280 folio 381 &c are and shall be held to be null and void and as regards certain pieces or parcels of land in said deeds described that is to say all that lot of ground in the city of Baltimore which was conveyed by James Howard and wife to Beale Randall on the 5th March 1833 by deed recorded among the land records aforesaid in Liber T. K. No. 226 folio 196 and all that other lot of ground in said City mortgaged by the said Beale Randall to one Micha Lloyd on the 28th January 1834 by deed recorded among the land records aforesaid in Liber T. K. No. 224 folio 296 and all that other lot of ground in said City on the North side of Franklin Street to which the representatives of Larkin W. Randall and assignees of Anthony L. Cook the said Beale Randall became entitled under a contract to lease the same entered into by one Henry Peters with the said Anthony Cook and Larkin Randall and all that other lot of ground on Park Street in the same City which was leased to the said Beale Randall by Elizabeth Jones on the 11th October 1832 and all that lot of ground fronting about forty feet on the north side of George Street in said City and extending Northerly to Lancaster Street and all that other lot of ground fronting about sixty feet on the South side of said George Street and extending Southerly to the water having a wharf