for which they had given their note which has been paid since of the proper moneys of defendant and sisters as all other payments herein before mentioned have been paid. That nothing was said about wills or codicils to wills. Defendant says that the property belonging to her and sisters on the first day of January 1837 consisted of A House and lot on Franklin Street, two houses, and lots on Chesnut Alley two houses and lots and an office on Saratoga Street two houses and lots on Church Streets. A ground rent of five pounds per annum an equitable right to the property conveyed by the said Beale to the said John for sixty thousand dollars as hereinbefore stated and a farm in the country. The same property belonged to defendant and sisters in 1838 no change occurred until the 29th of June 1838, when that property so held in the name of their brother John and to which they had an equitable right was deeded to them by the said John. Defendant says that she does not know positively of any property that belonged to said Beale in 1834 except the two lots as described in the Complainants Bill and a farm purchased of the said Beale by defendant and sisters. She has heard him say that he owned a valuable interest in a lumber concern, on which he had given a lien to complainant. That he owned property near the Spring Gardens that he had a life estate in a farm lying in Anne Arundel County and that five thousand dollars would be coming to him from the old or first firm of A.G. Cole & Company when settled, and this defendant says that she kept no account of the rents and profits of the estate so purchased as aforesaid from the said Beale nor did either of her said sisters or brother and therefore cannot render any such account, but says that she and sisters did receive all the rents from said property as aforesaid except that part of the said property which they have not had in their possession. And this defendant herewith files a statement marked Exhibit H. R. of the monies paid by her and sisters for the said property so purchased by them which she prays may be taken as part of her answer, and this defendant admits the death of her said sister Deborah as stated in the bill and that her said sister Debnah made and published her will as stated. This defendant also says that her sister Charlotte devised all her estate to this defendant and departed this life about the 1st of April 1841 And this defendant further answering says that in the said Beales absence the complainants by color of law did obtain an attachment and judgment of condemnation against the said Beale and against the property mentioned and described in said proceedings in said cause. And thereafterwards the complainant did sue out a fieri facias on said judgment and that the sheriff did return the complainant as the purchaser of the whole property so described for the sum of eighty dollars including as well the property theretofore sold and conveyed by the said Beale to his sisters and brother in manner as aforesaid as also the said Beales undivided interest and estate in part of the estate of A.G. Cole & Co, which has been so conveyed by the said Beale to the complainant as aforesaid in trust at his request but this defendant does not admit the legal effect and result of the said proceedings as contended for by the complainant, without that there is any other matter or thing in the said bill stated and not herein traversed denied confessed or avoided is true &c. all of which this defendant is ready to aver and prove &c. and she prays to be hence dismissed with costs &c.
