POETRY.

MY NIECE FANNY VANE.

BY MRS. S ...ete

Well, I own that I sh... busy way, ...se
From the match-maki... arts I survey;
Lady Dashall, a marqui... girl, fi...
And they say Mrs. Gaylo... I have not a daughter to...
By pushing her thus thro... of life.
And I feel that no mortal ... raign
The plan I pursue with my niece... Vane.

If I tell her to dance, when I si... cards
Bid her stand up in tableaux, a... act in charades,
'Tis only to wear off that shyness which some
Call the dew on the flower, and the bloom on the plum;
And which, doubtless, a charm to her manner may lend,
Since it always wears off when she talks with a friend;
Yet this blushing reserve, I must fankly maintain,
Seems a drawback, to me, in my niece; Fanny Vane:

On her talents I dwell not—I cannot compete
With those talkative mothers whom nightly I meet;
Who all of their daughters' accomplishments boast,
In raptures, surpassing the puffs of the Post,
Perhaps I may err on the contrary side,
Lacking motherly weakness and motherly pride;
To foster self-love I could never yet deign.
And I see all the faults of my niece, Fanny Vane.

When she dances, though airy and rapid her feet,
Taglioni, I reckon is somrwhat more fleet;
When she sings, though her notes may be tuneful and clear,
Persiani appears just as sweet to my ear;
I hear her discourse, and her genius I praise,
But alas! I have talked with De Stael in past days;
And in clever prose tales, and in poesy's strain,
Lady Blessington rivals my niece, Fanny Vane.

Of her beauty some rave—I perhaps do her wrong—
But her eyelashes seem to me vastly too long;
And the thin flattened bands, that our fashionists wear,
Please me more than her ringlets of rich silken hair;
The bloom on her cheek the young rose might outvie;
But paleness appears more refined to my eye:
And her feet look too tiny her form to sustain—
None can say that I flatter my niece, Fanny Vane.

Then my influence totally fails, I confess,
To lead her to care about fashion and dress;
What others their mirrors consult on their looks
She sits in her dressing-room poring o'er books;
'Tis true that those books are well chosen and sage,
And her mind they prepare for the season of age,
But yet too much study does harm to the brain—
I must soon put a check on my neice, Fanny Vane.

She is saving enough on herself, to be sure,
But lavishes terrible sums on the poor;
And she sighs, leafy woods and green meadows to mark,
When beaux throng around, as we drive through the Park;
With a treasure in her would a nobleman meet,
Who lived most of the year at his family seat!
But young girls, London gayeties should not disdain—
By far too retired is my niece, Fanny Vane.

Yet I own, though I daily her feelings reprove,
She shows me unvarying duty and love;
From my roof she declares she can never depart,
Unless pressed o'er and o'er by the man of her heart;
Her offers—but hush! every whisper has wings—
I am not a mother to boast of such things—
The names I could mention—bnt no it would pain
The sensitive mind of my dear Fanny Vane.

When she quits me I know I shall say with a tear,
I have been on her faults much too hard and severe;
Nor long shall I bear to continue alone,
Should she ask me to reckon her house as my own;
Though mothers, I think, should avoid with much care,
Passing much of their time with a young married pair;
I shall feel it my duty, through life to remain,
The vigilant guide of my niece Fanny Vane.

VALUABLE LAND AND STEAM SAW MILL,
on Tilghman's Island FOR SALE.

THE subscriber finding it inconvenient to attend to the cutting and sawing of timber, will now sell on advantageous terms his tract of Wood Land, on Tilghman's Island, containing

196 acres of Land,

fifty acres of which is very heavily timbered WHITE OAK. The Steam SAW MILL circular and perpendicular saws, new boilers and in complete order, will be sold with the tract of land. There are four or five small Houses on the land for the accomodation of workmen. The timber when sawed can be put on board vessels and shipped at little expense. The subscriber has always had a full market for timber cut by him, and now has many orders on hand. He wishes to sell only on account of his desire to enjoy retirement.

To a purchaser giving ample security full and ample credit will be given, in order that the purchaser may realise the money for the timber.

COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE.

ON application of John Harper and others of School District No. 3 in Election district No. 2, the Commissioners for Talbot county did on 13th July last appoint Rich Feddeman, Jeremiah Leonard and Oliver Harrison, Committee to view and alter or divide said dis't. who on the 12th Oct inst., made the following report to wit. Having viewed said district, we are of opinion, that it ought to be divided, and do therefore recommend the following divisional line—viz. Beginning at a Cove making up to the residence of the late Rev. John Dorsan, and running on the North side of Chesnut street in St. Michaels, sixty feet from said street and parallel with said street, until it intersects the waters of Broad Creek, on the West side of St. Michaels. The upper district still to be called district No. 3 and the lower to be called District No. 9.

Signed, R. FEDDEMAN,
O. HARRISON,
J. LEONARD.

Whereupon it was ordered by the Commissioners for T. C. that the report be published in the newspapers of Easton, and that the same be ratified unless cause to the contrary be shown in thirty days.

Per order,

DR. MARTIN'S UNIVERSAL PURGATIVE PILLS.

THESE PILLS have been used by Dr. Martin in an extensive practice for many years, and with the greatest success especially in BILLOUS and LIVER DISEASES — They are also particularly recommended in Chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Nervous diseases, habitual costiveness They may be taken in all cases when a purgative is needed with perfect safety. But of many certificates in our possession we shall only publish one from a highly respectable Physician.

Upper Hunting Creek, Carcline co. Md.
October 17, 1846.

Dr. George T. Martin.—Sir, having been made acquainted with the composition of your valuable Pill, by yourself some two or three years ago, I have used them freely in my private practice with entire success, and shall continue to do so as long as I may practice medicine, and I now take great pleasure in recommending such a Pill as yours to the public as a safe and effectual purgative in all cases where a purgative is necessary.

Your's with respect
JOHN F BOON, M. D.

We offer also MARTIN and WHITELEY'S NATIONAL TONIC a certain cure for the AGUE & FEVER. This valuable medicine is perhaps the best of the kind ever offered to the public. It is truly a scientific compound. In this remedy will be found all those qualities which must make it a general favorite in all Billous, or Malarious districts. With each bottle there will be a short treatise on fevers which is made comprehensible to every capacity. This Tonic will be found perfectly harmless as regards its effects on the constitution. By its action it restores the digestive functions to health, and speedily removes disease, and even the most inveterate cases of, Ague and Fever. DR. MARTIN'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

This compound is one of the best remedies ever offered to the public in Cough, whether arising from Colds, or the Hooping Cough, or that dreadful malady Consumption. Few remedies in the short time it has been before the Public, have effected so many cures The proprietors are every day receiving orders for it in this City, and at a distance, in which they have been highly gratified to learn its good effects. We have the permission of the Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church of Maryland (the Right Rev. W, R. Whittingham) to say he has used the remedy in his own person with decided benefit. Our medical friends do not scruple to recommend it as one of the best remedies in Consumption Asthma &c which they have ever met with the following is from a highly respectable Physician on Kent Island to whom we made known the ingredients of the preparation.

Kent Island, June 22d, 1847.

Dr. G. T. Martin,

Dear Sir,—Since my return home I have prescribed your SYRUP of WILD CHERRY in several cases, one in particular a case of Asthma of long standing (about 12 years) a neighbor and patient of mine. Her disease has never been benefited by any medicine which she has taken, and for the last year or two she has been confined entirely to the house. I do not know that she has had a good nights rest for a long time, but since she commenced taking your medicine (and she has only taken one bottle) she is enabled to go to bed and sleep well all night. I think the medicine will make a perfect cure of her and she is determined to give it a fair trial Her husband Mr. R. Erickson is a merhant here, and says if you will send him some of it, he will act as your agent. I think you might send him some of your other preparations which will meet with ready sale. I send a small bill for medicines which you will please send me and

Oblige your's respectfully
