In the Case of John Glenn vs Beale Randall & others } In Baltimore County Court in Equity. To the Honorable the Judges of said Court

The petition of the defendants respectively sheweth, that the original bill in this case was filed on the 29th September 1841 and that at the time of the filing hereof Charlotte Randall named as a defendant to said suit was actually dead and that these defendants appeared to and answered said bill and set forth that fact in their answers, notwithstanding which fact the said plaintiff filed a general replication to the answers and sued forth a Commission to the standing Commissioners of Baltimore County on the 24th December 1842 to take testimony but these defendants aver and set it in fact that the said plaintiff never proceeded with the execution of
