EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, Md.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 20.

☞ A telegraphic report of Mr. Clay's great speech, at Lexington, Ky., on the 15th inst., upon the subject of the Mexican War, &c., and accompanying resolutions, have been received, but as a telegraphic report must necessarily be incorrect, we decline publishing any portion of it until we have received a full and correct copy, which Mr. Clay is now preparing for the press.

CATTLE SHOW AND FAIR.—In to-day's paper will be found a portion of the reports of the different Committees for the award of premiums, but owing to their length we are compelled to defer the remainder till next week. The report of the Committee on Horses we cannot publish in the regular order, as it has not been received.

☞ We understand that Messrs Haas & Peale, intend leaving Easton for St. Michaels, in a few days.

November term of Talbot County Court commenced its session on Monday last.

Court still in Session.

LOUISIANA ELECTION.—Mr. Thibodeaux, the Whig candidate for Congress in the Second District, is elected by a majority of about 700 at least. There is no doubt of the election of Harmanson, L. F. in the Third District, and of La Sere, L. F. in the First District. Nothing definite from the Fourth District.

The New Orleans Bee of the 6th instant says—

So far the House stands precisely as last year, each party having gained six members. If rumor is to be believed, the Whigs lose one in Rapides and gain two in Avoyelles, and two or three in Assumption, but we record no results that are not tolerably well ascertained. We are not without hopes of having carried the Legislature, but can know nothing positive until we hear from the strong Whig parishes of St. Landry, St. Martin and St. Mary, which two years ago returned full Whig delegations, but where we apprehend, local feuds may have lost us something.

GEORGIA SENATOR.—We are gratified to perceive that the Whigs of the Georgia Legislature have nominated the Hon. John McPherson Berrien for re-election as United States Senator. It is a tribute richly earned by his unti ing devotion to the best interests of the country, and we trust his re-election was accomplished without a dissenting Whig voice

U. S. SENATOR.—The Governor of Connecticut has appointed Roger G. Baldwin to fill the vacancy in the Senate of the United States, occasioned by the death of the Hon J. W. Huntington, until the meeting of the Legislature in May next.

It is said that Mr. Strong, of Norwich, declined the appointment, on the ground of interference with his professional engagements.

MASSACHUSETTS.—The Boston Atlas says that there are now only five small towns to be heard from, viz: Mt. Washington and Florida, in Berkshire; Southboro', in Worcester; Chilmark, in Dukes; and Chatham, in Barnstable. The aggregate vote for Governor in all except these five towns, is as follows: Briggs, 53,518; Cushing, 39,257; all others, 12,056.—Briggs clear majority, 2,205! Majority in the State against Cushing, 25,606.

The same paper makes the House, as far as heard from, stand, Whigs, 168; Democrats, 55; all others, 3. Whig majority, 110.

The Governor of Delaware has appointed the 25th instant a day of thanksgiving in that State.

THE NEW HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

We have information from a reliable source, that a movement is now on foot at Washington, to assemble all the Locofoco members on the first day of the approaching session, hoping, by the delay or detention of any of the Whigs, to secure the organization of the House and the election of its officers. They are prepared to adopt any expedient, however desperate, to retain the spoils, that they may employ them against our success in 1848. We, therefore, earnestly entreat our friends, whom this may reach in season, to hasten on to Washington before the day of meeting, and we call upon all our brethern of the press to join us in this appeal. Our small majority requires the presence of every man, and it is the duty of every Whig member to be upon the ground, prepared to fulfil his responsibility.

The Locofocos care for nothing but the officers, and they will scruple at no step to keep Mr. French and his underlings in place. They have already proposed bargains to this effect, and have had the assurance to state, (as we are informed, without any manner of authority) that Mr. Adams had pledged himself to support the present incumbent. In the event of Mr. French's defeat, which we regard as certain, they have offered the support of the whole party to some aspirant, who can draw off a few Whig votes, upon condition, that he will retain their long catalogue of lazy and incompetent subordinates. Of such a proceeding as this, should it be seriously attempted, we shall have something to say. We want no quasi-Whigs, who are prepared to take office on any terms.—We want none of your broken-down traders in politics, who infest Washington and whose lives have been employed in holding or seeking office. Let our friends get together at an early day and canvass the merits and claims of the different candidates—let the best man be chosen and let him be supported unanimously.

SENATOR HANNEGAN—A FIGHT.—We regret to notice during last week, at Crawfordsville, Ia, a quarrel took place between Senator Hannegan and a Mr. E. McDonald, which had its origin a year past in what is said to have been a mob, in which Mr. Hannegan was a party, and when McDonald says he got knocked into the canal, through the Senator's instrumentality. McD has ever since threatened vengeance, whenever they should meet. The Senator was attacked by McDonald—knocked down and trampled under foot, and his face horribly lacerated. After the Senator was removed, he returned with a gun, for vengeance on McDonald, but he had escaped. Such scenes are much to be regretted.—Cincinnati Gazette.

LAND SLIDE AT CLEVELAND.—We learn from the Cleveland Herald, that about half an acre of the highloke bank, at the foot of Erie street in that city, slid off in the lake on the night of the first instant, carrying down and crushing to atoms an untenanted dwelling house. The land has sunk about thirty feet nearly perpendicularly, and the break extends some twenty rods. The Government site for the Marine Hospital was considerably encroached upon by the slide, and it is thought that unless Congress makes an appropriation to take up the springs, grade and otherwise protect the property, the massive stone foundations of the Hospital will yet be piled along the beach.

SALE OF MOUNT SAVAGE WORKS.—On Thursday, the extensive iron works at Mount Savage, Md., together with all the land and machinery, and the railroad to Cumberland, were sold at public sale for $215,000. The purchasers were Messrs. Corning & Winslow of Albany, N. Y, and Mr J M. Forbes of Boston, Mass. who will immediately commence operations. The sale was made to satisfy the claims of the creditors in England, and the price obtained is, probably, not much over half the original cost.

NAVAL EXPIDITION TO THE DEAD SEA.—It is stated in the N. Y. Herald that a party of naval officers, under Lt. Wm. F. Lynch, will sail from N. Y. in a few days, in the U. S. store-ship Supply, to the Mediterranean, for the purpose of making an exploration and survey of the Dead Sea.—The order, it is said, emanates from the Navy department; but what object is intended, other than scientific research, is not said. As soon as the ship shall have arrived off the coast of Syria, the party will land, and Lieut. Pennock will succeed to the command of the Supply.

RESUMPTION IN MARYLAND.—John S. Gittings, Esq. commissioner of Loans of this State, announces the gratifying intelligence, that he is now prepared to pay the interest on the Maryland sterling bonds, at the rate of $4.84 or the pound sterling, to those who prefer to receive the interest in this country. Such as do not at present desire the payment of interest here, will receive it regularly in London on the 1st of January for which purpose the funds will be sent out in full time.—Clipper.

The Washington Union of Saturday night says—

"Letters have been received in this city from Lieut., Col. Hughes, who w ites from the National Bridge, on the 21st October, that he was about to make an excursion, with 250 men, against the guerilleros."

THE PHANTOM BALLOON.—Mr. Gale, the æronaut, witnessed a phenomenon during his ascent from Rosherville, which is said to be unprecedented in the annals of balloons. Having become becalmed and perfectly stationary, for a full quarter of an hour, he was preparing to descend, when he suddenly beheld a perfect "counterfeit presentment" of the machine depicted on the clouds to the southward. This appearance continued for about four minutes, when the balloon descended to a lower region, and the image gradually faded away.

Latest from the South.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM MEXICO.

Correspondence of the Baltimore Pat.

RICHMOND, Nov. 15, 1847.

The Southern mail has arrived, bringing dates from New Orleans to the 9th inst.

The steamer Galveston arrived at New Orleans on the morning of the 9th instant, from Vera Cruz, bringing four days later news from the city of Mexico.

Gen. Santa Anna, at the latest accounts, was in difficulty. It appears that while at Tehuacan, with only a few hundred soldiers, these become insubordinate and mutinied, rebelled against their commander, and left him to take care of himself, with only forty men. The cause of the mutiny was a want of pay. After this difficulty, Santa Anna departed for Orizaba, to meet his wife. Thus we find the great Mexican General—the modern Bombastes Furioso—reduced from the command of thousands—from power and influence among his people, from a position of high national eminence and almost idolatry—to the necessity of seeking retirement with a remnant of but two score soldiers to protect him. "How have the mighty fallen!"

Col. Childs has set out to join Gen. Scott, and Gen. Lane was in command at Puebla, where, at last dates, all was quiet.

Gen Scott still continues in peaceable possession of the "Halls of the Montezumas." There is no other news by this arrival of moment.

INTERESTING FROM SANTA FE.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 15.

The St. Louis papers received to-day inform us of the arrival in that city of a gentleman who brings news from Santa Fe, up to the 17th of September. At a fandango, on the 13th of Sept., some difficulty having arisen between a Mr. Bolt and a private in Capt. Gauer's company, the latter drew a pistol and shot the former dead. It caused some excitement among the people, but the culprit was immediately placed under arrest by the officers of the company, and, as the matter will undergo a legal investigation, all parties appeared satisfied.

At Santa Fe on the 12th, the troops were all in excellent health. The Illinois regiment stationed at this place, expected shortly to be reinforced by the arrival of some fresh troops. Col. Easton enforced rigid discipline, and was very popular with his troops. The inhabitants expressed themselves much pleased with his government, and seemed satisfied that they were used better than they ever had been before.

Letters from Judge Burdine, residing at Taos, had been received at Santa Fe, stating that the lawless portion of the Indians and Mexicans at that place had threatened to commit depredations on the property of the citizens, and that they anticipated much trouble from these worse than savages.—The commandant at Santa Fe, seeing the peril the inhabitants were in, their lives and property being in jeopardy, at once took prompt measures for their relief, by despatching several companies of troops to their assistance.

The Apachas Indians were murdering individuals and surprising small parties of emigrants and plundering them, whenever an opportunity occurred

An expedition was being fitted out, and a number of troops ordered south, but for what purpose was not stated.

Capt. McKay had three companies of dragoons under his command in New Mexico, at Albugue, the troops were in good health.

Santa Fe is represented to be in a most thriving condition; merchants were doing a prosperous business; houses are being built up in all directions, and commissary trains were arriving almost daily. The whole army of the west is said to be in a high state of discipline, and in fine condition. Report has it that there are no more troops eitheir at Chihuahua or Apparo.

The New Orleans Delta published a letter dated at the Castle of Perote, in Mexico on the 24th ultimo, which says that over six hundred and fifty deaths have occured in the Army Hospital at that place since the 1st day of June last.
