POETRY.

THERE IS NOTHING IN VAIN.

BY ELIZA COOK.

Oh! prize not the essence of Beauty alone,
And disdain not the weak and the mean in our way,
For the world is an engine—the Architect's own,
Where the wheels of least might keep the larger in play.
We love the fair valley, with bloom in the shade,
We sing of green hills—of the grape and the grain;
But be sure the Creator did well when he made
The stark desert and marsh—for there's nothing in vain.

We may question the locust that darkens the land;
And the snake, flinging the arrows of death from its eye;
But remember they come from the Infinite Hand,
And shall Man, in his littleness, dare to ask why?
Oh! let us not speak of the "useless" or "vile,"
They may seem so to us—but be slow to arraign:
From the savage wolf's cry to the happy childs smile,
From the mite to the mammoth, there's nothing in vain.

There's a mission, no doubt, for the worm in the dust,
As there is for the charger with nostrils of pride;
The sloth and the newt have their places of trust,
And the agents are needed, for God has supplied.
Oh! could we but trace the great meaning of ALL,
And what delicate links from the ponderous chain,
From the dew drops that rise, to the star-drops that fall,
We should see but one purpose, and nothing in vain.

D. H. Payne & Co., H. M., W. H. and E. T. M. Forman, and D. and E. Sprunance, agt. vs. Amelia Skinner, Sally H. Skinner, Henry C. Tilghman and his wife Milcah M. Tilghman, Thomas T. Williams and his wife Elizabeth Williams, Christopher Harrison, Executor of Andrew Skinner, Ann S. Reyner, Sarah Pricilla Reyner, John Boon Reyner, and Louisa Reyner, adm'x of James C. Reyner. } In Chancery. October 27. 1847.

THE object of this suit is to procure a Decree for the sale of certain real estate in Queen Annes Court.

The Bill states that a certain tract of Land which is described in said Bill was purchased by James C Reyner deceased of Andrew Skinner formerly of Talbot County and that the said Andrew Skinner died leaving certain heirs who possess the legal right to said Land.

That the said James C Reyner in his life time was indebted to the Complainant in sums of money therein fully mentioned and that administration of the personal estate of the said James C. Reyner was granted unto one Louisa Reyner, and that said personal estate being insufficient to discharge the debts of the said Reyner the said Complainants are unable to obtain relief except by a sale of the said Real Estate, and that Robert Skinner one of the said heirs mentioned in said Bill resides out of the state of Maryland. It is thereupon Adjudged and ordered that the Complainants by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Talbot county once in each successive week for one month before the 4th day of December next give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this Bill and warn him to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the fourth day of April next to answer the premises and show cause if any he has why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

DR. MARTIN'S UNIVERSAL
PURGATIVE PILLS.

THESE PILLS have been used by Dr. Martin in an extensive practice for many years, and with the greatest success especially in BILLOUS and LIVER DISEASES—They are also particularly recommended in Chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Nervous diseases, habitual costiveness They may be taken in all cases when a purgative is needed with perfect safety. But of many certificates in our possession we shall only publish one from a highly respectable Physician.

Upper Hunting Creek, Carcline co. Md.
October 17, 1846.

Dr. George T. Martin.—Sir, having been made acquainted with the composition of your valuable Pill, by yourself some two or three years ago, I have used them freely in my private practice with entire success, and shall continue to do so as long as I may practice medicine, and I now take great pleasure in recommending such a Pill as yours to the public as a safe and effectual purgative in all cases where a purgative is necessary.

Your's with respect
JOHN F BOON, M. D.

We offer also MARTIN and WHITELEY'S NATIONAL TONIC a certain cur for the AGUE & FEVER. This valuable medicine is perhaps the best of the kind ever offered to the public. It is truly a scientific compound. In this remedy will be found all those qualities which must make it a general favorite in all Billous, or Malarious districts With each bottle there will be a short treatise on fevers which is made comprehensible to every capacity. This Tonic will be found perfectly harmless as regards its effects on the constitution. By its action it restores the digestive functions to health, and speedily removes disease, and even the most inveterate cases of Ague and Fever. Prepared and sold by Martin and Whitley Wholesale druggist 320 Market Street Baltimore, and for sale by their agents.

DR. MARTIN'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

This compound is one of the best remedies ever offered to the public in Cough, whether arising from Colds, or the Hooping Cough or that dreadful malady Consumption. Few remedies in the short time it has been before the Public, have effected so many cures The proprietors are every day receiving orders for it in this City, and at a distance, in which they have been highly gratified to learn its good effects. We have the permission of the Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church of Maryland (the Right Rev. W. R. Whittingham) to say he has used the remedy in his own person with decided benefit. Our medical friends do not scruple to recommend it as one of the best remedies in Consumption Asthma &c which they have ever met with the following is from a highly respectable Physician on Kent Island to whom we made known the ingredients of the preparation.

Kent Island, June 22d, 1847.

Dr. G. T. Martin,

Dear Sir,—Since my return home I have prescribed your SYRUP of WILD CHERRY in several cases, one in particular a case of Asthma of long standing (about 12 years) a neighbor and patient of mine. Her disease has never been benefited by any medicine which she has taken, and for the last year or two she has been confined entirely to the house. I do not know that she has had a good nights rest for a long time, but since she commenced taking your medicine (and she has only taken one bottle) she is enabled to go to bed and sleep well all night. I think the medicine will make a perfect cure of her and she is determined to give it a fair trial. Her husband Mr. R Erickson is a merhant here and says if you will send him some of it, he will act as your agent. I think you might send him some of your other preparations which will meet with ready sale. I send a small bill for medicines which you will please send me and

Oblige your's respectfully
