EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, Md.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 27.

☞ In to-day's paper will be found the Resolutions offered by HON. HENRY CLAY, at the great Mass meeting at Lexington, Ky. They were intended for publication in connection with his speech, but as it was received too late for this paper, we merely insert the resolutions, and defer the speech until next week.

☞ In our advertising columns will be found the prospectus of the Weekly National Whig, published in Washington, by Chas. W. Fenton. As the subscription price is only $2.00 per annum, those wishing a paper from the Seat of Government, cannot do better than subscribe for the National Whig.

☞ We have received a mammoth pictorial Saturday Courier, of twice the size of the Weekly Courier. It is intended as a present for the coming holidays. Among the engravings, are correct and handsome likenesses of Gens. Taylor, Scott and all our principle officers in Mexico, also Santa Anna, Paredes, &c. Price 12 1-2 cents.

ANNUAL REPORT.

The Managers of the Union Dorcas Society, of Easton, respectfully present their thirteenth annual report. During the past year they have visited and relieved, in November, eight; December, eight; January, eleven; February, nine; March, nine; April, ten; May, eight; June, six; July, seven; August, five; September, five; October, five.

Two of their regular pensioners have died, and one has been at her own request, removed to the Poor House of this county. One of these deceased persons, was a colored man, sorely afflicted from childhood, who had been under the care of the Society several years; the other, a widow, whose untiring industry had kept her from want, till attacked by Consumption, which in the course of a few months carried her to the grave. Patient, gentle, and deeply grateful always, Mrs. Kemp will be long remembered by those who through your charity supplied her need. The Treasurer reports $26,75 received from members of the Society; $73,72 1-2 received in donations and fines, making an amount of $102,03 3-4 in cash, beside donations in goods, groceries, &c.

The Managers have expended the whole, and are now to commence the official year with a Treasury entirely empty, with every probability of a hard winter, to render your accustomed bounty more than ever essential to the aged and feeble beings who look to them for help—not to bestow luxuries—not to furnish comforts even—but often, too often, only to sustain life. The pen of Inspiration has written, "the poor shall never cease out of the land—therefore thou shalt open thy hand wide unto thy brethren, and to thy poor in thy land."—In our community, hitherto, this injunction has been obeyed, generally. We have been the willing agents of our fellow-citizens, in dispensing their charity, and have endeavored so to apply it, as to meet their approval, and fulfil our duty to Him who giveth us health and strength, and all things needful. It is a pleasing task to seek out and relieve the necessities of the poor; to carry warmth to cheerless hearths; food and clothing to helpless childhood and perishing age, and comforts, we trust, to weary, care worn hearts, battling with poverty and stern despair.

In speaking of our destitute pensioners, we are strongly, and ah! how sadly, reminded of one whose sudden departure from life brought sorrow to many an humble fireside; whose gentle voice and ever-ready skill, soothed many a pang of those who "had nothing to pay"—on whose venerable head descended fervent, earnest blessings, the blessings of "them that were ready to perish." We would fain render our tribute of heartfelt respect and tender regret to the memory of DR THOMAS, and express our hope that while "he rests from his labors, his works do follow him."

We feel that in briefly stating our situation and our need, we have discharged our duty, and we earnestly hope to be furnished with the means of increased charity for the coming year.

TERRIBLE CONFLAGRATOIN.—The Philadelphia Bulletin has intelligence from Iowa that a fire in the prairies has swept over the greater part of Washington county, carrying devastation in its track. The loss of property is immense, and it is feared that human life has also suffered. One person writes that the loss in his neighborhood is $50,000.

REPORTED BANK FAILURE.—Reports are in circulation that the Wooster (Ohio) Bank has broken The rumor, however is not authenticated, and generally discredited. A large amount of the notes of this institution are in circulation at Cincinnati.

CAPT. TILGHMAN'S COMPANY.—We learn by a letter from one of the members of Capt Tilghman's company, written on the eve of their departure from Vera Cruz with Gen. Patterson's train, that the whole corps was enjoying fine health, and that they had not had a single case of sickness since they left Baltimore, with the exception of the case of a young man named Lovell, who was unwell when he left here but has since recovered.

Married,

On Tuesday, the 16th inst. by the Revd. Dr. Spencer, GUSTAVUS [illegible] Esq. to Miss ANNIE M., daughter of the late Anthony Banning Esq., [illegible] county.

Our printers return their [illegible] knowledgments for the delicious [illegible] cake, accompanying the above notice [illegible]

DIED,

In this town on Wednesday afternoon the 24th inst., Emma L. P., aged 1 year and 7 months; and on Thursday morning, John N., aged 3 years and 8 months, children of the Hon Saml Hambleton, Jr.

At his residence in Caroline County, on Thursday the 25th inst., Gen. William Potter, in the 79th year of his age.

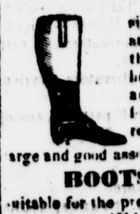

In this county on the 19th inst., Mrs. MARY BENNY, in the 67th year of her age.

The young may die, the old old must die, has long since passed into a proverb, around the youth arrayed in beauty and innocence, our affections cling with an involuntary power, and when those objects of our love, fade and fall into the grave, all the sympathies of our nature are enlisted, and we mourn, in bitter bereavement, but too often the aged die, and are forgotton, the transition from youth to age, seems but as a passing moment, yet how full of interest is that moment, how pregnant for good or evil, it tells upon society, upon family upon self, the remembrance of the virtues of a departed friend, are cherished, in our inmost soul, and whispers to us in the stilly shades of night as well as day, go thou, and do likewise.

These reflections have been prompted by the death of Mrs. Benny, devoted as a friend, kind and indulgent as a mother and grandmother, undeviating in the practice of what she conceived to be right, she passed through a long life, and has left no enemy; few have lived among us possessed of deeper-feeling and have passed through scenes of great affliction, bereft of almost an entire family in the short space of four years, she learned to profit by life's evanescent lesson, and in the immutable promises of a saviour, and a most perfect resignation too, to live or die, with exhortations and admonitions to those around her, she passed in triumph to a better world.

THE WEEKLY NATIONAL WHIG.

ONE of the largest newspapers in the United States, is made up from the columns of the Daily National Whig, and is published every Saturday for the low price of two dollars per annum payable in advance.—A double sheet of eight pages will be given whenever the press of matter shall justify it.

The NATIONAL WHIG is what its name indicates. It speaks the sentiments of the Whig party of the Union on every question of public policy. It advocates the election to the Presidency of ZACHARY TAYLOR subject to the decision of a Whig National Convention. It makes war to knife upon all the measures and acts of Administration deemed to be adverse to the interest of the country, and exposes without fear or favor the corruption of the party in power. Its columns are open to every man in the country for the discussion of political or any other questions.

In addition to politics, a large space in the National Whig will be devoted to publications upon Agriculture, Mechanics, such other useful arts, Science in General, Law, Medicine, Statistics &c. Choice specimens of American and Foreign Literature, will also be given including Reviews &c. A weekly list of the Patents issued by the Patent Office will likewise be published—the whole forming a complete family newspaper.

D. H. Payne & Co. H. M. W. H. and E. T. M. Forman, and D. and E. Spruance, agt. Amelia Skinner, Sally H. Skinner, Henry C. Tilghman and his wife Milcah M. Tilghman, Thomas T. Williams and his wife Elizabeth Williams, Christopher Harrison, Executor of Andrew Skinner, Ann S Reyner, Sarah Pricilla Reyner, John Boon Reyner, and Louisa Reyner, adm'x. of James C. Reyner.

In Chancery. October 27, 1847.

THE object of this suit is to procure a Decree for the sale of certain real estate in Queen Annes Court.

The Bill states that a certain tract of Land which is described in said Bill was purchased by James C. Reyner deceased of Andrew Skinner formerly of Talbot County and that the said Andrew Skinner died leaving certain heirs who possess the legal right to said Land.

That the said James C Reyner in his life time was indebted to the Complainant in sums of money therein fully mentioned and that administration of the personal estate of the said James C. Reyner was granted unto one Louisa Reyner, and that said personal estate being insufficient to discharge the debts of the said Reyner the said Complainants are unable to obtain relief except by a sale of the said Real Estate, and that Robert Skinner one of the said heirs mentioned in said Bill resides out of the state of Maryland. It is thereupon Adjudged and ordered that the Complainants by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Talbot county once in each successive week for one month before the 4th day of December next give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this Bill and warn him to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the fourth day of April next to answer the premises and show cause if any he has why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
