POETRY.

O! DARK IS THE GLOOM.

BY MRS. AMELIA WELBY.

O! dark is the gloom o'er my young spirit stealing!
Then why should I linger where others are gay?
The smile that I wear, is but worn for concealing
A heart, that is wasting in sadness away.

How oft have I thought, when the last light has faded
From off the clear wave of some soft flowing stream,
That like its bright waters, my last hopes were shaded.
By darkness, uncheered by the light of a beam.

O! could I but fly from this false world forever,
Where those whom I trust are the first to betray,
From the cold, and the fickle, my young heart I'd sever,
Ere they steal all its bloom and its sweetness away.

I'd seek, in some orb of the blessed above me,
The peace, that on earth I can never receive;
The spirits, that dwell in that bright orb would love me,
For they are too gentle to wound or deceive.

O! why should the hearts of the purest be shaken,
While camly reposing 'neath love's sunny beam?
If they slumber so sweetly why should they awaken
To muse on the past, and to weep o'er a dream!

A CURIOUS ECHO.

I must tell you of a curious echo we heard while lying on the Naples flats — The order of the captain to the crew, given from the upper deck, and the reports of the soundings on the flats, (two feet scant,) were heard repeated among the tall trees on the eastern shore without the slightest variation. Some of the passengers, observing this curious effect, began to call out in various tones to Mr. Echo, and they were always favored with a repetition of the question or asked, the latter part of it. Hear some specimens:

'Hallo the shore?'
Echo—'Hallo the shore?'
'How are you?'
Echo—'How are you?'
'Shall we stay here all night?'
Echo—'Stay here all night.'
'Tell me if General Scott has entered Mexico?'
Echo—'General Scott has entered Mexico.'
'Hurrah for your good news.'
Echo—'Hurrah for your good news.'
'Who'll be the next President?'
Echo—'ZACHARY TAYLOR.'
'Well, that is a curious echo, sure enough,' exclaimed an elderly lady, who was rocking herself on the aft guard, and smoking her pipe at the same time. We were all somewhat startled by this unexpected answer to the question concerning the presidency, but after a short pause the questions were resumed:

'What is the price of corn?'
Echo—'The price of corn.'
'What was the reason that Pratt and Campbell didn't fight?'
Echo—'Pratt and Campbell didn't fight.'
'What are you doing out there?'
Echo—'Catching catfish!'
'Ha! ha! ha! ha!'
Echo—'Ha! ha! ha! ha!—ho! ho! ho! ho!'

Thus ended the cat-echism. A sucker was discovered sitting on a log, down at the point, quietly pursuing his evening sports, and brushing off the musquitoes.—Some of the answers had evidently been given by him.—[St. Louis Reveille.]

YANKEE INGENUITY.—The following paragraph from one of our exchanges is the best illustration of misfortune turned to fortune that we ever read:

'Ten or twelve years since, Mr. B. F. Palmer, of Meredith, N. H., caught his leg, in a bark mill, and so dreadfully was it mangled, that amputation became necessary. A poor boy, he supported himself as he could, and prompted by his own wants, turned his attention to the invention of an artificial leg, which would answer his purposes better than any then in use. His success exceeded all expectation, those using the article not only walking with comfort, but with such ease and naturalness that their condition would hardly be suspected. He has been offered $75,000 for his patent, for the United States only, which he declines, and is engaged in securing patents in Canada, Great Britain, and on the continent of Europe. We understand Mr. P. has one application a day upon an average, and that his charge, is $150.—Like some others, he is likely to turn a penny from the Mexican war—some of the mutilated officers already applying to his skill for relief.

DUELLING IN HOLLAND.—A new penal code in Holland contains the following provisions against dwelling. For sending a challenge the punishment awarded is one month's imprisonment and $60 fine.

Accepting a challenge, one month's imprisonment and fine from $10 to $46.—For homicide in a duel, from four to seven years imprisonment, or 10 to 12 years banishment, but this punishment may be materially mitigated if the survivor be the party injured. No punishment is annexed to the offence of being seconds.

DR. MARTIN'S UNIVERSAL
PURGATIVE PILLS.

THESE PILLS have been used by Dr. Martin in an extensive practice for many years, and with the greatest success especially in BILLOUS and LIVER DISEASES — They are also particularly recommended in Chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Nervous diseases, habitual costiveness. They may be taken in all cases when a purgative is needed with perfect safety. But of many certificates in our possession we shall only publish one from a highly respectable Physician

Upper Hunting Creek, Carcline co. Md.
October 17, 1846.

Dr. George T. Martin.—Sir, having been made acquainted with the composition of your valuable Pill, by yourself some two or three years ago, I have used them freely in my private practice with [illegible] success and shall continue to do so as long as I may practice medicine, and I now take great pleasure in recommending such a Pill as yours to the public as a safe and effectual purgative in all cases where a purgative is necessary.

Your's with respect
JOHN F. BOON, M. D.

We offer also MARTIN and WHITELEY'S NATIONAL TONIC a certain cure for the AGUE & FEVER. This valuable medicine is perhaps the best of the kind ever offered to the public. It is truly a scientific compound. In this remedy will be found all those qualities which must make it a general favorite in all Billous, or Malarious districts. With each bottle there will be a short treatise on fevers which is made comprehensible to every capacity. This Tonic will be found perfectly harmless as regards its effects on the constitution. By its action it restores the digestive functions to health, and speedily removes disease and even the most inveterate cases of Ague and Fever. Prepared and sold by Martin and Whitley Wholesale druggist 320 Market Street Baltimore, and for sale by their agents.

DR. MARTIN'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

This compound is one of the best remedies ever offered to the public in Cough, whether arising from Colds, or the Hooping Cough, or that dreadful malady Consumption. Few remedies in the short time it has been before the Public, have effected so many cures The proprietors are every day receiving orders for it in this City, and at a distance, in which they have been highly gratified to learn its good effects We have the permission of the Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church of Maryland (the Right Rev. W. R. Whittingham) to say he has used the remedy in his own person with decided benefit Our medical friends do not scruple to recommend it as one of the best remedies in Consumption Asthma &c which they have ever met with the following is from a highly respectable Physician on Kent Island to whom we made known the ingredients of the preparation.

Kent Island, June 22d, 1847.

Dr. G. T. Martin,

Dear Sir,—Since my return home I have prescribed your SYRUP of WILD CHERRY in several cases, one in particular a case of Asthma of long standing (about 12 years) a neighbor and patient of mine. Her disease has never been benefited by any medicine which she has taken, and for the last year or two she has been confined entirely to the house. I do not know that she has had a good nights rest for a long time, but since she commenced taking your medicine (and she has only taken one bottle) she is enabled to go to bed and sleep well all night. I think the medicine will make a perfect cure of her and she is determined to give it a fair trial. Her husband Mr. R Erickson is a merhant here, and says if you will send him some of it, he will act as your agent. I think you might send him some of your other preparations which will meet with ready sale. I send a small bill for medicines which you will please send me and

Oblige your's respectfully
