POETRY.

ON THE DEATH OF A CHILD.

BY BARRY CORNWALL.

HITHER come, at close of day,
And o'er this dust, sweet Mothers, pray!
A little infant lies within,
Who never knew the name of sin,
Beloved,—bright,—and all our own;
Like morning fair,—and sooner flown!

No leaves or garlands wither here,
Like those in foreign lands;
No marble hides our dear one's bier,
The work of alien hands:
The mouths it lived, the name it bore,
The silver telleth,—nothing more!

No more;—yet Silence stalketh round
This vault so dim and deep,
And Death keeps watch without a sound,
Where all lie pale and sleep;
But palest here and latest hid,
Is He—beneath this coffin lid.

How fair he was,—how very fair—
What dreams we pondered o'er,
Making his life so long and clear,
His fortune's flowing o'er;
Our hopes—(that he would happy be,
When we ourselves were old,)
The scenes we saw, or hoped to see—
They're soon and sadly told.
All was a dream!—it came and fled,
And left us here, among the dead!

Pray, Mothers, pray, at close of day,
While we, sad parents, weep alway!
Pray, too, (and softly be't and long,)
That all your babes, now fair and strong
May blossom like—not like the rose,
For that doth fade when summer goes,—
('Twas thus our pretty infant died,
The summer and its mother's pride!)
But, like some stern and enduring tree,
That reacheth its green century.
May grow, may flourish,—then decay,
After a long, calm, happy day,
Made happier by good deeds to men,
And hopes in heaven to meet again!

Pray!—From the happy, prayer is due;
While we—('tis all we now can do!)
Will check our tears, and pray with you.

THE WEEKLY NATIONAL WHIG.

ONE of the largest newspapers in the United States, is made up from the columns of the Daily National Whig, and is published every Saturday for the low price of two dollars per annum payable in advance.—A double sheet of eight pages will be given whenever the press of matter shall justify it.

The NATIONAL WHIG is what its name indicates. It speaks the sentiments of the Whig party of the Union on every question of public policy. It advocates the election to the Presidency of ZACHARY TAYLOR subject to the decision of a Whig National Convention. It makes war to knife upon all the measures and acts of Administration deemed to be adverse to the interest of the country, and exposes without fear or favor the corruption of the party in power. Its columns are open to every man in the country for the discussion of political or any other questions.

In addition to politics, a large space in the National Whig will be devoted to publications upon Agriculture, Mechanics, such other useful arts, Science in General, Law, Medicine, Statistics, &c. Choice specimens of American and Foreign Literature, will also be given including Reviews &c. A weekly list of the Patents issued by the Patent Office will likewise be published—the whole forming a complete family newspaper.

DR. MARTIN'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

This compound is one of the best remedies ever offered to the public in Cough, whether arising from Colds, or the Hooping Cough. or that dreadful malady Consumption. Few remedies in the short time it has been before the Public, have effected so many cures The proprietors are every day receiving orders for it in this City, and at a distance, in which they have been highly gratified to learn its good effects. We have the permission of the Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church of Maryland (the Right Rev. W, R. Whittingham) to say he has used the remedy in his own person with decided benefit. Our medical friends do not scruple to recommend it as one of the best remedies in Consumption Asthma &c which they have ever met with the following is from a highly respectable Physician on Kent Island to whom we made known the ingredients of the preparation.

Kent Island, June 22d, 1847.

Dr. G. T. Martin,

Dear Sir,—Since my return home I have prescribed your SYRUP of WILD CHERRY in several cases, one in particular a case of Asthma of long standing (about 12 years) a neighbor and patient of mine. Her disease has never been benefited by any medicine which she has taken, and for the last year or two she has been confined entirely to the house. I do not know that she has had a good nights rest for a long time, but since she commenced taking your medicine (and she has only taken one bottle) she is enabled to go to bed and sleep well all night. I think the medicine will make a perfect cure of her and she is determined to give it a fair trial. Her husband Mr. R. Erickson is a merhant here, and says if you will send him some of it, he will act as your agent. I think you might send him some of your other preparations which will meet with ready sale. I send a small bill for medicines which you will please send me and
