BALTIMORE VOLTIGEURS.—Few of our gallant volunteers, have earned greater distinction in Mexico, and suffered more than the company under the command of Capt. John Eager Howard. When it left this city for the seat of war, 105 able-bodied men answered to their names at roll call. At latest accounts but 51 had survived the battles before the Capital, and of these 10 were unfit for service. A letter to the Sun gives the following names of the survivors: Captain John E. Howard; Lieutenant J. H. Smyth; Sergeants R. W. Weeks, R. H. Turner, C. R. Edwards, C. Morton; Corporals Keenan, Chilcoat, Spencer, Moldoon; Privates J. Montgomery, James Jackson, William Jackson, Robert Moore, Frederick Crammer, George Richmond, James C. Curch, J. Merritt, Henry Butler, Ephraim Buck, Charles Nicholson, Henry Brown, Philip Bane, Michael Bane, William Fletcher, Richard Robinson, Lemuel Johnson, George Dawson, Oliver Erhart, Joseph Homberger, George Buckinsheets, Augustus Hartman, Conrad Ethart, J. Hooker, J. Hoovs, Geo. Meads, Joseph Evans.—Patriot.

THE IRISH BANISHED.We find the following remarkable paragraph in the London Times:—"The population of British North American in 1844 was 1,851,241.—Before the close of this present year nearly 100,000 persons, amounting to a twentieth of the existing population, will have arrived in the St. Lawrence, almost entirely from Ireland. Instead of that enormous immigration representing in any degree whatever the wealth, the education, the rank, the habits, they loyalty, and the whole character of the mother country, they are to a man from the lower orders of Ireland. They represent, they carry with them misery and degradation, a visionary temperament and a ficticious religion, a deep sense of injury, and a burning hatred of the British name. Centuries will not efface from their vindictive memories and their inventive imaginations the dark circumstances of their banishment, their passage, their landing, their dispersion over the inhospitable wild. Such is British colonization. What else is to be expected than a demoralized and disaffected population, a lost colony, and an aggrandized rival? And whom have we to thank for these inevitable results?"

RETURN OF ITALIAN EXILES.—A letter from Florence has the following:

"I am assured by a person of undoubted veracity that his Holiness has expressed, on many occasions, the wish to be surrounded by all those good Italians, (no matter to what State they may belong,) who have suffered for Italy, and are now in exile; and I am also told that measures have been taken to invite to Rome the Exiles now in America, Messrs. F. Foresti, Elex. Bargnani, G. Apicola and F. Argenti; and the time of their return will certainly be a day of joy for all good Italians."

These gentlemen are well known and respected citizens of New York.—North American.

MARYLAND STATE DEBT.—By the last steamer from the United States, (says a late London paper,) a remittance of £80,000 was received from the State of Maryland for account of the dividends. It is creditable to that State that this remittance was made two months before the dividends became due.

CAMBRIDGE ACADEMY.

CAMBRIDGE E. S. MARYLAND.

THE subscribers, a Committee appointed for that purpose, beg leave to inform the public that the Classical department of the Cambride Academy will be opened on the 3d day of January next, under the direction of WILLIAM CAMPBELL, Esq., a Graduate of Dublin University. At the late Election of Mr. Campbell, the Trustees received such testimonials of his literary and classical attainments, that this committee do not hesitate to hold out to Parents & Guardians of young Gentlemen, the strongest assurance of a rapid advancement in Education, and that those who may have the benefit of such instruction as can be afforded in the Cambridge Academy, will be qualified to enter the higher classes in the Colleges of the country or into professional and other pursuits. This committee appeal especially to the citizens of this county to sustain an Institution in their midst. It was the Intention of the Legislature in appropriating funds for Schools and Academies in each county, that the benefit of a good Education might be brought within the reach of every citizen. The Academy is divided into two departments, the Classical and the English. The English department is under the direction of GARDNER BAYLEY, Esq. It is needless for this committee to speak in commendation of Mr Bayley, he has been an Instructor of youth for many years in Cambridge and has few superiors in moral and Intellectual worth His experience in the art of Instruction is recognized in the fact that his school whether in connection with the Academy or otherwise has been at all times well sustained.

The locality of this Academy gives it strong claims upon the public. The acknowledged healthfulness of Cambridge, the facility of access, the refinement of the society and the cheapness of living, afford every inducement for Parents and Guardians to send their sons or wards to this Academy At the next meeting of the board, some one or more of the Trustees will be appointed as monthly or quarterly visitors whose duty it will be to visit the Academy and report upon the advancement of the scholars

This committee are safe in saying that the Board Tuition and incidental Expenses of a Scholars will not exceed $150 per annum, and there are three large private Boarding Houses in Cambridge

REPORT of the Commissioners appointed agreeably to the Act of Assembly passed at December Session, 1846 chap. 167. "to view and alter or divide School Districts No. 1 and 5, in Election District No. 3, in Talbot County.

To the Honorable Commissioners of Talbot County—

The undersigned Commissioners appointed by your honorable body on the 16th inst., to "view and divide or alter" School Districts No. 1 and 5, in Election District No. 3, did on the 30th inst. meet for the aforesaid purpose, and believe that it would be highly advantageous to both school districts as they now exist, to divide them into four school districts, as follows, to wit: 1st, for the Bolingbrook School District, beginning at Choptank river, and running up a stream to "Raccoon bridge," and from thence with a straight line to the head of Bolingbrook creek, and thence running as originally laid down—to be called School District No. 1.

For the Banbury School District, commencing at the mouth of "Miles' Creek," at Choptank river, and running up said creek to "Abbott's" or "Wright's mill," and with said mill pond and stream to "Cox's" or "Bartlett's mill," and thence as originally laid down, binding with the line above laid down, separating the Bolingbrook School District from the Banbury School District, to be called No. 6.

The central portion School District No. 5 being a timbered or woodland portion of said district, we would divide into Eastern and Western divisions, by a line from Tinker's hill, (running with the County road leading from the Trappe to Easton,) to Peach Blossom creek, and thence as originally laid down, the Western portion to be called No. 5, or Bailey's Neck District, and the Eastern portion to be called School District No. 7.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
