POETRY.

DEATH OF THE FIRST-BORN.

BY WILLIS GAYLORD CLARK.

Young mother, he is gone!
His dimpled cheek no more will touch thy breast.
No more the music-tone
Float from his lips, to thine all fondly press'd
His smile and happy laugh are lost to thee;
Earth must his mother and his pillow be.

His was the morning hour,
And he hath pass'd in beauty from the day,
A bud, not yet a flower,
Torn, in its sweetness, from the parent spray;
The death-wind swept him to his soft repose,
As frost, in spring-time, blights the early rose,

Never on earth again
Will his rich accents charm thy listening ear,
Like some Æolian strain,
Breathing at eventide serene and clear;
His voice is choked in dust, and on his eyes
The unbroken seal of peace and silence lies.

And from thy yearning heart,
Whose inmost core was warm in love for him,
A gladness must depart,
And those kind eyes with many tears be dim;
While lonely memories, an unceasing train,
Will turn the raptures of the past to pain.

Yet, mourner, while the day
Rolls like the darkness of a funeral by,
And hope forbids one ray
To stream athwart the grief-discolour'd sky;
There breaks upon thy sorrow's evening gloom
A trembling lustre from beyond the tomb.

'Tis from the better land!
There, bathed in radiance that around them springs,
Thy loved one's wings expand;
As with the choiring cherubim he sings,
And all the glory of that God can see,
Who said, on earth, to children, "Come to me."

Mother, thy child is bless'd;
And though his presence may be lost to thee,
And vacant leave thy breast,
And miss'd, a sweet load from thy parent knee;
Though tones familiar from thine ear have pass'd,
Thou'lt meet thy first-born with his Lord at last.

MR. JAMES S. He is now ready to execute any orders with punctuality, he flatters himself that from the experience of ten years close application to public business in Baltimore City he has gained sufficient knowledge of the trade to furnish garments combining the same with as much taste and of as good style as they can be furnished in Baltimore, Philadelphia or elsewhere, he insures all work at the establishlishment to give satisfaction.

FRENCH & ENGLISH FASHIONS received quarterly French plates direct. English republished in New York. PROSPECTUS FOR 1848.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE.

The most Popular Monthly in the World.

THE LEADING WRITERS ALL IN "GRAHAM."

William C. Bryant, J. Fennimore Cooper, William Henry Herbert, Theodore S. Fay, W. Gilmore Simms, Fanny Forester, Mrs. A. M. F. Annan, Mrs. Amelia B. Welby, N. P. Willis, Professor Longfellow, J. K. Paulding, Charles J. Hoffman, Edgar A. Poe, E. P. Whipple, Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. Sigourney.

"GRAHAM" is now universally acknowledged to surpass, in the excellence and variety of its contents, and the styles of its execution, any periodical ever published in America. and it is questionable whether any magazine in the world—not excepting even BLACKWOOD'S—ever presented an array of contributors of equal reputation. Its circulation is about one third larger than that of any other monthly in the English language.

We have resolved, as far as "Graham" is concerned, to give a proper direction to the popular taste; and propose, in the coming volume, greatly to amplify the literary department of the work—to engage none but the very best writers—to open a field for young writers of merit—and, in fine, to cultivate a National Periodical Literature, which shall command respect at home and abroad

While all other monthly periodicals are crumbling to decay, and resorting to every expedient to save themselves from destruction, "Graham" pursues the even tenor of its way, proudly at the head of the periodical literature of the day—with its 50,000 readers, gradually widening its influence, and extending its circulation. The policy adopted in this Magazine, of giving the best both in Literature and Art, has established it upon sure basis of public confidence.

Elegant Paris Fashions in every number.

"Graham," for 1848 will be beyond all doubt so far superior to the class of small magazines which attempt to imitate it, that in every post town it will utterly route them out. For why should any man or woman pay money for a second rate article, when the best is offered at the same price. Reader think for yourself, examine and subscribe for the best Periodical and do not be deluded by the stale and never redeemed promises of those whose words are as worthless as their pares. It is fact that for the last seven years, promises have been made of excelling "GRAHAM." by every petty pretender, yet the Magazine still maintains triumphantly the ascendant.

We promise our readers in January such a number as shall pale "the ineffectual fir s" of our imitators, who seize a good idea which we executed, and make it common by the baseness of the copy.

Portraits of our Army Heroes.

We have already given our readers a magnificent likeness of General Taylor, and have now executed a Magnificent Likeness of General Butler, and shall follow rapidly with portraits of all the leading men who have distinguished themselves in the present war This series of portraits will be prized by every patriot.

We design to commence in the January number, in addition to New Novels by Fay and Willis, a most beautiful Sea Story, which has been highly praised by the best judges, and has only been withheld from our readers in the last volume, as we had already running through the Magazine the Novel by Cooper. For the New Year, we have made the most liberal arrangements in regard to the work, with a determination to make.

A GREAT NATIONAL MAGAZINE,

Contributed to by the highest talent in the country—free from all cliques and sectional differences, and relying on the merits of its Literary Matter, and the excellence of the illustrations, for a still wider support. The volume to be opened with a new and beautiful type, the finest white paper; and with a series of Mezzotints, unsurpassed by any which have yet appeared in any Magazine.

OUR MEZZOTINT ENGRAVINGS.

It affords us much satisfaction to be able to state, that we have made arragements with Sartain, the accomplished mezzotint engraver, whose plates have contributed so much to the beauty of the Magazine heretofore, by which we secure his splendid Mezzotints for this work alone. His beautiful engravings will therefore form a feature of Graham's Magazine, so that we shall be able to distance any thing like competition on this ground.

Our Beautiful Fashion Plates.

These exquisite creations of taste and skill we have engaged exclusively, from the publisher of "Le Follet," and all other efforts to get them have failed An attempt has been made to deceive the public, by re engraving the old designs; but these duplicates are so far beneath the Original Paris designs sent to "Graham," that they excite only contempt. Our arrangements are complete, and we cannot be equalled in the beauty and correctness of this department of the Magazine. These plates appear in every number.

DR. MARTIN'S UNIVERSAL

PURGATIVE PILLS.

THESE PILLS have been used by Dr Martin in an extensive practice for many years. and with the greatest success especially in BILLOUS and LIVER DISEASES—They are also particularly recommended in Chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Nervous diseases, habitual costiveness. They may be taken in all cases when a purgative is needed with perfect safety. But of many certificates in our possession we shall only publish one from a highly respectable Physician.

Upper Hunting Creek, Carcline co. Md. October 17. 1846.

Dr. George T. Martin.—Sir, having been made acquainted with the composition of your valuable Pill, by yourself some two or three years ago, I have used them freely in my private practice with entire success, and shall continue to do so as long as I may practice medicine, and I now take great pleasure in recommending such a Pill as yours to the public as a safe and effectual purgative in all cases where a purgative is necessary.

Your's with respect

JOHN F BOON, M. D.

We offer also MARTIN and WHITELEY'S NATIONAL TONIC a certain cure for the AGUE & FEVER. This valuable medicine is perhaps the best of the kind ever offered to the public. It is truly a scientific compound. In this remedy will be found all those qualities which must make it a general favorite in all Billous, or Malarious districts With each bottle there will be a short treatise on fevers which is made comptehensible to every capacity. This Tonic will be found perfectly harmless as regards its effects on the constitution. By its action it restores the digestive functions to health, and speedily removes disease, and even the most inveterate cases of, Ague and Fever. DR. MARTIN'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

This compound is one of the best remedies ever offered to the public in Cough, whether arising from Colds, or the Hooping Cough. or that dreadful malady Consumption. Few remedies in the short time it has been before the Public, have effected so many cures. The proprietors are every day receiving orders for it in this City, and at a distance, in which they have been highly gratified to learn its good effects. We have the permission of the Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal church of Maryland (the Right Rev. W, R. Whittingham) to say he has used the remedy in his own person with decided benefit. Our medical friends do not scruple to recommend it as one of the best remedies in Consumption Asthma &c which they have ever met with the following is from a highly respectable Physician on Kent Island to whom we made known the ingredients of the preparation.

Kent Island, June 22d, 1847.

Dr. G. T. Martin,

Dear Sir,—Since my return home I have prescribed your SYRUP of WILD CHERRY in several cases, one in particular a case of Asthma of long standing (about 12 years) a neighbor and patient of mine. Her disease has never been benefited by any medicine which she has taken, and for the last year or two she has been confined entirely to the house. I do not know that she has had a good nights rest for a long time, but since she commenced taking your medicine (and she has only taken one bottle) she is enabled to go to bed and sleep well all night. I think the medicine will make a perfect cure of her and she is determined to give it a fair trial. Her husband Mr. R. Erickson is a merhant here, and says if you will send him some of it, he will act as your agent. I think you might send him some of your other preparations which will meet with ready sale. I send a small bill for medicines which you will please send me and

Oblige your's respectfully
