CAMBRIDGE ACADEMY.
CAMBRIDGE E. S. MARYLAND.

THE subscribers, a Committee appointed for that purpose, beg leave to inform the public that the Classical department of the Cambride Academy will be opened on the 3d day of January next, under the direction of WILLIAM CAMPBELL, Esq., a Graduate of Dublin University. At the late Election of Mr. Campbell, the Trustees received such testimonials of his literary and classical attainments, that this committee do not hesitate to hold out to Parents & Guardians of young Gentlemen, the strongest assurance of a rapid advancement in Education, and that those who may have the benefit of such instruction as can be afforded in the Cambridge Academy, will be qualified to enter the higher classes in the Colleges of the country or into professional and other pursuits. This committee appeal especially to the citizens of this county to sustain an Institution in their midst. It was the Intention of the Legislature in appropriating funds for Schools and Academies in each county, that the benefit of a good Education might be brought within the reach of every citizen. The Academy is divided into two departments, the Classical and the English. The English department is under the direction of GARDNER BAYLEY, Esq. It is needless for this committee to speak in commendation of Mr Bayley, he has been an Instructor of youth for many years in Cambridge and has few superiors in moral and Intellectual worth His experience in the art of Instruction is recognized in the fact that his school whether in connection with the Academy or otherwise has been at all times well sustained.

The locality of this Academy gives it strong claims upon the public. The acknowledged healthfulness of Cambridge, the facility of access, the refinement of the society and the cheapness of living, afford every inducement for Parents and Guardians to send their sons or wards to this Academy At the next meeting of the board, some one or more of the Trustees will be appointed as monthly or quarterly visitors whose duty it will be to visit the Academy and report upon the advancement of the scholars

This commit e are safe in saying that the Board Tuition and incidental Expenses of a Scholars will not exceed $150 per annum, and there are three large private Boarding Houses in Cambridge.

THE WEEKLY
NATIONAL WHIG.

ONE of the largest newspapers in the United States, is made up from the columns of the Daily National Whig, and is published every Saturday for the low price of two dollars per annum payable in advance.—A double sheet of eight pages will be given whenever the press of matter shall justify it

The NATIONAL WHIG is what its name indicates. It speaks the sentiments of the Whig party of the Union on every question of public policy. It advocates the election to the Presidency of ZACHARY TAYLOR subject to the decision of a Whig National Convention. It makes war to knife upon all the measures and acts of Administration deemed to be adverse to the interest of the country, and exposes without fear or favor the corruption of the party in power. Its columns are open to every man in the country for the discussion of political or any other questions.

In addition to politics, a large space in the National Whig will be devoted to publications upon Agriculture, Mechanics, such other useful arts, Science in General, Law, Medicine, Statistics, &c. Choice specimens of American and Foreign Literature, will also be given including Reviews &c. A weekly list of the Patents issued by the Patent Office will likewise be published—the whole forming a complete family newspaper.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1848.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE.
The most Popular Monthly in the World.

THE LEADING WRITERS ALL IN "GRAHAM."

William C. Bryant, J. Fennimore Cooper, William Henry Herbert, Theodore S. Fay, W. Gilmore Simms, Fanny Forester, Mrs. A. M. F. Annan, Mrs. Amelia B. Welby, N. P. Willis, Professor Longfellow, J. K. Paulding, Charles J. Hoffman, Edgar A. Poe, E. P. Whipple, Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. Sigourney.

"GRAHAM" is now universally acknowledged to surpass, in the excellence and variety of its contents, and the styles of its execution, any periodical ever published in America, and it is questionable whether any magazine in the world—not excepting even BLACKWOOD'S—ever presented an array of contributors of equal reputation Its circulation is about one third larger than that of any other monthly in the English language.

We have resolved, as far as "Graham" is concerned, to give a proper direction to the popular taste; and propose, in the coming volume, greatly to amplify the literary department of the work—to engage none but the very best writers—to open a field for young writers of merit—and, in fine, to cultivate a National Periodical Literature, which shall command respect at home and abroad.

While all other monthly periodicals are crumbling to decay, and resorting to every expedient to save themselves from destruction, "Graham" pursues the even tenor of its way, proudly at the head of the periodical literature of the day—with its 50,000 readers, gradually widening its influence, and extending its circulation. The policy adopted in this Magazine, of giving the best both in Literature and Art, has established it upon sure basis of public confidence.

Elegant Paris Fashions in every number.

"Graham," for 1848 will be beyond all doubt so far superior to the class of small magazines which attempt to imitate it, that in every post town it will utterly route them out. For why should any man or woman pay money for a second rate article, when the best is offered at the same price. Reader think for yourself, examine and subscribe for the best Periodical and do not be deluded by the stale and never redeemed promises of those whose words are as worthless as their wares. It is fact that for the last seven years, promises have been made of excelling "GRAHAM," by every petty pretender, yet the Magazine still maintains triumphantly the ascendant.

We promise our readers in January such a number as shall pale "the ineffectual fires" of our imitators, who seize a good idea which we executed, and make it common by the baseness of the copy.

Portraits of our Army Heroes.

We have already given our readers a magnificent likeness of General Taylor, and have now executed a Magnificent Likeness of General Butler, and shall follow rapidly with portraits of all the leading men who have distinguished themselves in the present war. This series of portraits will be prized by every patriot.

We design to commence in the January number, in addition to New Novels by Fay and Willis, a most beautiful Sea Story, which has been highly praised by the best judges, and has only been withheld from our readers in the last volume, as we had already running through the Magazine the Novel by Cooper. For the New Year, we have made the most liberal arrangements in regard to the work, with a determination to make.

A GREAT NATIONAL MAGAZINE,

Contributed to by the highest talent in the country—free from all cliques and sectional differences, and relying on the merits of its Literary Matter, and the excellence of the illustrations, for a still wider support. The volume to be opened with a new and beautiful type, the finest white paper; and with a series of Mezzotints, unsurpassed by any which have yet appeared in any Magazine.

OUR MEZZOTINT ENGRAVINGS.

It affords us much satisfaction to be able to state, that we have made arragements with Sartan, the accomplished mezzotint engraver, whose plates have contributed so much to the beauty of the Magazine heretofore, by which we secure his splendid Mezzotints for this work alone. His beautiful engravings will therefore form a feature of Graham's Magazine, so that we shall be able to distance any thing like competition on this ground.

Our Beautiful Fashion Plates.

These exquisite creations of taste and skill we have engaged exclusively, from the publisher of "Le Follet," and all other efforts to get them have failed An attempt has been made to deceive the public, by re engraving the old designs; but these duplicates are so far beneath the Original Paris designs sent to "Graham," that they excite only contempt. Our arrangements are complete, and we cannot be equalled in the beauty and correctness of this department of the Magazine. These plates appear in every number.

Lowest Terms for 1848.

1 Copy	$3 per annum.
2 Copies	5 "
5 Copies	10 "
11 Copies	20, and 1 copy gratis to the Postmaster, or others forwarding the money.
