EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, Md.

SATURDAY MORNING, JAN. 22.

MR. CLAY AND THE COLONIZATION SOCIETY.—The annual meeting of the Colonization Society was held in the Capitol, at Washington, on Tuesday last, the Hon. Henry Clay presiding. The Capitol was thronged to overflowing. Mr. Clay was greeted with enthusiastic cheering on his way to the meeting, and an eloquent address of over one hour's length, appropriate to the occasion, was interrupted by frequent bursts of applause. Long live this great and noble statesman, universally beloved by his friends, and respected by his enemies.

☞ On our first page will be found a description of the design of the Washington National Monument. The cost of this magnificent structure, which, when finished, will be the highest monument in the world, is estimated at one million of dollars. The corner stone will be laid on the 22d of February, the birth day of the immortal hero whose memory the monument is designed to commemorate, if the necessary arrangements can be made; if not, the anniversary of the declaration of Independence is selected as an appropriate occasion to commence this work. From five to ten years will be necessary for its completion. We sincerely hope the desired sum may be obtained, that no delay may ensue from want of means. It is supposed that Mr. Sessford, the agent for soliciting subscriptions, will be detained in this County until the first of February, when he will proceed to Dorchester, en route for Somerset and Worcester.

MR PEARCE'S SPEECH.—In to-day's paper we give a short and incomplete report of the speech of Mr. Pearce, on the Ten Regiment Bill, in answer to Mr. R. Johnson's speech on the same subject.—Had we space we should publish both speeches entire, as they are of great interest. In relation to the speech of Mr. P., the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Patriot says:

In the Senate, to-day, Mr. Pearce, of Maryland, delivered a speech on the war bill which is the theme of more praise and admiration from Whigs and profound respect from Locofocos, than I recollect ever to have known to be called out by any speech ever delivered in Congress.—Mr. Pearce has, this day added a new and brilliant garland to his already distinguished reputation, as a courteous and dignified Senator and profound debater. He speaks but seldom, but when he does speak, it is to the point and the purpose. And this never more so than to-day. His argument was clear, able, eloquent, dignified, courteous and convincing. He took the true Whig doctrine in regard to the war, and handled the whole subject in a masterly manner. He replied to the positions of his colleague, Mr. Johnson, in regard to the true boundary of Texas, and the question as to which party commenced the war seriatim, and with great force and ability, and arrived at a very different conclusion.

Mr. Johnson appeared to be taking copious notes, and no doubt intends to make a rejoinder The subject goes over to Monday, to which day the Senate stands adjourned.

A COURT OF ENQUIRY ORDERED —GEN. SCOTT'S CHARGES—SCOTT, PILLOW AND DUNCAN TO BE TRIED.—The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia American, of the 12th inst., says:

The President, on Friday, ordered a Court of Enquiry for the purpose of investigating the charges against Gen Pillow and Col. Duncan, which have been preferred by Gen. Scott. After that investigation has terminated, the Court is further directed to inquire into the charges preferred against Gen. Scott by Gen. Worth.—The charges against Gen. Worth, submitted by the commanding General, have been dismissed by the President.

The Court is directed to assemble at Perote, at as early a day as the members can convene. It is to consist of General Towson, Paymaster General, as President, and Gen. Cushing, and Gen. Butler, of Louisiana. Gen. Towson will start for Mexico on Monday.

The selection of Gen. Towson is an anomaly in Court Martials, and will doubtless lead to difficulty. His office of Paymaster General is a civil one, which might be conferred upon any one in private life, and he holds no rank in the regular line of the army.

The command of the army in Mexico will necessarily devolve on Gen. Butler, of Ky., he being the officer next in rank to Gen. Scott, whose presence will be required at the Court of Enquiry.

The idea of recalling Scott is abandoned for the present, but it may be renewed.

Hon. ANDREW KENNEDY, for many years member of Congress from Indiana, died a Indianapolis, on the 31st ult., of small pox.

For the Easton Gazette.

MR. EDITOR:—I perceive by the proceedings in Congress, a peremptory call has been made on President Polk for all papers and correspondence, in regard to his attempted negotiation for a peace with Mexico, through the agency of Santa Anna and Mr. Slidell.

The President has refused to comply with the demand of the House of Representatives, and quotes from Marshall's life of Washington a similar case in his defence, as he and Mr. C. J. Ingersoll attempt to make the good people believe, but we all know there is a wide difference, and hope our Representatives will make a distinct call for the intrigue carried on between Mr. Polk and Santa Anna, the abandoned Exile!

I will quote from the above authority also, as peculiarly applicable to the present time, which I request you will publish, from volume 5, chapter viii, part pages 652 and 653:—"The situation in which this vote placed the Executive was peculiarly delicate. In an elective government, the difficulty of resisting the popular branch of the legislature, is at all times of serious magnitude, but is particularly so when the passions of the public have been strongly and generally excited, by exertions which have pervaded the whole society. The popularity of a demand for information, the large majority by which in the present instance, (145 to 15) that demand was supported, the additional force which a refusal to comply with it would give to suspicions already insinuated, that circumstances had occurred in the negotiation which the administration dared not expose, and that the President was separating himself from the people, furnished motives not lightly to be overruled, for yielding to the request which had been made."

ONE OF THE PEOPLE.

Easton, Jan. 20, 1848.

The people of School District No. 5, agreeably to public notice given, met at the place and time appointed, and passed the following preamble and resolutions—

Whereas, the people of School District No. 5, Election District No. 2, being duly sensible that as primary schools are the only means under the present system, of diffusing education and knowledge among the mass, and of improving their social as well as elevating their moral condition, do look with regret upon the action of the Commissioners of Talbot County, as manifested in their late "Notice," contemplating the reduction of the salaries of Teachers employed in said schools; and whereas, it is the sentiment of the people of said school district as by them expressed in public meeting assembled, that the resolution passed by said Commissioners is injudicious, and if carried out, will greatly retard the progress of education, and prove injurious to the success of primary instruction in Talbot County; therefore,

1. Resolved, As primary or public schools are the only institutions upon which we are to depend for the education of the children of the poor, and of those of moderate circumstances, that it is the opinion of all intelligent citizens, that the standard of said schools should be elevated to the highest possible usefulness, and that this can only be done by a liberal and enlightened patronage.

2. Resolved, That by mingling with the people of Talbot County we have ascertained it to be a "fixed fact," that they had rather be taxed for educational purposes than for any other object whatever, and that the Commissioners of Talbot County have mistaken the will and wants of the people in their late attempt to lower the salaries of Teachers.

3. Resolved, That this meeting constitute the present board of Trustees, and as many other gentlemen as it may see proper to appoint, as a committee to wait upon the Commissioners, and respectfully remonstrate with them against the contemplated reduction.

4. Resolved, That, as some of the teachers had been appointed, and their salaries fixed upon by the trustees before the "notice" was made public, it is inexpedient on the part of the commissioners, even if they had the power, (which we deny) to carry out their resolution at this time.

5. Resolved, That there is no section, or clause of a section, in the school law regulating primary schools in Talbot County, where the Commissioners are empowered either to increase or reduce the salaries of teachers, but simply to supervise and to see that the contracts and proceedings are done according to law, and if so, to ratify the same; and if their jurisdiction goes further, the trustees of said schools, and their doings, are a mere nullity, and their election, or appointment to office, the sheerest nonsense.

6. Resolved, That the trustees of this school district be authorized to contract with such teacher as they shall employ for the ensuing year, for such sum as they in their judgment and wisdom shall consider an ample compensation.

7. Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the chairman and secretary, and published in the "Gazette" and "Star."

THE ARMY COURT MARTIAL.—The proceedings of the Court, which has been so long and so laboriously occupied in the trial of Lt. Col. Fremont was brought to a close on Tuesday afternoon, with the exception of the hearing of the defence, which is fixed for next Monday.—Clipper.

THE CALL FOR INFORMATION.

The refusal of the President to answer a call made upon him by the House of Representatives for certain information connected with our Foreign Relations, is placed upon the ground that it would not be consistent with the public interests to give publicity to the documents referred to. The example of Washington is quoted as sustaining the President in his position.

The request of the House of Representatives was to be informed of the instructions under which Mr. Slidell was sent to Mexico as Minister of the United States.—The instance in Washington's administration, to which allusion is made by the President, presented a case, as we are reminded by the National Intelligencer, in which other nations were parties to the documents called for. Hence the difficulty of complying, since it would not do to make public the particulars of a diplomatic intercouse, when by so doing the affairs of Governments, without their consent, would be exposed to the public view.

The recent call by the House of Representatives does not ask for any information that can compromise Mexico; it asks simply for the instructions given by our own Executive to our own Minister. Upon this point the Intelligencer makes the following points:

The House of Representatives called upon to raise another army and to tax the people to an unheard of extent, to carry into the vitals of Mexico a war which that House, an important branch of the war making power, was not consulted about the begining of, is very naturally desirous, before it agrees to prosecute a war without end, to know precisely upon what grounds it was really begun.

With that object, they call upon the President, who has told them a part of the truth, to inform them what other instructions than these confessed ones were given to Mr. Slidell, our Minister, the refusal to receive whom, "in the diplomatic character in which he had been appointed"—that is to say, not to negotiate concerning the only point to settle which Mexico had agreed to receive a Commissioner—was made by the President the ground of the act of war. Congress and the People, with good reason, suspect that Mr. Slidell was charged with other demands upon Mexico, besides those of a settlement of the old claims; among which they believe were such as looked to the exaction of a surrender—some suppose under a threat of war—of an important portion of her territorial domain. And who will say that the Representatives of the People are not entitled to this information? Can any one who understands any thing of the genius of our Government maintain that, when the two Houses of Congress are called upon to sacrifice thousands more of the lives of their fellow-citizens in this quarrel, and to tax the remainder of them no one knows how many millions of dollars a year, that the President shall, when called upon by either of them, refuse to let them know for what purpose or purposes He, the Conqueror, without consulting them, the Constitutional authority, began this war and now means to continue it?

A person being asked what was meant by the realities of life, answered—"Real estate, real money, and a real good dinner, none of which could be realized without real hard work."

DR. THOMPSON'S MEDICATED SYRUP OF Castor Oil.

THE Subscriber would most respectfully inform the Citizens of Cambridge and the Public generally, that he has succeeded in making Castor Oil perfectly agreeable and while it is rendered agreeable to the taste, the Cathartic properties are very little if any diminished; and by the medication all that acrid quality of which oil is generally possessed which rendered it inadmissable with some persons, especially with infants, is entirely destroyed.

It is well known that Castor Oil is almost an universal medicine—entering into the use of every family, and administered in the treatment of almost every disease—and would be much more frequently prescribed by physicians, was it not for the great aversion to its use. But in this preparation, the subscriber can assure physicians and patients, they will find it so perfectly agreeable to the taste, that infants and ladies of the most delicate stomachs can take it without the least inconvenience. Indeed it is so perfectly palitable that should it be found necessary to take a little more in a dose it will not be found objectionable to the patient.

The Medicated Syrup of Castor Oil may be had at the store of E. M. DAWSON & BROTHER, in Easton. Wholesale and Retail orders from a distance promptly attended to.

Mrs. C. M. KIRKLAND,

Author of a 'New Home,' 'Forest Life,' etc.

AND FILLED WITH

Contributions from the most eminent writers of the country.

The Second Volume commences with the January Number, 1848.

AT the conclusion of the first half year of the "Union Magazine," the Publisher feels impelled to make some acknowledgment of his sense of the favorable reception accorded to it by the public. Its success has certainly been unprecedented; and while it may be pardonable to ascribe this in part to the merits of the work it must not be denied that public good will and kindness have been abundantly demonstrated. The press, in all parts of the country, have given its voice liberally and heartily in favor of the new aspirant.

To flag after this would be dishonorable indeed. It is the hope of the publisher that the courage and enterprise which belong to success will be found rather to have stimulated than slackened his exertions. If there be talent of a suitable kind in the country he is determined to make it available to the Union Magazine in the various departments. He will continue to give superior engravings in Mezzotint, Line and Wood, by H. S. Sadd Thomas Doney, M Osborne, Hinshelwood, W S Barnard, B F. Childs, P. Loomis, &c, from original designs by F. H. Matteson, who has the sole direction of all the designs for the Engravings.

The Literary matter will continue to be under the exclusive control of the Editor. Mrs C. M. Kirkland assisted by a corps of contributors who are either established favorites of the reading public or worthy to become so. Such as Dyspepsia Cured.

MARTIN & WHITLEY'S NATIONAL TONIC is the best remedy ever offered to the public in all cases of Dyspepsia and Ague and Fever. A healthy condition and a natural action of the functions of the Stomach and Liver are necessary to healthy Digestion The Stomach has been called the centre of Sympathies. It may therefore be truly said there is no disorder of the humane body, which does not, more or less, affect the functions of the Stomach. "Indigestion is rarely, if ever the sole cause of organic disease of the Stomach" It is however a very fruitful source of it in other parts of the system. It is, then, evident whatever will restore the tone or healthy action of the Stomach, when impaired by disease, is the only proper Medicine as a curative. Such, we feel assured is the national Tonic.

We give below a certificate of a highly respectable gentleman, a merchant in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, who last summer came to consult a distinguished Physician in this City. He had also sought the aid of several, who rank high in their profession in Philadelphia, and in the State of Pennsylvania. But hearing of this Tonic, determined to use it as directed, and the result has been, as he says a perfect cure.
