Susquehanna Bridge and Bank Company, Charles F. Mayer, Hugh Davy Evans & William Reynolds vs.
The General Insurance Company of Maryland

And now come into the court of Appeals here as well the said Susquehanna Bridge and Bank Company Charles F. Mayer, Hugh Davy Evans and William Reynolds by Charles F. Mayer Esqr their attorney, as the said General Insurance Company of Maryland by S. Teackle Wallis Esquire its attorney; and thereupon, on motion of the said General Insurance Company by its attorney aforesaid, it is ruled by the Court here, that the said Susquehanna Bridge and Bank Company, Charles F. Mayer, Hugh Davy Evans and William Reynolds assign the errors in the record of proceedings aforesaid, or in the giving the decree aforesaid, so as aforesaid brought before the Court of Appeals here, for correcting the errors supposed to be therein, or decree by the Court of Appeals here, will be entered against them in default thereof: and the said Susquehanna Bridge and Bank Company, Charles F. Mayer, Hugh Davy Evans and William Reynolds by their attorney aforesaid, say, that in the record of proceedings aforesaid, and also in the giving of decree aforesaid, there is manifest error in this, to wit; that by the record aforesaid, it appears that the decree aforesaid, in the plea aforesaid given, was given for the said General Insurance Company of Maryland against the said Susquehanna Bridge and Bank Company, Charles F. Mayer, Hugh Davy Evans and William Reynolds, when by the law of the land, that decree ought to have been given for the said Susquehanna Bridge and Bank Company, Charles F. Mayer, Hugh D. Evans, and William Reynolds against the said General Insurance Company of Maryland therefore in that there is manifest error, and they pray that the decree aforesaid for that error, and others being in the record of proceedings aforesaid, may be reversed, annulled, and held entirely as void, and that they the said Susquehanna Bridge and Bank Company, Charles F. Mayer, Hugh Davy Evans and William Reynolds, may be restored to all things which they have lost by occasion of the said Decree, and that the said General Insurance Company of Maryland, may rejoin to the errors aforesaid, and so forth. And thereupon, it is ruled by the Court of Appeals here, that the said General Insurance Company of Maryland join in the errors by the said Susquehanna Bridge and Bank Company, Charles F. Mayer, Hugh Davy Evans and William Reynolds above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid, or decree by the Court of Appeals here, will be rendered against it in default thereof: And the said General Insurance Company of Maryland by its attorney aforesaid, prays that a day may be given to it to join in the errors by the said Susquehanna Bridge and Bank Company, Charles F. Mayer and Hugh Davy Evans and William Reynolds above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid, until the second Monday in June next; and to it it is granted, the same day is also given to the said Susquehanna Bridge and Bank Company Charles F. Mayer Hugh Davey Evans and William Reynolds then &c.

At which said Second Monday in June being the ninth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred
