Household Furniture subject to bill of sale to William Price given to secure payment of about fourteen hundred dollars real property on Britain Street subject to Mortgage to Matthew McColm and to Charles F. Mager and Maria Stewart in Trust and another lot with improvements fronting thirty feet on Britain Street subject to a life estate of Mrs Harding,

The Farm on which Reside Jane does not belong to me but I am advised that the facts relating to the ownership of it as I understand it should be stated, They are as follows, I became the purchaser at private sale of said farm for the sum of five thousand two hundred and fifty dollars and I paid of the purchase money about eighteen hundred dollars and a further sum was satisfied to the seller making finally due a balance of about three thousand dollars which I was unable to pay The eighteen hundred dollars I derived directly and indirectly from Matthew McColm and I was when he took the Conveyance hereinafter mentioned indebted to him between seven and eight thousand dollars for part of which he had the mortgage on the Britain Street property Mr McColm paid the purchaser the said balance of about three thousand dollars and received a conveyance to himself for the farm that sum being over and above the sum of my indebtedness (as stated) to said McColm of between seven and eight thousand dollars. The conveyance to Mr McColm was taken by him under the following agreement between him and myself to wit that if within five years I should pay him all my debt to him on all accounts he would convey the property to me, but that if that amount of all my indebtedness were not so paid the farm and all the stock and utensils thereon should be sold and the said indebtedness be thereout satisfied I executed to said McColm a Bill of sale of all the stock and utensils on the farm about the time he paid said balance of the purchase money which stock and utensils were to be held by him in the same way in which as above mentioned he held the Farm, no conveyance or agreements have since taken place on my part relating to said Farm or stock or utensils.
