Elizabeth Torrance's Last Will and Testament

In the name of God, Amen: I Elizabeth Torrance of the City of Baltimore and State of Maryland, Widow of Charles Torrance deceased, being of sound disposing mind, memory and understanding, Considering the certainty of death, and the uncertainty of the time thereof, do therefore make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner following, that is to say:- Imprimis and direct all my just debts and funeral Expenses to be fully paid and satisfied. Whereas my said husband Charles Torrance by his last Will and Testament, bearing date the thirteenth day of June, eighteen hundred and twenty two, did give and devise to me, for and during my natural life the whole of his Estate both real and personal, and as to what should become of it after my decease, he did thereby authorize and empower me by deed Will or other wise, to give, grant convey, devise, divide or dispose of his said Estate unto and among all or such of his Children, or their Issue, in such manner and proportion, and for such term and Estate as I should think fit. Nevertheless it was his Will, and he did order and direct, that the respective shares or portions designed for his daughters should be secured to them for life, free and clear of any Controul of their respective husbands, or without being liable to the payment of their debts, and after their decease for the benefit of their Children, and their legal representatives, in equal proportion forever, and in making the said disposition of his Estate, it was his wish, that I, his wife, should consult with sons Charles and George Torrance, or the survivor of them, - as by reference to said Will, duly executed proved and recorded, among the Records of the Register of Wills Office for Baltimore County will fully appear. Now, I do hereby authorize and direct, that as soon as may be, after my decease, the said Estate both real and personal of my said late husband Charles Torrance as well as my own Estate of every description, shall be divided into eight equal parts by three reputable men to be appointed by the Orphans Court of Baltimore County, or any other Court of Record, taking into view any sum or sums of money, or any other property on my books, that may be charged against my Children, and charging them with the amount - and also to the said several parts or shares I dispose thereof as follows:-

One part or share thereof I give and divise to my sons Charles Torrance and George Torrance, and the survivor of them, and the Heirs Executors and Administrators of such survivor. In trust nevertheless, that the said Charles Torrance and George Torrance, or the survivor of them, or the Heirs, executors or administrators of said survivor, do and shall permit and suffer - Elizabeth Mitchell my daughter, the Wife of Alexander Mitchell, during the term of her natural life, to have hold use occupy possess and enjoy the same, and the rents, interest, dividends or income thereof to receive, take and enjoy without being subject to the controul, power or disposal of her present, or any future husband; or in any wise liable for his debts, contracts or enjoyments. - And from and immediately after the decease of the said Elizabeth, then in trust, as the said share, that the same shall be equally divided between all and every the Child, or Children the said Elizabeth now hath, or may hereafter have, their heirs, Executors, Administrators and assigns, forever, as Tenants in common, share and share alike, and in the event of the decease of any of the said children under age, and without lawful issue the share or proportion of him, her or them, so dying, shall descend to and become the Estate of the survivors or survivor of them the said Children. One other part or share thereof, I give and divise to my said sons Charles Torrance and George Torrance, and the survivor of them, and their heirs Executors and administrators of such survivor, in trust, nevertheless, for my daughter Ann Clopper, wife of Andrew Clopper, during her natural life, for the like uses and purpose, and subject in every respect to the same limitations and restrictions, as the share above devised, in trust, for my daughter Elizabeth; and from and immediately after the decease of said Ann, then in trust, for, and to descend to, all and every the Child or Children she now hath or may hereafter have, in the same manner as the share of my said daughter Elizabeth will descend.-
One other part or share thereof, I give and divise to my said sons Charles Torrance and George Torrance, and the survivor of them, and the heirs executors and administrators of such survivor, in trust, nevertheless, that they, or the survivor of them, or the Heirs, Executors, or administrators of such survivor, do and shall
