Laws of Maryland.

Passed by the General Assembly of Maryland, at their session which commenced on the last Monday of December, 1847.

No. 222.

AN ACT ENTITLED A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT TO THE ACT ENTITLED, AN ACT IMPOSING A TAX ON COLLATERAL INHERITANCES, distributing Shares and Legacies, to aid in paying the debts of the State, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty four, chapter two hundred and thirty-seven.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in all cases where real estate of any kind or description, of any testator or intestate, is or shall be liable to the tax imposed by the aforesaid Act, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-four, chapter two hundred and thirty-seven, an inventory in case the estate lies in one county, or inventories in case the estate lies in more than one county, shall be made of the same and returned to the office granting the administration; and for the purpose of making said inventory or inventories, and of ascertaining the clear value of such estate or estates so liable to said tax as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Orphans' Court of the County in which administration is granted, to appoint two disinterested persons of discretion, not related to the deceased, nor to any of the parties in interest, to value and apparise all the real estate of such deceased person within the State of Maryland, and the Court shall appoint the same appraisers to value the real estate as they may appoint to appraise the personal estate, and the form of the warrant or warrants to be issued to such appraisers, shall be the same as is prescribed by the Act of seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, chapter one hundred and one, to be issued to appraisers of personal estate, except that the words "real estate," shall be inserted in said warrant, instead of the words "goods, chattles and personal estate," and the words "price of property" instead of the word "article;" and the appraisers before they proceed to act, shall take the same oath or affirmation, (as the case may be) as is prescribed by said act of seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, in regard to the appraisers of personal estate, except that the words "real estate" shall be substituted for the words "goods, chattles and personal estate," and the duties and proceedings of the appraisers appointed under this act, shall be the same in every respect in regard to the real estate as are prescribed by the said act of seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, in regard to appraisers of personal estate; and in case the estate of property lies in more than one county, and it shall not be convenient for the appraisers to visit the county where the estate or property lies for the purpose of examining the estate lying in said county, and to value the same, the said Court may appoint two appraisers in said county or counties, as the case may be, for that purpose, and the inventory of the real estate required to be made in pursuance of this act, shall be entirely separate and distinct from the inventory of the personal estate.

SEC. 2. And be enacted, That on the death refusal or neglect to act of any appraiser appointed in pursuance of this act, another warrant or warrants may forthwith issue in its stead, and as often as may be deemed necessary and proper.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of all appraisers, appointed in pursuance of this act, when they shall have completed said inventory or inventories, to deliver the same forthwith to the executor or administrator of the deceased, and it shall thereupon be the duty of said executor or administrator to return the same to the same office in which he is bound to return the inventory of the personal estate, and within the time and under the like penalty prescribed by the said act of seventeen hundred and ninety eight, for the return of the inventory of the personal estate; and he shall also take an oath or affirmation, that said inventory or inventories, is or are, true and perfect inventory or inventories of all the real estate of the said deceased, within the State of Maryland, that has come to his knowledge, and that should he thereafter discover any other real estate belonging to the deceased in said State, he will return an additional inventory thereof.

SEC. 4. And be enacted, That the appraisment so ascertained of the said real estate, subject to the tax or duty of two and one half per centum on every hundred dollars imposed by said act of eighteen hundred and forty four, chapter two hundred and thirty-seven, shall be deemed and taken as the true and clear value of such estate or estates upon which said tax shall be paid.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the executor or administrator to collect from the party or parties who is or are liable for, or bound to pay said tax, or his, her or their legal representative, the amount thereof, within thirteen months from the time of the date of his letters testamentary or of administration, as the case may be, and immediately pay over the same to the Register of Wills of the county in which administration is granted, for the use of the State, and in case the party or parties who are liable or bound to pay said tax shall neglect or fail to do so, within the period aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Orphans' Court of the county in which the administration is granted, to order the executor or administrator to sell for cash, such of the said real estate so liable for said tax as aforesaid, as may be necessary to pay said tax, and all the expenses of said sale, including the commission of the executor or administrator on such sale, and after the report of said sale and the ratification thereof by said court, and upon the purchase money being all paid, the said executor or administrator may then execute a valid deed for the estate so sold and not before.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That in all cases where the Orphans' Court have determined the proportion of tax to be paid by any party or parties under the act of December session eighteen hundred and forty-six, chapter three hundred and forty-four, section one, if the party or parties shall refuse or neglect to pay the same as adjudged and determined by said court to the executor or administrator within thirty days from the time of such decree, then it shall be the duty of said court to order and direct the executor or administrator to sell all the right, title and interest of such party so refusing or neglecting to pay as aforesaid, of, in and to said estate or property, or so much thereof as may by said court be, deemed necessary to pay his or her proportion of the amount of tax or duty so ordered by said court to be paid as aforesaid, together with all expenses of said sale.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the bond given by the executor or administrator, shall at all times be liable for any money or tax he may collect under this act, as well as under the act of eighteen hundred and forty four, chapter two hundred and thirty-seven, or for the proceeds received by him from any sales of any estate, made in pursuance of the powers given by this or the aforesaid act.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That in case the executor or administrator shall refuse or neglect to perform any of the duties imposed on him by this act, the Orphans' Court of the County in which the administration was granted, may revoke his letters testamentary, or of administration, and appoint a new administrator in his place, and his bond shall be liable, and the same proceedings shall be had by the Orphans' Court against the executor or administrator whose letters are revoked as aforesaid, as are now prescribed by law in cases where executors or administrators letters are revoked for any other cause.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the duties, powers and proceedings of an administrator de. bonis, non, or of an administrator with the will annexed, shall be the same under this act in every respect as are herein before prescribed for an executor or administrator, and he shall be subject to the same liabilities and to like penalties in every particular for neglect or refusal to perform the duties imposed by this act.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That in all cases where any estate real, personal or mixed, is or shall be liable or subject to the tax imposed by the said act of eighteen hundred and forty-four, chapter two hundred and thirty-seven, and no letters testamentary or of administration are taken out on the estate of the person who may die seized or possessed thereof within ninety days after the death of said person, it shall be the duty of the Orphans' Court in which administration should be granted to issue a summon or summonses for the party or parties entitled to letters testamentary or of administration to show cause wherefore they do not administer, and if the party or parties entitled to letters testamentary or of administration according to the act of seventeen hundred and ninty-eight, chapter one hundred and one, do not administer within a reasonable time, to be fixed by said court, or if they be incapable, or being capable, if they decline or refuse to appear on proper summons or notice, then administration shall be granted to such person or persons as the said court may deem proper, and in all cases where application is made to the judges of the Orphans' Court or the Register of Wills of any County, or of Howard District, for letters testamentary or of administration, it shall be the duty of the said Judges or Register of Wills, as the case may be, to inquire from the person making said application, whether he knows or believes that there is any real estate of the testator or intestate, liable to the tax imposed by the act of eighteen hundred and forty-four, chapter two hundred and thirty-seven, and its supplements and the answers of said applicant shall be given on oath, if the said Judges or Register of Wills should so require.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the several and respective Orphans' Courts of this State, to require and compel every executor or administrator to whom they (or the Register of Wills of their County) may have granted letters testamentary or of administration, to return his inventory or inventories, and render his administration accounts to such Court, at the time or times required by law, and in case any executor or administrator shall fail to do so, his letters testamentary or administration, may in the discretion of such Court be revoked, and the Court may, if there be no remaining executor or administrator of the deceased appoint a new administrator.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the returns and payments of Register of Wills, on account of the tax imposed by the act of eighteen hundred and forty-four, chapter two hundred and thirty-seven and its supplements shall hereafter be made at the time, in the manner and under the penalties prescribed by the second and third sections of the act of eighteen hundred and forty-five, chapter seventy-one, and the commissions allowed to said Registers upon such payments shall be the same as are fixed by the third section of said last mentioned act.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to allow to the executor or administrtror any commission on the amount of the real estate returned in the aforesaid inventory or inventories.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That the fourth section of the act of eighteen hundred and forty-four, chapter two hundred and thirty-seven, and the second, third and fourth sections of the act of eighteen hundred and forty-five, chap. two hundred and two, and so much of the second section of the act of eighteen hundred and forty-four, chapter two hundred and thirty-seven, as makes it the duty of executors and administrators to lodge certain information with the Levy Court or commissioners of the County or Howard District, or the Appeal Tax Court of Baltimore, be and the same are hereby repealed.

READ IT! IT SPEAKS FOR ITSELF, AND COMMENTS ARE UNNECESSARY.

Philadelphia, May 28th, 1845.

Dr. Jayne—Dear Sir; I feel bound to the afflicted to give publicity to the extraordinary effects of your valuable medicine.

I have suffered for several years past with Liver Complaint, and the train of diseases which follow—a complete prostration of the system—so that it was with great difficulty I could walk, and at times I was confined to my room. To add to my misery, a Scrofulous affection appeared in my throat, with Rheumatism in my arms, so that I could not raise my right arm to my head. In the hottest weather my feet and hands would ache with the cold, and prespiration had almost ceased. I now became afflicted with a dry hoarse cough, and gave up all hopes of ever getting well. I had night sweats, and got little or no sleep, with frightful dreams and morbid headache. I seemed to be bordering on INSANITY, and was denied all study or mental exercise. I could not read a small paragraph in a newspaper without great difficulty. I had great soreness in my stomach, which caused it to swell so much that I was unable to lie down, or even recline, but had to be propped up in a chair.

I had the advice of some eminent physicians, and tried nearly all the remedies used in such cases, but continued to grow worse, and it appeared as though a speedy dissolution was taking place.

I now heard of your medicines, and determined to try your Sanitive Pills, and to my surprise the soreness left me, so that I could walk about the house. I continued to improve from that time. Shortly after my wife called at your store, and obtained a bottle of your ALTERATIVE.

After taking which and the Pills for three weeks, there was a decided change for the better, so that when I called upon you, you said that I would get well, and that your ALTERATIVE would cure me effectually. With no hopes, however, of getting well, I still continued taking your Alterative, until I had taken the fourth bottle, when there was a sudden change in my whole system, as though I had got rid of some great burthen, and I could draw my breath as usual. My nerves gradually became strong, and my appetite returned.

It has been about four months since I commenced taking your Medicines, and at this time nearly every vestige of disease is eradicated from my system. I am as active, and nearly as strong, as at any period of my life.—I have now gained nine pounds in two months.

I have good reason to believe that the use of your valuable medicine, by the blessing of God, has saved me from a premature grave.

THE WHOLE WORLD SHOULD KNOW IT.—That Dr. Jayne's Expectorant is a certain cure for Asthma, and that for coughs, colds, consumption, whooping cough, croup, bronchitis, and every other disease of the lungs or throat it is sure to produce the most decided benefit. It is recommended by thousands who have tried it, and all say that it is the best remedy, without any exception, for Pulmonary diseases that has ever been known, for it always gives relief, and cures when every other means have failed.

Jayne's Sanative Pills.—These pills may be taken at all times, and in most diseases; in inflammatory, intermittent, remittent, billious, and every form of FEVER—Jaundice and Liver Complaint For Dyspepsia they are really an invaluable article, gradually changing the vitiated secretion of the stomach and liver, and producing healthy action in those important organs. They are very valuable for diseases of the skin, and for what is commonly called impurity of the blood; also for Female complaints, Costiveness, &c., and in fact every disease where an Aperient, Alterative, or purgative medicine may be required.

Dyspepsia positively can be cured by a persevering use of this Sanative, especially if the Tonic Vermifuge be used in conjunction.

NEW TAILORING
ESTABLISHMENT.
JAMES S. CHILDS,

OF Baltimore, takes this method of returning his acknowledgments to his friends of Easton, Greensborough, Denton and the shore generally, for their liberal patronage during his short stay among them, being encouraged by the flattering prospect he has taken the house formerly occupied by Mr. Elias Hopkins, nearly opposite Satterfields tavern. He is now ready to execute any orders with punctuality, he flatters himself that from the experience of ten years close application to public business in Baltimore City he has gained sufficient knowledge of the trade to furnish garments combining with the same as much taste and of as good style as they can be furnished in Baltimore, Philadelphia or elsewhere, he ensures all work at the establishment to give satisfaction.

French and English Fashions

received quarterly, French plates direct, English republished in New York. Cutting done with as much care as if made. He therefore solicits a share of public patronage, no effort shall be spared on his part to give general satisfaction to those who may favor him with a call.

DR. THOMPSON'S
MEDICATED SYRUP OF CASTOR OIL.

THE subscriber would most respectfully inform the citizens of Cambridge and the public generally, that he has succeeded in making Castor Oil perfectly agreeable, and while it is rendered agreeable to the taste, the Cathartic properties are very little if any diminished; and by the medication all that acrid quality of which Oil is generally possessed which rendered it inadmissable with some persons, especially with infants, is entirely destroyed.

It is well known that Castor Oil is almost an universal medicine—entering into the use of every family, and administered in the treatment of almost every disease—and would be much more frequently prescribed by physicians, was it not for the great aversion to its use. But in this preparation, the subscriber can assure physicians and patients, they will find it so perfectly agreeable to the taste, that infants and ladies of the most delicate stomachs can take it without the least inconvenience. Indeed it is so perfectly palatable that should it be found necessary to take a little more in a dose, it will not be found objectionable to the patient.

The Medicated Syrup of Castor Oil may be had at the store of E. M. DAWSON & BRO., in Easton. Wholesale and Retail orders from a distance promptly attended to.
