And now came into the Court of Appeals here, as well the said Daniel Oneill by T. Parkin Scott Esqr his attorney, as the said William T. Cole by T. S. Alexander, David Stewart & C. F. Mayer Esqrs his attorneys; and thereupon, on motion of the said William T. Cole by his attorneys aforesaid, it is ruled by the Court here, that the said Daniel Oneill assign the errors in the record of proceedings aforesaid, or in the giving the Decree aforesaid, so as aforesaid brought before the Court of Appeals here, for correcting the errors supposed to be therein, or Decree by the Court of Appeals here, will be entered against him in default thereof: and the said Daniel Oneill by his attorney aforesaid, says, that in the record of proceedings aforesaid, and also in the giving of Decree aforesaid, there is manifest error in this, to wit, that by the record aforesaid, it appears that the Decree aforesaid, in the plea aforesaid given, was given for the said William T. Cole against the said Daniel Oneill when by the law of the land, that Decree ought to have been given for the said Daniel Oneill against the said William T. Cole therefore in that there is manifest error, and he prays that the Decree aforesaid, for that error, and others being in the record of proceedings aforesaid, may be reversed, annulled, and held entirely as void, and that he the said Daniel Oneill may be restored to all things which he hath lost by occasion of the said Decree, and that the said William T. Cole may rejoin to the errors aforesaid, and soforth. And thereupon, it is ruled by the Court of Appeals here, that the said William T. Cole join in the errors by the said Daniel Oneill above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid, or Decree by the Court of Appeals here, will be rendered against him in default thereof: And the said William T. Cole by his attorneys aforesaid, prays that a day may be given to him to join in the errors by the said Daniel Oneill above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid, untill the first Monday in December next: and to him it is granted: the same day is also given to the said Daniel Oneill then &c.—

At which said first Monday in Decr. being the sixth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, eight hundred and fifty two which said day was given to the said William T. Cole to join in the errors by the said Daniel Oneill above assigned, come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid, by their attorneys aforesaid: and the said William T. Cole by his attorneys aforesaid, says, there is no error in the record of proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the Decree aforesaid, and he prays that the Court of Appeals here, will proceed to the examination as well of the record of proceedings aforesaid, as of the matters aforesaid by the said Daniel Oneill above for error assigned, and that the said Decree may be in all things affirmed, and soforth. But because the Court of Appeals here are not advised what Decree to give of and upon the premises, day therefore is given to the parties aforesaid, before the Court of Appeals here, until the first Monday in June next, to hear the Decree of the Court of Appeals here, of and upon the premises, for that the Court now here, thereof are not advised, and soforth.

And now at this day, to wit, the said first Monday in June being the sixth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, eight hundred and fifty three. Come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid by their attorneys aforesaid. Whereupon as well the record and proceedings aforesaid,
