☞ Nothing of special interest has been done in Congress the past week, the members being engaged in discussing the Wilmot Proviso and other political topics. The Intelligencer says it is thought the session will be prolonged to the middle of August, or the 1st of September, notwithstanding the resolution of the House to adjourn on the 17th inst.,

DEATH OF THE HON. JUDGE ARCHER.—It is with sincere regret that we announce the death of the Hon. STEVENSON ARCHER, Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, and also Chief Judge of this Judicial District. He died at his residence at Rock Run, in Harford county at an early hour yesterday morning, having been ill about a fortnight. The death of this distinguishsd Jurist and most excellent citizen will be deeply regretted throughout the state no less than in the Judicial District where he was more intimately known. In his high official station he maintained a character for pure integrity and thorough legal knowledge which gained for him the sincere affection and profound respect of the Bench and Bar; while in his private walk he ever manifested the feelings and deportment which endeared him to all with whom he had intercourse. Few men have lived who enjoyed in so great a degree and so generally the affection, respect and esteem of their fellow citizens.—Balt. American of Tuesday.

THE RETURNING ARMY.—New Orleans papers gives a list of U. S. and chartered vessels which have been despatched from that port by Maj. Thompson, Q. M., to convey returning troops from Vera Cruz The number of vessels is 42, capable of conveying 15,175 men, of which ten are U. S. vessels and 32 chartered—16 steamers and 26 ships and barques.

THE MILLITARY COURT OF INQUIRY. This Court adjourned on Wednesday last, to meet again in this city, during this week, for the purpose of making their report to the War Department.

On the last day of the sitting of the Court the defence of Gen. PILLOW was read, as also a written statement, or summary of the evidence, drawn up by Gen. SCOTT. The latter was read by the Judge Advocate, Gen. Scott not being present. The defence was read by Gen. Pillow himself, from a printed pamphlet containing sixty-four pages, and consumed in the reading from two to three hours of time.—Intelligencer of Monday.

A CRASH AT BOSTON—Wonderful Escape from Death! The lower floors of the stores of Dutton Richardson & Co., and of Waterston, Pray & Co., at Boston, gave way on Saturday; with a tremendous crash but fortunately no one was injured although about thirty persons were in the building. During the same afternoon, about 4 o'clock while a number of persons were arranging the scattered goods, the back wall, which had been cracked by the previous crash, fell out, carrying with it the upper floors, making the whole a complete wreck, and burying beneath the ruins six or eight persons, some of whom were seriously injured

Lynching at Buffalo—On Monday week some negroes in Buffalo, N. Y., seized another named Isaac Dean, drove him out of town, tied and gagged him, and then administered several hundred lashes with a raw hide. They then robbed him of all his money and set him free. They suspected him of having betrayed another black into the hands of kidnappers at Chicago. The police were investigating the affair, and several arrests had been made.

HORRIBLE BARBARITY.—The Dominica Colonist, of May 27th, records the following diabolical outrage on the part of the newly liberated slaves in Martinique:

"A large number of the insurgents assembled around the house of a respectable white gentleman and demanded that he should deliver up to them his daughters, two in number, and on meeting with the most prompt and explicit denial that language could convey, they burned the house, and the entire family perished in the flames, the savages keeping sentry around it lest any of them should escape.

MEXICO.

The New President of Mexico.—As soon as Gen. HERRERA was notified of his election as President of the Republic of Mexico, he transmitted to the Chamber of Deputies a formal renunciation of the office. His letter of declination was warmly discussed, and the Deputies by a large majority refussed to accept it, and appointed the 1st of June as the day for his inauguration. Gen. HERRERA, after repeated solicitations, agreed to accept the trust reposed in him, and at his request the inauguration was postponed until the 3d, that he might have time to prepare a fitting discourse on the occasion.

It is thought that Senors Cuevas, Otero, Garcia, Conde, & Echeveria will be members of Herrera's Cabinet. The Ministry of Pena y Pena has resigned in a body.

Rumored Battle and Massacre at Jacmel.—Capt. Bailey, of barque Panchita, at this port, from Jacmel, reports that a gentleman from St. Thomas informed him that when coming down in the English steamer, the pilot from Jacmel, St. Domingo, told them that the negroes had had a most bloody battle about twenty miles from there the day before, murdering about two hundred men, women, and children, and drinking their blood!

A day or two since a letter was received in this city stating that two bands of pickets had marched towards Jacmel, with determinations of murder and of pillage.—This is probably the result of that expedition.—Boston Traveller.

CHOLERA INFANTUM—This disease among children is prevailing to an alarming extent in Philadelphia. Last week, one hundred and five deaths occurred among children, under one year of age.

OLD ZACH'S RECEPTION OF HIS NOMINATION.

The New Orleans Crescent City says: By an extraordinary coincidence, the news of Gen. Taylor's nomination was brought down the river from Memphis by the steamboat Gen. Taylor, Captain Morehead, (which, by the by, the reader will remember was the name of the President of the Convention.) As the boat approached the General's plantation, near Rodney, she rounded to, and the passengers commenced hallooing very loudly for the old hero.

After awhile the General emerged from a log cabin and came down to the landing, where he was met by Capt. Morehead, who handed him the letter announcing his nomination. He read it without the slightest appearance of emotion, after which he folded it up, put it into the capacious pocket of that famous old brown coat, and turning to the Captain, remarked, "it's a very fine day, Captain—a very fine day, indeed." "Yes very fine," responded the Captain. "Did you have a pleasant trip down?" "Quite so." "Good morning, Captain, good morning gentlemen," and the imperturbable old gentleman waddled off, bowing as he went, to the passengers and crew, who made the welkin ring with their loud hurras for old Zach.

This modern Cincinnatus received his nomination with perfect coolness. How different from the effect which the same intelligence had upon Candidate Cass, in New York, when the telegraphic despatch was read, and then a consultation held upon it between Cass and his hireling tail. Both Taylor and Cass experienced the same feeling, that the People's Candidate must be successful. Taylor felt that he was right, and must succeed on the platform of Washington Cass knew that he was a truckler, and must be defeated on the Polk Platform.—U. S. Gazette.

WHIG RATIFICATION MEETING IN NEW YORK—Mr. Van Buren Accepts His Nomination. The great mass ratification meeting in New York to respond to the nominations of Taylor and Fillmore, came off Tuesday evening with great eclat. The whole area in front of National Hall on Canal street, was densely crowded by the people. Animating speeches were delivered by Messrs. Dayton, of New Jersey, Ogden Hoffman, Thayer, and others during which the enthusiasm was tremendous.—Resolutions ratifying the nomination of Gen. Taylor were read amid much applause. It is estimated that 20,000 persons were present, and the state is confidently put down for Taylor and Fillmore by a large majority.

A letter has been received from Mr. Martin Van Buren, signifying his acceptance of the nomination made by the Utica Convention.—Clipper.

ASSAULT UPON WASHINGTON.—The Washington Union, in the course of a long article abusive of Gen. Taylor, says:—

"Throughout the whole series of his letters, and particularly in the letter addressed to the editors of the Richmond Republican, (written only two days before that to Mr. Allison,) Gen. Taylor professes his determination, if elected, to administer the Executive Office "in the spirit and mode of our earlier Presidents;" and it must observed that, in the administration of the first and greatest of these, occur the most remarkable, and the most questionable instances of the use of the Veto Power, which have ever appeared since the constitution was framed."

The Executive organ finds it necessary to strike at Washington's great name, in order to find any ground of assault upon Gen. Taylor!

GENERAL LESLIE COOMBS AND HIS GOOD EXAMPLE.—Gen. Coombs is the personal friend of Henry Clay—but he is now doing all he can to secure the election of Gen. Taylor. Having spoken in Newark on Monday evening, in Brooklyn on Tuesday evening, he and Gov. Jones go now to speak in Connecticut. Gen. Coombs, in the course of his speech at Newark, speaking of Gen. Taylor, said:

Fellow-citizens, if you knew this old man as I knew him, you would wonder how any other man could fail to love and honor him. He reminds me more of Cincinatus, whom Rome called from the field to save her, than any other man of ancient story. He is my beau-itleal of a soldier."

General C. vouched for him as a patriotic Whig. I saw a letter to Henry Clay received the day before I left home, in which the old patriot says—"If you are selected as the candidate, you have no friend in America who will give you a more fervent support than I will."

CLAY AND BOTTS FOR TAYLOR.—The Journal of Commerce has authentic information that Mr. Clay is about to give in his adhesion to the nomination of General Taylor, and call upon his friends to enlist under the Taylor Banner. Mr. Botts has stated that this is Mr. Clay's determination, and there could be no better authority than this. MR. BOTTS will himself, it is said, soon come out with a letter addressed to the Clay Whigs of Virginia, in which he will give reasons for coming finally into the Taylor current.

MICHIGAN.—We noticed on Saturday, says the Troy Budget, the statement of the Buffalo Republican that two hundred leading and influential Democrats in the county of Wayne, Michigan—the county in which Gen. Cass resides—have signed a paper repudiating the Baltimore ticket, and promising their support to the Utica nominees. We have assurances from portions of the State that the Democratic masses are ready to co-operate with their brethren of Wayne county.

Gen. Taylor in Florida.—The following extract from a report of operations in Florida, made by Gen. Thomas S. Jesup, then as now a supporter of the Loco Foco Administration, shows the estimate placed upon Gen. TAYLOR's military services and talents before he became the Whig Candidate for the Presidency:—

Washington City, July 6, 1838.

* * * "Gen. TAYLOR, was directed to proceed from Tampa Bay; open a road in nearly an eastern direction into the heart of the country, establish a road at Pease Creek, another on the Kissimmee and attack the enemy in that quarter. He came up with the enemy on the 25th December, attacked them, and in one of the best fought actions known to our history, gained a complete victory, though with great loss of officers and men."

BARNBURNERS IN ILLINOIS.—The following letter, signed by the Mayor of Chicago and 100 other citizens, was laid before the Utica Convention last week.

Sir—Please make known to the Convention that Northern Illinois is ready to fraternize with New York. The undersigned, as democrats, with thousands of others, are ready to second any national movement in favor of free territory, and would suggest a national mass Convention.

JAMES H. WOODWORTH,
Mayor of Chicago, and 100 others.

VISIT TO GEN. TAYLOR.—The following is an extract of a letter from a gentleman formerly of Hartford, to a friend in that city dated—

New Orleans, May 5, 1848.

"Finding that I should be detained until Sunday next for the sailing of the Palmetto, I accepted the invitation of a gentlemen residing at Baton Rouge, and accompanied him up the river on a visit to 'Rough and Ready.' I was fortunate in finding the General and his daughter Betty at home and disengaged, and enjoyed several hours pleasant conversation. If the Whigs could all see the honest old General and hear him express as freely as he did to me, his sentiments on the Tariff, Internal Improvements, the War with Mexico, and appointments to office, &c. he would not only be sure of a nomination, but of an election.

His daughter is beautiful and accomplished, about 22 years of age, and a great favorite with her acquaintances."

More Grape!—The Hon. Churchill C. Cambreleng, in his speech last week at N. York, told some truths to his brother democrats. In the course of his remarks he said that, "from the first roll of the drum at Pala Alto to the conquest of the city of Mexico, the President and Secretary of War had been laboring to make a President for them, and that President would be ZACHARY TAYLOR, for he is the man after the hearts of the people."

BRITISH TYRANNY.—The latest act to exasperate the people of Ireland, has been the refusal of the Lord Chancellor to admit Mr. Duane and Dr. Gray, of the Freeman's Journal, to the profession of the law, [for which their talents eminently entitle them,] because they were repealers!

RHEUMATISM, GOUT, AND THE DOULOUREUX.—A respectable gentleman called at our office, as he said, to inform us that he had been afflicted for fifteen years with Rheumatism or Gout, and occasionally with The Doulloureux; that he has been frequently confined to his room for months together, and often suffered the most intense and excruciating pains, but that lately he had been using JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE, from which he found the most signal and unexpected relief. He says he found the medicine very pleasant and effective, and that he now considers himself thoroughly cured. —Spirit of the Times.

LIFE! LIFE!! LIFE!!!—"All that a man hath will he give for his life," so we find recorded in the most ancient and best of books, but as we see thousands dying around us with Consumption, Croup, Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting blood, and other Pulmonary affections, we are led to doubt the correctness of the above assertion, especially since it is so well known that a certain remedy may be obtained, which always arrests those diseases.

DR. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT never fails to give relief, and cures after every other means have failed. This can be and has been proved in thousands of instances, where it has effected radical cures, after the patient had been given up by all his friends and physicians.

Prepared only by Dr. D. Jayne, Philadelphia, and sold on agency by

E. M. DAWSON & BRO., Easton.
H. MARSHALL, St. Michaels.

Also Jayne's Carminative, a never failing remedy for Bowel Complaints, Colic, &c.
