one perches to a Stone heretofore planted South Seventy four degrees thirty minutes West Seventeen perches to a Stone heretofore planted, north eleven degrees thirty minutes east fifty Seven perches to a Stone now planted, North fifty degrees east twenty perches to a Stone heretofore planted North eighty one degrees thirty minutes, East forty eight perches to a Stone heretofore planted, North forty five degrees thirty minutes East Seventeen and a half perches to the end of the Sixth Course of the aforementioned deed from Walter Worthington to Nathan Haines, thence reversing and bounding on said deed as follows To Wit South twenty Seven degrees thirty minutes east eighty Seven and a half perches to a Stone heretofore planted North Sixty Seven degrees thirty minutes east nine perches North eighty two degrees east four perches to a stone heretofore planted, South thirteen degrees thirty minutes east thirty five perches to a Stone heretofore planted, south thirty Seven degrees thirty minutes East thirty three and one quarter perches to the place of beginning Containing One hundred and thirty two acres and three quarters of an acre of land more or less.

Second Beginning for "Lot number Two" it being composed of all that part of the aforementioned land claimed by Nicholas Hardy and Eleanor his Wife at a stone heretofore planted at the end of Six and a quarter perches on and in the Second Course of a deed dated the Second day of April One thousand eight hundred and ten from Walter Worthington to Nathan Haines it being the beginning of "Lot number one" marked upon the plat at the letter B. and running thence with and bounding on said deed as follows, North thirty Seven degrees thirty minutes West thirty three and a quarter perches to a Stone heretofore planted, north thirteen degrees thirty minutes West thirty five perches to a Stone heretofore planted, South eighty two degrees West four perches, South Sixty Seven degrees thirty minutes West nine perches to a Stone heretofore planted, South twenty Seven degrees thirty minutes West eighty Seven and a half perches, North forty Six degrees east thirty Six and a half perches to a Stone heretofore planted, North sixty four degrees thirty minutes east fifty five and a quarter perches to a stone heretofore planted by the side of a black oak tree, East Seventy five perches, thence South Sixteen degrees East fourteen perches, North Seventy degrees fifteen minutes East Sixteen perches South eighteen degrees East one hundred and forty Seven and a half perches to intersect at the end of one hundred and forty Six perches the first Course of the aforementioned deed from Walter Worthington to Nathan Haines, thence running with and bounding on said deed as follows, South Seventy two degrees fifteen minutes, west one hundred and thirty Seven and a half perches to a Stone heretofore planted at the end of the first course of said deed, North thirty Seven degrees thirty minutes, West Six and a quarter perches to the place of beginning, Containing One hundred and Seventy acres of land more or less.

Third Beginning for "Lot number three" it being composed of all that part of said lands belonging to the dwelling plantation of the said Nathan Haines, at the end of One hundred and forty Six perches on and in the first Course of a deed, dated the Second day of April one thousand eight hundred and ten from Walter Worthington to Nathan Haines marked upon the plat at the letter C and running thence reversely with and bounding on, "Lot number Two" the three following Courses and distances To Wit North eighteen degrees West one hundred and forty Seven and a half perches, South Seventy degrees fifteen minutes West Sixteen perches, North Sixteen degrees West fourteen perches to the end of Seventy five perches on and in the ninth Course of the aforementioned deed from Walter Worthington to Nathan Haines, thence running with and bounding on said deed as follows, East twenty five and a half perches to a stone heretofore planted, North thirty Seven degrees East twenty Six perches to a Stone heretofore planted, North fifty Seven degrees East thirty four perches to a stone heretofore planted South thirty Six degrees thirty minutes East twenty eight perches to a stone heretofore planted South Seventy five degrees thirty minutes East nine perches to a Stone heretofore planted, South Seventy five degrees thirty minutes East Seventeen perches North forty Six degrees thirty minutes East fifty perches North thirty Seven degrees thirty minutes West thirty eight perches, North forty one degrees thirty minutes East Seventeen perches, North twenty Seven degrees West twenty perches North fifty nine degrees thirty minutes East thirty nine perches, South twenty nine degrees thirty minutes East Sixteen perches, South seventy eight degrees thirty minutes East twenty Six perches, South thirty Seven degrees thirty minutes East twenty perches, South fourteen degrees thirty minutes East twenty eight perches, South eighty Seven degrees, East thirty five perches South twenty two degrees East fifty eight perches, South twenty degrees West forty Six perches, South Seventy nine degrees West twenty perches, South twenty degrees West Six perches, South Seventy degrees thirty minutes, West twenty two perches South eighty Seven degrees thirty minutes West forty two perches South forty one degrees forty five minutes East forty four and a half perches to a stone heretofore planted it being the beginning of the aforementioned deed from Walter Worthington to Nathan Haines, thence running with and bounding on the first Course of said deed South Seventy two degrees fifteen minutes, West one hundred and forty Six perches to the place of beginning; Containing Two hundred and twenty Six acres and one quarter of an acre of land more or less. Surveyed May 26th 1852

Charles R. Stewart Surveyor & Commissioner