lasting disgrace to the Democratic party. Mr. Foote, of Miss., interrupted the speaker by the question—"Does the gentleman mean to assert that these documents are conflicting?" "They are not," was the reply, "for one of them travels directly towards the South and the other towards the North." The revelation made by Mr. Mangum caused great excitement, and a number of efforts were made by Messrs. Hannegan and Foote to prevent him from going on, and Mr. H. took it upon himself to declare that the Congressional Committee having Gen. Cass's reputation in keeping, had not countenanced the fraud which had been divulged.

The next point of Mr. Mangum's speech bore upon Mr. Cass, as a friend of the system of internal improvements. He made out conclusively that Mr. Cass had not proven himself a friend to this system. In this connection he took occasion to remark that if Mr. Polk had not vetoed the River and Harbor bill, he would have been the nominee of the Baltimore Convention; and he also thought that if Mr. Cass should be elected, he would be sure to veto the same Western bill which had been vetoed by Mr. Polk. He considered General Cass a worthy representative of the most dangerous party that ever existed in the country.

It is reported that the Court of Inquiry has decided that the charges preferred against General Pillow should be dismissed. The correspondent of the Sun says the Court is soon to assemble again in New Jersey, to inquire into the charges preferred against Gen. Scott.—Philad. Ledger

We could not have believed the fact possible which is stated above in regard to General Scott, if it were not, to our utter surprise, confirmed by what we have heard here at the seat of Government. But for this, we should have regarded the statement as a calumny on the Administration. That the illustrious & veteran Chief of the Army whose fame is interwoven with the brightest pages of his country's history during a period of nearly forty years, and whose skill and valor have just brought a bloody and costly war to an end, and given peace once more to his bleeding country; that he, at such a moment, and on the heel of achievements so glorious, should have been ordered by the President, whom, by his victories, he has saved from overwhelming condemnation, to be arraigned and tried as a culprit, (upon charges, as we understand the most frivolous,) surpasses any thing recorded in history. But such, we are compelled to believe, is the outrageous fact —Nat. Intelligencer.

Gen. Taylor ordered to the command of the Western Division U. S. Army.—Orders have been received at New Orleans, says the Picayune of the 30th ult., by which the command of the Western Division of the army is assigned to Major Gen. Taylor, and that of the First Department of the Division to Bv't Brig. Gen. Brooke. Gen. Taylor will make his head quarters at Baton Rouge, or such other point as he may select, while Gen. Brooke's headquarters will continue as at present, in New Orleans.

The Enthusiasm in Ohio for Gen Taylor.—Very soon after the nominations were made at Philadelphia a very large ratification meeting was held at Chillicothe, in the State of Ohio, at which the Hon. William Creighton presided. Very strong resolutions were adopted, approving the nomination of General Taylor for President and Millard Fillmore for Vice President; and the best spirit was manifested by the Whigs of that strong Whig portion of the State of Ohio.

Ohio.—The Cincinnati Chronicle contains the following paragraph in reference to the Whig prospect on the Western Reserve; in Ohio, where we have apprehended more opposition to Gen. Taylor than in any other part of the United States:

"There was a letter received in this city yesterday, from a distinguished and influential Whig residing in the Western Reserve, who once represented that section in Congress, in which we have the assurance that Taylor's majority in the Reserve will range from ten to fifteen thousand."

Alabama.—An enthusiastic meeting, to ratify the nominations of Taylor and Fillmore, was held at Tuscaloosa on the 24th ult. The Monitor says—

All the indications in this quarter are of the most cheering kind. It is utterly impossible to rally the democrats of Tuscaloosa county upon Gen. Cass. His nomination is a dead weight upon his party.—Those who support him do not do it cordially. On the other hand there is nothing in the views of Gen. Taylor to make him offensive to any party.

The Saturday meeting was of excellent omen. Conversation with some of our country friends showed us that there is enthusiasm abroad. How could it be otherwise with such a candidate?

PARTY NAMES.

With what self complacency the Cass men call themselves Democrats, and the Barnburners call themselves Democrats and Mr. Calhoun, and the anti-Wilmot and the anti-Missouri Compromise men of the South call themselves Democrats. In this confusion, we should like to know the ear-mark by which we could distinguish one of these democrats from another. It would seem from some of the leading newspapers of the self-styled exclusive democracy, that the distinguishing features of a sound democrat were these: first, to love office, of all grades, from the supervisor of a road up to a President; second, to vote as the Baltimore Convention directs. But this is denied by the Barnburners—they say it is possible to be a Democrat, and not according to the bidding of the Baltimore Convention—and the Southern Democrats say that an inordinate love of office is not essential to constitute a regular dyed-in-the-wool Democrat.—Harford Gazette.

[Correspondence of the Balt. Clipper.]

WASHINGTON, July 10, 1848.

Gens. Cushing and Pillow—Gen. Scott's Trial—End of the Session—Reverdy Johnson's Speech.

I see it announced, upon information said to have been received from Washington, that the Senate confirmed the nominations of Gens. Pillow and Cushing, on Saturday last. You may rely upon it that such is not the fact.

The trial of Gen. Scott, as frequently mentioned of late, has been abandoned; or else, as I have reason for believing, it will be speedily, easily, and honorably adjusted. The idea of convening a court, for that purpose, in New Jersey, is without truth for its foundation.

You need not expect a conclusion of the present session of Congress, earlier than the middle of August; if then, doubtful.

Mr. Johnson, of your city, made an able and high-toned argument, in the Senate, today, in favor of abiding by the compromises of the Constitution, in reference to newly acquired territories. It should be spread all over the union, and the world. L.

Locofocoism and Gen. Taylor.—We need no commendations for Gen. Taylor, but those which were brought forward by the locos before they thought he would be adopted as the Whig candidate. We give a few examples. The following resolutions was passed at a Democratic meeting in Lafayette, N. J. about a year since:

"His firmness his decision of character; his successful management of men; his splendid achievements on the field of battle; his brief and finished dispatches; all indicate intellectual faculties of the highest order, and seem to point him out as a person well fitted to take the helm of State."

Again, the following resolution was passed at the Hope, N. J. Democratic meeting, June, 1847:

"Resolved, That with a full reliance on the ability, integrity, virtue and patriotism of Gen. Zachary Taylor, and his fitness to discharge the responsible duties of the Chief Magistracy of our Republic, we cheerfully respond to his nomination by our Democratic brethren in other parts of the state, as a suitable candidate of the people for the highest office in their gift."

QUESTIONS.

A correspondent of the Baltimore Patriot propounds to the editor of the Washington Union the following important questions;

1st. Did not Gen. Cass, whilst Indian Agent, accumulate a large fortune?

2d. Was not said fortune made by the purchase of lands out of his proceeds as Agent?

3d. Did not John C: Calhoun, then Secretary of War, refuse to accredit or pass the accounts of the said Gen. Cass?

4th. Did not Gen. Cass, whilst filling the Station of Secretary of War, pass the accounts of General Cass, Indian Agent?

If such facts be proved, would they not go to show that Gen. Cass, the nominee of the locofoco party, has enriched himself by passing accounts of his own, which the just, honest, and faithful servant of the Republic, John C. Calhoun, considered as illegal? The people should examine this matter thoroughly.

PRINCIPLES OF CANDIDATE CASS —QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Q. Are you in favor of Protection?

A. That depends upon "circumstances!"

Q. What is your opinion concerning the Public Lands?

A. I shall write no more political letters!

Q. Are you for or against the Wilmot Proviso?

A. See my letters on both sides!

Q. Are harbor and river improvements constitutional.

A. The "noise and confusion" prevents my answer from being heard.

Every Whig paper in Pennsylvania bears aloft the banner inscribed with the names of Taylor and Fillmore.

Van Buren Heading Cass.—The Fulton Democrat has taken down the name of Cass and run up that of Van Buren.—The Watertown Jeffersonian has done the same thing. Ditto the Hamilton County Sentinel, the Wayne Sentinel, the Eastern State Journal, and the Dedham (Mass.) Democrat! This is backing out by wholesale.

John Mitchell.—The British steamer Scourge arrived at Bermuda on the 20th ult., from Ireland, having on board John Mitchell, who was immediately transfered to the convict ship Dromedary.

Discontinued.—The Post Office at Bridgetown, Caroline county, Md., is discontinued.

AN IMPORTANT CURE BY DR. JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE.—We have been informed by Mrs. Mahan, (a grand-daughter of old Gen. Wayne) that she suffered for a number of years from the growth of a large Goitrous Tumor, which besides great deformity, produced both a difficulty of deglutition, and of breathing. Indeed, she says, the pressure upon the wind-pipe was so great, as to prevent her from sleeping in a recumbent position, and often suffocation appeared inevitable. She also labored under severe indisposition from Liver Complaint and Jaundice, with a horrible train of nervous affections, for which she used Dr. Jayne's Alterative, which she took regularly for six or seven weeks, with occasional doses of his Sanative Pills, and her general health was thereby completely re-established, and now perceiving some dimunition in the size of the Goitrous Tumor, she was encouraged to persevere in the use of the Alterative, until every vestige of the painful Tumor was entirely removed.

We cannot speak too highly of this important preparation of Dr. Jayne, and for the sake of suffering humanity, hope that it may become more generally known.—Public Ledger.

Worms! Worms! Worms!—To remove those troublesome and dangerous inhabitants of the stomach and bowels, which so often impair the health and destroy the lives of children, use Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge, a certain and safe preparation for the removal of the various kinds of worms, dyspepsia, sour stomach, want of appetite, infantile fever and ague, and debility of the stomach and bowels and organs of digestion.

It is without exception one of the most valuable preparations in the world.

CEDAR POINT FOR SALE.

I WILL SELL the above named Farm on which I now reside, situate in Edmondson's Neck, four miles Southwest of Easton, Md. It contains 416 acres Arable,

AND 229 ACRES OF TIMBER LAND.

The former is in a high state of cultivation, (set in Clover and Timothy,) and laid off in shifts of seventy-five acres each, together with five house lots for the use of Orchards, Truck Patches, Clover, &c.

Ninety acres are in New York flint wheat, and one hundred and fifty in Corn, which, with Sweet and Irish Potatoes, &c., present a flattering prospect.

The balance of the Land consists of Two hundred and twenty-nine acres of Timber, equal for value and size to any in the State, being mostly White Oak and Yellow Pine, suitable for Ship Building. Of this quantity, if desired, one hundred and fifty acres, lying compactly together, will be sold separate. The whole is convenient to navigable water, the greatest distance therefrom being not over half a mile.

More than half of this valuable and beautiful property is bounded by Navagable Salt Water, having deep clean & sandy shores. In their respective seasons may be found in great plenty, Wild Fowl, Fish, Oysters, Crabs, Terrapins, &c.

Means for still rendering the Land more productive, are abundant, and consists of Indian shell Turf, &c. The former in vast quantities may be had in many sections round the shores. The Farm is well supplied with Wells and never failing springs of pure and wholesome water.—The neighborhood in respectability, health, and agricultural improvement is surely not surpassed in this State. Steamboats to and from Baltimore, Annapolis and Cambridge, pass almost daily within one fourth of a mile of the dwelling and one hundred yards of the wharf. These, with the numerous packets and other vessels afford constant and easy access to market, and render the scene pleasing and cheerful.

The BUILDINGS, which are many, and suited to almost every purpose, are extensive and nearly new, having been erected by faithful mechanics, under the owner's supervision, within four years. The Dwelling is forty feet square, two stories high, and completely furnished with Marble Mantels, Bells, &c., throughout the building.

The Land, with what is now growing thereon, will be sold together or separate, and possession given immediately. When disposed of, the stock, consisting of Horses, Cows, Hogs, Sheep, &c., together with a complete set of Farming Implements, will be sold on accommodating terms.

For further particulars apply to my agent, Sam'l. Hambleton, Jr. Attorney at law, Easton, or to the subscriber, on the premises.

Best managed rented farm of not less than 100 acres, exclusive of woodland,	$15.00
Second best,	10.00
Best managed farm, not rented, of not less than 100 acres, exclusive of woodland,	12.00
Second best,	8.00

All persons desiring to compete for the premiums for farms will, at an early day, signify the same to the committee of arrangements, or to the examining committee of farms, composed of Wm. Freeland, John Newnam, Jos. B. Harrington and Saml. E. Emerson, who will visit their farms in due season.

Note.—In awarding premiums to farms reference will had to the accumulation and application of manure—neat and thorough drainage and cultivation—the propagation of grasses—improvement and care of stock; condition and care of enclosures, gates, farm buildings, utensils, &c., &c.; in short, to the system, management, economy of labor, vigilance and industry apparent upon the different farms entered for premium which in the opinion of the judges, will be most conducive to a steadily progressive increase in the permanent wealth of the farmer.
