5. To the fifth Interrogatory that
Nathan Haines gave to his Son Mordecai Haines the farm adjoining the one occupied by Nicholas Hardy, She has often heard her father (said Nathan Haines) say that he had given that farm to his Son Mordecai. Mordecai Haines paid the taxes on the farm. he gave the money to his father to pay the Tax Collector. Nathan Haines gave this property to his Son Mordecai about fifteen years before his death. Mordecai Haines was in possession of his property at the time of the death of the said Nathan Haines. He (Mordecai) was opposed to going to live at the farm, he wished to live at the home place but his father induced him to go, and told him that, that should be his farm. that it was good land but out of repair.

6 & 7. Sixth and Seventh Interrogatories waived by Counsel

Whereupon. The Counsel for the Complainants exhibited his Crop interrogatories to be put to said Witness, which are herewith returned, and the said Witness being examined thereon deposes and says

1 Crop. To the first Crop Interrogatory that
She does not think that many persons make the "A" as round as Nathan Haines did he always made his "A" like the one in the Signature of the Exhibit shewn her.

2 Crop. To the Second Crop Interrogatory that
The land built upon by Nicholas Hardy, was situated between the two farms, between the "home place" and Mordecai Haines place, It was adjoining the "Home place" Witness saw Nicholas Hardy building there himself. He paid for the building himself she has seen him pay his hands off

3 Cross. To the third Crop Interrogatory that
She saw the taxes paid by Nicholas Hardy and Mordecai Haines into the hands of Nathan Haines, every Year after they had possession of the farm. She thinks Mordecai Haines paid $15 per annum for taxes.

4 Crop. To the fourth Crop Interrogatory that
When Mordecai Haines took possession of the farm it was unoccupied, It was last occupied before by Sally Haines a daughter in law of Nathan Haines.

5 Crop. To the fifth Crop Interrogatory that She does not recollect in what Year Sally Haines moved away from the farm, It was the Year before Mordecai Haines moved there. She thinks that Sally Haines had only been gone a few months when he (Mordecai Haines) moved in.

in due form, and being examined to interrogatories filed with the Commissioner by the Defendants and herewith returned, Solemnly affirms and says.

1. To the First Interrogatory that
He knows the hand writing of Nathan Haines. He has seen it frequently. He has looked at the "Exhibit "A" shewn him and thinks that the signature attached thereto is in the hand writing of Nathan Haines. He has seen him write several times.

2d To the Second Interrogatory that
In June 1848 & 1849 he had a conversation with Nathan Haines about some land he had given to Nicholas and Ellen Hardy. He (Nathan Haines) then said that he had made his Will and run off the portion he intended for each one. The lime kiln place containing 100. acres he said he intended for his Son Mordecai. The part for his daughter Ellen was on the N. W. Side. Witness does not recollect how many acres Nathan Haines said there in this place, The home place he told Witness was for his daughter Mary. That she had been a dutiful child to him and that he thought she was still deserving of that property, On the East end of his property he had laid off places for his Grand children, the Children of Daniel Haines. Said Nathan then told Witness that he had laid off his property, and that Mordecai and Mary Haines and Nicholas Hardy were in possession of their respective portions at that time and that he wished his Grand children to take possession of their places also, and to improve them. Witness can remember nothing else, Nathan Haines at the same time, said to Witness that he was glad to see that Nicholas and Ellen Hardy were improveing their places so rapidly.
