friend, Wm. B. Lewis, the 2d Auditor of the Treasury.

Now who will believe for one moment that this Government owed $35,075 for years to Governor Cass? And still less can it be believed that Governor Cass, who received annually, on his own estimates, all that he required, would let this large sum, or any sum, remain unpaid. Not at all. Engaged as he was largely in land speculations, money was important and valuable to him. Yet, it seems, he forgot and overlooked this enormous balance of $35,075, due him for years, and did not think of it till more than a year after his office of Governor expired. Who can believe such an absurdity? It is much much more likely that Governor Cass was indebted to the Government; and until this account was rend red such would seem to be the fact; for the amount of Governor Cass' claims, as rendered was $53,128 96. Yet this only brought the Government in his debt $35 075 For the whole of this matter I refer to Document No. 112, 3d session, 25th Congress, page 16, which I will append to my speech, with such parts of the other documents referred to as may be material to full understanding of the subject. I was anxious to see the vouchers filed in support of these claims, and called at the office for that purpose, but the privilege was refused, as I have already stated. To-morrow I intend to call, by resolution, for the vouchers in support of these claims, and I trust the friends of General Cass on this floor will promptly adopt it, and thus place before the country the vouchers, if they exist, to justify these charges. Will they do it? We shall see.

As the gentleman from Michigan is good at figures, I will submit to him this question to be worked out at his leisure: "If Gen. Cass as Governor, and ex officio Superintendent of Indian affairs, took $94,865 46 extra pay over and above his salary of $2,000, how much would he be entitled to as President of the United States, and ex officio Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy, with a salary of $25,000 per annum?" Being a military man, Gen. Cass would no doubt command in person in war, and war would be matter of course should he be elected; and having the precedent, he would have precisely the same right to extra pay that he had as Governor of Michigan. In point of law or justice, is there a shadow of difference? Under such an administration of extras, extravagances, and extraordinary charging, with free trade, reduced duties and revenue, that will become of us? Is not ruin and bankruptcy inevitable?

The gentleman from Missouri (Mr. JAMIESON) who last addressed the committe, charged Gen Taylor (a small affair) with "parsimony." And why? Because he refused to pay $7 or $8 postage on a parcel of unimportant political letters.—Now, sir, instead of an objection, this furnished an argument in his favor. It shows that he will not neglect his public duties in quest of office; that he takes proper care of his own money, and will take proper care of the People's, if entrusted to his keeping. While he spends nothing wastefully, he takes no extra pay; nothing that is not strictly and honestly his due. In these days of prodigality and extravagance he is just the man the people want at the head of affairs. Reform and Retrenchment in public expenditures is now more loudly demanded than at any former period of our history. I can, however, tell the gentlemen from Missouri, that if Gen. Taylor, like Gen. Cass, had been receiving extra pay at the rate of fifteen or twenty dollars a day over and above his salary, he might have afforded to pay this postage. General Cass, no doubt, would have paid it; but not so with Taylor. He attends to his duties, and lets extra pay and politics alone.

But, sir, there is another perversion of my remarks made by the gentleman from Michigan, (Mr. McCLELLAND,) which I cannot permit to pass unnoticed. He says I slandered Mr. Calhoun by charging him with allowing Gen Cass's accounts for extra pay, five or six years after he was out of office. Now, sir, instead of saying what the gentleman imputes to me, I said exactly the reverse. I said Mr. Calhoun had not allowed the accounts, as stated by the 2d Auditor, and as proof, I adduced the fact, that he was out of office five or six years before the account was settled. The gentleman must be hard run, indeed, when he is driven to such quibbling as this; such perversions, such evasions of the real questions in issue. I charge General Cass with malversations in office, and the gentlemen defends Mr. Calhoun, who is not assailed I charge General Cass with taking more money out of the Treasury than he was legally entitled to receive, and the gentleman turns round and assails me with abusive epithets. This is easily done; I might retaliate, but will not. It is not with him or with me the people have to do; it is with General Cass, now a candidate for the Presidency; and it is to his defence I would advise the gentleman to give his immediate and undivided attention.

The defence of General Taylor, an honest man who has devoted his whole life to the service of his country, is an easy task. What have you to say against him, gentleman? I pause for a reply.—Nothing; not a word. But the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. McClelland) has said suggested, that on examination of General Taylor's accounts it would appear that he had received a fair larger sum as "extra compensation" than Gen. Cass, "for light military duty at unimportant posts." General Taylor received more extra pay than General Cass! Now I assert, and am prepared to prove by official records, that he never received one cent of extra pay, and have proved that General Cass received $63,949. Now, sir, when making such a charge against an old and faithful soldier, either directly or by insinuation, why did not the gentlemen do as I now do, produce the documents to prove his charges? Why, because he

STATE OF MARYLAND,

ON application of John M. Rice, of Talbot County, by petition in writing to me the subscriber, one of the Judges of the Orphans' Court of Talbot County, setting forth that he is under execution and pressed for the payment of debts he is unable to satisfy, and offering to deliver up to his creditors all his property, real, personal and mixed, of which he is in any way entitled, the necessary wearing apparel, &c., of himself and his family excepted, a schedule whereof and a list of his creditors and debts being annexed to his petition on oath, and praying to have extended to him the benefit of the Insolvent Laws of Maryland, and it appearing to me by competent testimony, that the said Petitioner has resided within the State of Maryland for the last two years next before his application and still is a resident of said State, I have appointed Philip C. BOWEL & SUMMER COMPLAINT. No Cure no Pay.—Dr. Jayne will guarantee that his CARMINATIVE BALSAM will cure Diarrhea, colics, cramps, griping pains, cholera morbus, summer complaint, and other derangements of the stomach and bowels, in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, and in less than half the time it can be effected by any other means.

It is extremely pleasant, and children are fond of it. It is equally as effectual for adults as children, and when the directions are followed, and a cure is not effected, the money will be cheerfully returned. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

From the Rev. Charles C. P. Crosby.

Messrs. A. B. & D. Sands—I am glad to inform you that the medicine sold by you for bowel and summer complaints has proved singularly efficacious in my family. My wife has for years been extremely liable to a most distressing dysentery in hot weather; but by the use of Jayne's Carminative Balsam for two seasons the attack has been obviated in the course of two or three hours. I have known children, when attacked by a violent Diarrhœa, cured immediately by this medicine. I consider Dr. Jayne's medicine prepared with great skill, and highly beneficial to our infirm human nature. Yours respectfully,

C. C. P. CROSBY.

New York, Sept., 1837.

Dr. D. Jayne—Dear Sir—Having used in my family, for eight years, your Carminative Balsam, I deem it due to yourself and the public to state that I have uniformly found it efficient in relieving and removing the complaints for which it is intended. I am strongly opposed to all quackery, but touching the above medicine, "I have testified that which I do know," and that which I have experienced.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN C. HARRISON,
Pastor of Baptist Church, Bordentown, N. J.

Dr. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT always cures Asthma,—two or three large doses will cure the Croup or Hives of children in from 15 minutes to one hour's time. It immediately subdues the violence of whooping cough, and effects a speedy cure. Hundreds who have been given up by their physicians as incurable with Consumption, spitting of blood, and other pulmonary affections, have been restored to perfect health by it. It never fails in giving relief.

(From the Spirit of the Times.)

A FACT WORTH KNOWING.—A gentleman of Scrofulous habits, from indiscretion in his younger days, became affected with ulcerations of the throat and nose, and a disagreeable and troublesome eruption of the skin. Indeed, his whole system bore the marks of being saturated with disease. One hand and wrist were so much affected that he had lost the use of the hand, every part being covered with deep, painful and offensive ulcers, and were as hollow and porous as a honey-comb. It was at this stage of his complaint, when death appeared inevitable from a loathsome disease, that he commenced the use of Jayne's Alterative, and having taken sixteen bottles, is now perfectly cured.

This Alterative operates through the circulation, and purifies the blood and eradicates diseases from the system, wherever located, and the numerous cures it has performed in diseases of the Skin, Cancer, Scrofula, Goitre, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, and other Chronic diseases, is truly astonishing.

FEVER AND AGUE—Cure Warranted.—Jayne's Ague Pills, which may be had at No. 8 South Third street, Philadelphia, are warranted to cure the worst forms of Fever and Ague. The money will be refunded in all cases if they fail to cure—but they never do fail.

Facts are Stubborn Things!

MARTIN'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY

IS the best remedy now in use in Coughs, Colds, Asthma and Consumption, in its early stages, ever offered to the public. Read the following—

No. 25 Pleasant street, Baltimore,
January 20th, 1847.

Dr. Martin: Dear Sir:—On the 6th of Feb. 1846, I was first taken with a hæmorrhage from my Lungs, and was confined to the house in consequence of it and other pulmonary symptoms for nearly four months. I became so exceedingly weak and debilitated by it and the cough and repeated spittings of blood and matter which ensued, that I was entirely prostrated. I however recruited a little and went into the country for two months, but returned without the least benefit, and on my return to the city I had another attack from hæmorrhage. My cough now becomes so exceedingly harrassing—particularly at night. I thought I should sink under it. My feet, ankles, hand and wrists swelled much, and I nearly lost the use of them. Every morning they were rubbed for near one hour before I could use them, and when I got out of bed I had to be assisted. My expectoration was very profuse and was mixed with clotted blood I suffered much from pain in my breast and shoulders, and at times my whole frame appeared disordered. I was attended by two excellent physicians in the city who cease to visit me, and I supposed, thought my case beyond the healing art. In fact I was so reduced I never expected to be well again, and many persons both in and out of the city can certify that my case appeared hopeless.

I had used for a long time various pulmonary preparations up to November, but all to no purpose, and hope seemed to have fled. In the latter part of that month you came to see me. After talking with me some time you proposed to me to try your Syrup of Wild Cherry. I did so and after using it some weeks I began to recover, and now (thank God) I think my disease is removed. My cough has left me, my breast is easy, and I sleep soundly and comfortably and my health and strength daily improves, but as the weather is so unsettled I feel reluctant in turning out. By way of exercise I daily at your request take a turn at wood sawing.

In making my case known I am prompted by no other motive than feelings of benevolence, and for the benefit of others who may be similarly afflicted. Very respectfully,

THOMAS J. HENRIX.

MARTIN AND WHITELEY'S

NATIONAL TONIC,

A certain cure for Ague and Fever, and Dyspepsia. We publish the certificate of a worthy man who is well known in Queen Anns County, and who was speedily relieved by it—

BEVER DAMS, QUEEN ANNE'S Co.
October 3d, 1847.

Dr. George. T. Martin. Respected Sir:—In justice to you and to the Public, and to discharge a high and responsible obligation resting upon me, I take this method of making known to the public the remarkable cure your National Tonic has wrought in my particular case. I had been laboring under an intermitting fever for 15 months; I had tried different eminet Physicians but without success; 'tis true the quinine would stop the chills a day or two, but they would return with double violence until I became weak and emaciated, my stomach swollen and hard, my spirits broken, and had but little hope again becoming a sound man; last winter I accidentally saw this invaluable TONIC and commenced taking it, and before I used HALF a bottle my chills left me, my appetite gradually returned, and my spirits also, and by the time I had finished the one bottle I was, as it were, a new man. Nearly a year has elapsed and I have not had a single chill. Your Pills are the most popular pills among us. Yours with respect,

JOHN NELSON.

Martin's Universal Purgative Pills.

In offering these Pills to the public we know there cannot be found a better, or more safe, easy or agreeable remedy, in all cases were a Purgative is needed. They speedily remove all irritating matters retained in the bowels, or when the habitual alvim discharges are too tardy or insufficient for health, by their specific virtues they restore the secretions to a healthy action, and the blood to its natural purity.

Extract from W. L. Jones' letter—

I have been using Dr. Martin's Universal Purgative Pills for the last four years, both personally and in my family, and with great confidence recommend them as a certain and safe purgative, and for the billious fever I have never known them to fail; in a word I have had much sickness and use nothing else.

Respectfully yours, W. L. JONES,
Surgeon Dentist, Caroline Co., Md.
