POETRY.

TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW.

BY J. E. CARPENTER.

Don't tell me of to-morrow,
Give me the man who'll say,
That, when a good deed's to be done,
Let's do the deed to-day:
We may all command the present
If we act, and never wait;—
But repentance is the phantom
Of a past, that comes too late!

Don't tell me of to-morrow,
There is much to do to-day,
That can never be accomplished,
If we throw the hours away;
Every moment has its duty—
Who the future can foretell?
Then why put off till to morrow,
What to-day can do as well!

Don't tell me of to-morrow;
If we look upon the past,
How much that we have left to do,
We cannot do at last.
To-day—it is the only time
For all on this frail earth;
It takes an age to form a life,
A moment gives it birth!

"A LIFE ON THE OCEAN WAVE."

BY LEWIS CASS,

Author of the Life and Times of Louis Philippe, King of the French, respectfully dedicated to the American People.

"A life on the ocean wave,"
A wreck on the "Inland Sea!"
Where the fresh water billows rave,
Oh! the Snag and the Sawyer for me!
Like a Lion I crouch for my prey—
Nor heed the wild hurricane's roar;
Oh, the VETO, the VETO for me,
For it whispers of vessels on shore!

The wild thunder mocks from afar—
Ah! the mariner's out of my reach!
But no! she strikes on the BAR!
Oh, soon she will dash on the beach,
A prey to the piping blast;—
A wreck on the sandy shore,
The "VETO" has triumphed at last,
Its praise is the hurricane's roar!

The land is now bounding the view,
We are borne on the swift running tide,
But hark! from that vessel and crew,
What means the wild cry as they ride?
'Tis a sawyer is piercing her through,
A snag is upripping her deck!
Oh, the Veto, the VETO for me!—
For our noble steamer's a wreck!

Oh! Praise then the Veto of "Polk!"
Let "Cass" be our rallying cry—
Let the song of our hearts then go up—
While his six line letter goes by!
For there's "life on the ocean wave,"
While there's death on our "Inland Sea:"
"No power" is given to save—
Oh! Cass and the VETO for me!

A SHOOTING ANECDOTE.—It is rather dangerous going out on a shooting excursion with a green 'un, who has never had any practice in the collineomaniac art—as the following amusing anecdote, from the memoirs of Sir Thomas F. Buxton, will testify:—

Once, when staying with Mr. Coke, at Holkam, a well known professor was also one of the visitors. The venerable historian had never had a gun in his hand, but on this occasion Mr. Coke persuaded him to accompany the shooting party; care, however, was taken to place him at the corner of the covert, where it was thought the other sportsmen would be out of his reach. When the rest of the party came up to the spot where he was standing, Mr. Coke said to him—

"Well, what sport? You have been firing often!"

"Hush," said the professor, "there it goes again," and he was just raising his gun, when a man walked very quietly from the bushes about seventy yards in front of him. It was one of the beaters who had been sent to stop the pheasants, and his leather gaiters dimly seen through the bushes had been mistaken for a hare by the professor, who much surprised by its tenacity of life, had been firing at it whenever he saw it move. 'But,' said Mr. Buxton, 'the man had never discovered that the professor was shooting at him."

FREDERICK THE GREAT AND THE CORPORAL.—A corporal of the life guards of Frederick the Great, who had a great deal of vanity, but at the same time was a brave fellow, wore a watch chain, to which he affixed a musket bullet, instead of a watch, which he was unable to buy. The King being inclined one day to rally him, said, 'Apropos, corporal, you must have been very frugal to buy a watch; it is six o'clock by mine; tell me what it is by yours.' The soldier, who guessed the king's intention, instantly drew the bullet from his fob, and said, 'Sire, my watch neither marks five nor six o'clock; but it tells me every moment that it is my duty to die for your majesty.' 'Here my friend,' said the king, quite affected, take the watch, that you may be able to tell the hour also.' And gave him his watch, which was adorned with brilliants.

Henry the IV., of France, one day reached Amens, after a long journey. A local orator was deputed to harangue him, and commenced with a very long string of epithets: "Very great sovereign, very good, very magnanimous—" "And also," interrupted the king, "very tired."

The mother of a hopeful young man in New Orleans told her son, "that if he didn't stop drinking he'd wear the coat of his stomach out." "Then, old woman," replied the youth, "let it work in its shirt sleeves"

Sheridan made his appearance one day in a pair of new boots; these attracting the notice of some of his friends, 'Now guess," said he, "how I came by these boots."—Many probable guesses took place. "No," said Sheridan, "no, you've not hit it nor never will. I bought and paid for them."

☞ A Paris journal, which stated that a prisoner under sentence of death had attempted suicide, first by poison and then by knife, added, "medical assistance being promptly administered, he is now out of danger, and will to morrow undergo the sentence of the law."

BOWEL & SUMMER COMPLAINT. No Cure no Pay.—Dr. Jayne will guarantee that his CARMINATIVE BALSAM will cure Diarrhœa, colics, cramps, griping pains, cholera morbus, summer complaint, and other derangements of the stomach and bowels, in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, and in less than half the time it can be effected by any other means.

It is extremely pleasant, and children are fond of it. It is equally as effectual for adults as children, and when the directions are followed, and a cure is not effected, the money will be cheerfully returned. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle.

From the Rev. Charles C. P. Crosby.

Messrs. A. B. & D. Sands—I am glad to inform you that the medicine sold by you for bowel and summer complaints has proved singularly efficacious in my family. My wife has for years been extremely liable to a most distressing dysentery in hot weather; but by the use of Jayne's Carminative Balsam for two seasons the attack has been obviated in the course of two or three hours. I have known children, when attacked by a violent Diarrhœa, cured immediately by this medicine. I consider Dr. Jayne's medicine prepared with great skill, and highly beneficial to our infirm human nature. Yours respectfully,

C. C. P. CROSBY.

New York, Sept., 1837.

Dr. D. Jayne—Dear Sir—Having used in my family, for eight years, your Carminative Balsam, I deem it due to yourself and the public to state that I have uniformly found it efficient in relieving and removing the complaints for which it is intended. I am strongly opposed to all quackery, but touching the above medicine, "I have testified that which I do know," and that which I have experienced.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN C. HARRISON,
Pastor of Baptist Church, Bordentown, N. J.

LOSS OF HAIR AND BALDNESS.—Its remedy.—Hear what Dr. Quigley says:

SHEPHERD'S-TOWN, Va, Oct. 10, 1843.

Dear Sir—You inquire of me whether I have used your Hair Tonic, and the effects.

Several years ago my hair began to fall rapidly from the scalp, and I had the prospect of premature baldness. During several years I used various preparations recommended for the hair, from which I derived no benefit.—At length a friend recommended your Hair Tonic. I used three or four bottles according to the printed directions, and at the end of six months my hair was thick set, and since its tendency to turn grey was arrested.

I have never before given a certificate recommending patent medicines, which indiscriminately used, as they often are, do much injury, but in a case like the present where I know the article to be beneficial, and that it can do harm; I have no scruples in stating facts within my own knowledge.

Yours, &c. JOHN QUIGLEY, M. D.
To DR. D. JAYNE, Philadelphia.

CHILDREN DIE OF WORMS—Aye, and grown up people too. Dr. Jayne's Vermifuge has never been known to fail to cure in the worst stages.

Symptoms of Worms.—These are headache, vertigo, paleness of the lips, with flushed cheeks, grinding the teeth during sleep, disturbed dreams, sleep broken off by fright and screaming, convulsions, feverishness, thirst bad taste in the mouth, offensive breath, cough, difficult breathing, itching of the nostrils, pain in the stomach, nausea, squeamishness, voracious appetite, leanness, tenesmus, slight chills or shivering, drowsiness, fatigue, swelled stomach or limbs, rising and choking in the throat, turbid urine, frequent desire to evacuate the bowels, discharge of slime and mucus, &c.

For nervousness, sick headache, palpitation of the heart, &c., it gives immediate relief. It also neutralizes acidity of stomach, creates an appetite, strengthens the whole system, and cures the PILES.

Prepared only by Dr. D. Jayne, Philadelphia, and sold on agency by Facts are Stubborn Things!

MARTIN'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF

WILD CHERRY

IS the best remedy now in use in Coughs, Colds, Asthma and Consumption, in its early stages, ever offered to the public. Read the following—

No. 25 Pleasant street, Baltimore, January 26th, 1847.

Dr. Martin: Dear Sir:—On the 6th of Feb. 1846, I was first taken with a hæmorrhage from my Lungs, and was confined to the house in consequence of it and other pulmonary symptoms for nearly four months. I became so exceedingly weak and debilitated by it and the cough and repeated spittings of blood and matter which ensued, that I was entirely prostrated. I however recruited a little and went into the country for two months, but returned without the least benefit, and on my return to the city I had another attack from hæmorrhage. My cough now became so exceedingly harrassing—particularly at night. I thought I should sink under it. My feet, ankles, hand and wrist swelled much, and I nearly lost the use of them. Every morning they were rubbed for near one hour before I could use them, and when I got out of bed I had to be assisted. My expectoration was very profuse and was mixed, with clotted blood I suffered much from pain in my breast and shoulders, and at times my whole frame appeared disordered. I was attended by two excellent physicians in the city who cease to visit me, and I supposed, thought my case beyond the healing art. In fact I was so reduced I never expected to be well again, and many persons both in and out of the city can certify that my case appeared hopeless.

I had used for a long time various pulmonary preparations up to November, but all to no purpose, and hope seemed to have fled. In the latter part of that month you came to see me. After talking with me some time you proposed to me to try your Syrup of Wild Cherry. I did so and after using it some weeks I began to recover, and now (thank God) I think my disease is removed. My cough has left me, my breast is easy, and I sleep soundly and comfortably and my health and strength daily improves, but as the weather is so unsettled I feel reluctant in turning out. By way of exercise I daily at your request take a turn at wood sawing.

In making my case known I am prompted by no other motive than feelings of benevolence, and for the benefit of others who may be similarly afflicted. Very respectfully,

THOMAS J. HENRIX.

NATIONAL TONIC,

A certain cure for Ague and Fever, and Dyspepsia. We publish the certificate of a worthy man who is well known in Queen Anns County, and who was speedily relieved by it—

BEVER DAMS, QUEEN ANNE'S Co.
October 30, 1847.

Dr. George. T. Martin, Respected Sir:—In justice to you and to the Public, and to discharge a high and responsible obligation resting upon me, I take this method of making known to the public the remarkable cure your National Tonic has wrought in my particular case. I had been laboring under an intermitting fever for 15 months; I had tried different eminet Physicians but without success; 'tis true the quinine would stop the chills a day or two, but they would return with double violence until I became weak and emaciated, my stomach swollen and hard, my spirits broken, and had but little hope again becoming a sound man; last winter I accidentally saw this invaluable TONIC and commenced taking it, and before I used HALF a bottle my chills left me, my appetite gradually returned, and my spirits also, and by the time I had finished the one bottle I was, as it were, a new man. Nearly a year has elapsed and I have not had a single chill. Your Pills are the most popular pills amongst us. Yours with respect,

JOHN NELSON.

Martin's Universal Purgative Pills.

In offering these Pills to the public we know there cannot be found a better, or more safe, easy or agreeable remedy, in all cases were a Purgative is needed. They speedily remove all irritating matters retained in the bowels, or when the habitual alvine discharges are too tardy or insufficient for health, by their specific virtues they restore the secretions to a healthy action, and the blood to its natural purity.

Extract from W. L. Jones' letter—

I have been using Dr. Martin's Universal Purgative Pills for the last four years, both personally and in my family, and with great confidence recommend them as a certain and safe purgative, and for the billious fever I have never known them to fail: in a word I have had much sickness and use nothing else.

Respectfully yours, W. L. JONES,
