OUTRAGE ON A BALTIMOREAN.—The New York Sun has a letter from Cuba, dated August 4th, containing some statements in regard to outrages by the authorities of Cuba upon the persons and property of Americans, which, if true, call for the notice of the American government. The following is a portion of the letter:

"Those who continue to assert that American ships are not invaded and searched, and that American correspondence is not constantly seized and destroyed, must be deplorably ignorant or corruptly blind. There are families here whose letters to and from their children in the United States have been intercepted for months together, and the letters that are permitted, after due scrutiny, to pass the post-office, are received with fear and trembling, for an indiscreet word in favor of Republican institutions, as those of the United States, might subject—and in some cases have subjected—the innocent recepts to great difficulty. I knew of an American from Baltimore, who was a long time in prison at Matanzas only for having received such a letter."

MAINE ELECTION. In 314 towns the vote for Governor stands, Whig 27,475 Democrat 32,924; Free Soil 10,203. The Legislature stands, 57 Whig, 69 Democrat, 10 Free Soil, 1 Taylor Democrat, 14 not yet heard from.

A NEW COUNTERFEIT. A new counterfeit note has made its appearance in Philadelphia. The note is of the denomination of five dollars, on the Mechanics Bank of Newark, letter A, and dated May 10, 1846. The paper is course and thick, and the signatures are badly executed. The space between the letters W and A in Newark, is unusually large.

DISMISSED. The four midshipmen who were concerned in a duel, at Annapolis, a few months since, have been dismissed the service. The names of these gentlemen were, Byrd W. Stevens, Francis G. Dallas, Walter Queen, and John Gale!

THE DESERTERS IN MEXICO.—We learn from the Picayune, that Reilly, the deserter, is still in prison in Mexico. It is reported that several of his comrades have made application to the British Minister in Mexico, to send them home to Ireland, and that he has promised to do so. Lt. Tilden had been escorted from the capitol to Vera Cruz, and there shipped out of the country.

DEATH OF JUDGE SAUNDERS.—Judge Lafayette Saunders of Louisiana, died recently at the Red Sulphur Springs in Virginia. He was a delegate to the recent Whig National Convention, and read the exposition of the political views and sentiments of Gen. Taylor, which have been the subject of so much subsequent comment. He was a man of abilities, and carried with him the universal respect of all parties.

FIRE.—We regret to learn says the Centreville Times, that a dwelling house on West River, belonging to Capt. Lemuel G. Taylor, took fire a short time since and was entirely consumed. Loss $2,000, no insurance.

DEATH OF A MURDERER FROM STARVATION. John Slaight, the man who shot his wife in the neck, on the 14th inst., causing her death, died in the N. Y. City prison on Sunday afternoon

He was brought to the city on Monday previous, and steadily refused to receive either food or medicine—all which he took being forced down him. His constitution was much impaired by habits of intoxication and he was suffering from disease when brought to the prison, where his refusal to take medicine or nourishment caused his death.

A MONSTER BATTLE-SHIP. The ship of the line Vermont, which was launched last week at Boston, is pierced for 120 guns, but will carry only 84. She is nearly as large as the great ship Pennsylvania, and like her she lay idle and unfinished on the stocks until the timbers were nearly rotted before she was launched.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR. The Montgomery County Agricultural Fair, held at Rockville, on Thursday and Friday last, fully met the most sanguine expectations of its friends. The concourse of people was very large, and the stock, implements, and other articles exhibited, were most perfect and beautiful. Richard J. Bowie, Esq., delivered the address.

RECEPTION OF GEN. SMITH.—Gen Persifer F. Smith had a brilliant reception from the authorities and citizens of Philadelphia on Monday. Gen. Smith is a native of Philadelphia, but left that city 28 years ago and took up his residence in the South, since which he has been engaged in the Florida and Mexican wars, in both of which he won the highest honors.

FUGITIVE SLAVE.—We learn from the Gettysburg Star that considerable stir was occasioned in that place on the 9th, among the colored people, in consequence of the capture of a fugutive slave, belonging to a Mr. Thomas, of Frederick county, Md.

SHOCKING.—On Shunk river, Jasper county, Iowa, old Hamlin and his two sons murdered Nicely, a boarder in their family, and burnt his body to ashes in the night. Their object was $100 which Nicely possessed. The ruffians were arrested and one of the sons has turned state's evidence.

SAD AFFAIR.—An Irish boy in Concord N. H. killed a boy named Charles West for calling him a Paddy. The fatal blow was inflicted on the head of young West.

A PRINCIPLE. "I hold," said a Western editor, with dignified emphasis, I hold it as a self evident principle, that no man should take a newspaper three consecutive years without making at least an apology to the editor for not paying for it.

THE WHIG MEETING AT FORT HARRISON.

The following, communicated by a letter addressed to the Indiana State Journal, is the first account we have seen of the great Whig gathering which was held at Fort Harrison Indiana, on the 5th instant: —Nat. Intelligencer.

TERRE HAUTE, September 5, 1848.

The Convention of the people to day has been a glorious affair—the harbinger of success in November.

Not less than twenty five thousand were in council—some say more; but there were enough to show that the spirit of the State is aroused, and that the gallant Soldier of the Rio Grande will be nobly sustained by the Whig Democracy of Indiana.

Never did I witness a better feeling on all hands—one more certainly indicating a union of all right minded men to rescue the Administration of the Government from the imbecile men who now control it.

Thompson, Lane, and Gov. Letcher (of Kentucky) covered themselves with new renown, as able defenders of the right of free Representative Government.

Linder (of Illinois) and Lane spoke last night at the Court-House, and acquitted themselves most creditably. To-night Nelson, O'Neill, Suit, Orth, &c. will speak in Terre Haute, and a half a dozen at the Fort, where some two thousand yet linger till the morning's sun shall light them on their homeward way, rejoicing.

Gov. Letcher was President of the Day—a fit compliment to Old Kentucky whose gallant sons were the earliest defenders of Indiana's infancy.

MR. STEVENS, OF GEORGIA The whigs of Georgia held a great mass meeting at Atlanta Last week, and among those present was Mr. Stephens, who was recently wounded in a recountre with Judge Cone The correspondent of the Augusta Constitutionalist, a democratic paper, says:

It is impossible to give an adequate description of the enthusiasm that pervaded that assembly when Stephens, being loudly and repeatedly called for, rose up before them. A palor even greater than usual, seemed to rest on the sunken cheek of that remarkable man, remarkable in being the idol, before which his party falls down in almost adoration. Vast is the influence that he wields, and fearful the responsibility which rests upon his shoulders. Never have I seen such wild excitement pervade a multitude, as when his almost feminine voice was heard. Wherever a banner with his name was met, all others were forgotten, and the welkin rung with repeated shouts of Stephens! Stephens!! The chieftain of his party seemed to regard him as the soul of the meeting.

Mr Stephens made no speech, being too weak I presume. He told an anecdote, made the application and set down, cautioning the meeting to remember to vote for old "Zack."

In consequence of rumors set afloat in Virginia that U. S. Senator Mangum of N. Carolina, and Berrien of Georgia, had gone home from Washington with the determination of supporting the Locofoco candidates for the Presidency & Vice Presidency, letters were addressed to them on the subject by the Hon. J. S. PENDLETON, of Virginia.—Mr. Mangum's reply runs thus:

I thank you for your prompt and confident denial of the truth of the rumor, and I am very sure you knew me too well to have felt that you hazarded anything in nailing the false and base comage to the counter.

In truth my dear sir, I cannot conceive of any conjunction of circumstances, however monstrous, that could have induced me to lend my support—insignificant as it is—to the elevation of Gen. Cass to the Presidency. I am in favor of Gen. Taylor not only with zeal, but with undoubting confidence.

And, mark me! Notwithstanding the apparent reverse in North Carolina, (which we in that State perfectly understand,) she will cast a heavier majority in November for the Whig ticket than she has done since 1832—possibly with the exception of that for General Harrison in 1840.

I shall be obliged to you to denounce the rumor referred to in the manner you think most suitable, whenever you meet it, if you shall deem it of sufficient consequence to spend upon it so much breath.

Mr. Berrien's reply is as follows:

The report which you mention is so entirely and absolutely unfounded and ridiculous that if it had been communicated to me by one in whom I had less confidence than you may justly claim from me, I would hardly have deemed it necessary to contradict it. As it is, I have to say that while, before the nomination of Gen. Taylor, my opinion of what the Whig party owed to itself, and to the distinguished citizen who had heretofore borne our banner was freely expressed, I did not hesitate to acquiesce in that nomination. I wrote immediately to the editors of Whig papers in Georgia, who had theretofore advocated the claims of Mr. Clay, to urge a cordial support of Gen. Taylor, and as well verbally as in my correspondence avowed my own determination to do so.

On my arrival at this place a few days since I found invitations to attend Taylor meetings, which I have accepted, and expect to address a very large mass meeting at Atlanta, in this State, on the 14th inst.

I add, in conclusion, that while I cannot suppose my opinions will be of any importance to my fellow-citizens of Virginia I feel that I have a right to correct a misrepresentation such as that to which you have called attention, and therefore authorise you to say that my best exertions will be employed in promoting Gen. Taylor's election to the Presidency.

The Baton Rouge Gazette.—It was announced some time since that this paper, which supported Taylor, was advertised to be sold, and it was proclaimed as a "sign of the times." The Nashville Banner gives the reason why. The former editor died, and it had to be sold to settle his estate. It is now published and edited by John R. Dufoeq, Esq., and is ably battling for General Taylor.

IMPORTANT POLITICAL MOVEMENT IN N. YORK.—We learn by a despatch in the Patriot, that the friends of Henry Clay in the city of New York—those who were prominent in endeavoring to bring his name before the people as a candidate for President, have called a meeting, to take place on Friday night next, the object of which is to defer to his wishes, as expressed in his letter to Mr. Brooks, of the Express, in regard to the Presidency. Thus it will be seen, that the premature and ill-advised movement, discountenanced promtly by Mr. Clay himself, is to be abandoned.—Clipper of Wednesday.

BARBECUE IN PRINCE GEORGE'S.—We learn from a correspondent at Piscataway, that the whigs of Prince George's county had a large barbacue at that place on the 14th inst., and that the crowd present was addressed by J. M. S. Causin, Z. Collins Lee, and Coleman Yellott, Esqrs., and Mr. Martin and Gen. Chapman. Their addresses were received with considerable enthusiasm.

George M Dallas, Vice President of the United States, so far forgot the dignity of his station and the duties which belong to it, as to preside, on Wednesday evening over a locofoco mass meeting in Philadelphia, and to make a partizan speech, in which, to make matters infinitely worse, he deliberately departed from the truth.—N. Y. Courier.

HON J. W. GRAVES. The Louisville Courier of the 11th inst. says that the Hon. John W. Graves, who has been confined to a bed of sickness and pain for the last two or three months, is now laying in an extremely critical situation, his friends having the strongest reasons to apprehend that his disease will in a short time terminate fatally.

Another Pillar Gone!—The New Albany (Ind) Bulletin learns that the venerable Samuel G. Wilson Esq., of that city, one of the pillars of Democracy of the county, has recently expressed himself dissatisfied with the Cass party, and has announced his intention to support Gen. Taylor for the Presidency.

HENRY CLAY FOR GEN. TAYLOR.—The Poughkeepsie (N. Y.) American says: "A recent letter from Henry Clay, dated and post-marked at Ashland, is in possession of a gentleman of this village. In this letter Mr. Clay says that he yields a cheerful submission to the action of the Philadelphia convention. We have seen the document."

LATER FROM MATAMORAS. We have the American Flag of the 2d inst., and glean from it the following news: A new paper devoted to Communism, and to be published in the Spanish language, is to be established at Matamoras. Two hundred Mexican troops had arrived at Miler, and were to garrison the town.

Mr. Winchester, an American trader, supposed to have been murdered near Linares has arrived safe at Matamoras. His partner Mr. Charles Carroll, was the person murdered when it was supposed Mr. Winfield was killed. Mr. Carroll was first robbed by seven Mexicans, and then murdered.—Four hundred dollars were recovered from the robbers. The Alcalde of Linares had possession of the effects of Mr. Carroll, and refused to give them up.

VISIT OF GEN. TAYLOR. On the 11th inst. Gen. Taylor was to have paid a visit to Pass Christian, Miss., and, from all accounts his reception must have been magnificent. The New Orleans Picayune of the 10th inst., says:

We learn that upon the approach of the General, an illumination will take place such as has never before been witnesed in this part of the country. The hotels and private dwellings will be thoroughly lit up; and the beautiful beach, for a distance of several miles above and below the Montgomery House, will blaize with bon-fires.

A large concourse of persons from the neighboring country will be in attendance. The people of the surrounding country have volunteered their aid in making the reception imposing. The occasion will attract a goodly company from Mobile and this city.

MAIDEN VOTE OF A GRANDFATHER.—Geo. Washington Park Custis, the venerable stepson of General Washington, delivered an address near Mount Vernon, recently, during which he took occasion to state that although possessing the necessary freehold qualification in Virginia to entitle him to vote in several counties, from the fact of his residence having always, heretofore, been in the District of Columbia, he had had no privilege of giving a vote. The late retrocession of Alexandria to Virginia, however, has changed the circumstances; "and now," said he, "that that inestimable privilege, the right of suffrage, has come within my reach, and I am about to avail myself of it, you will see an old grandfather cast his maiden vote!" He added his intention of voting for Gen Taylor. Mr. Custis must be about 80 years of age.

VESSELS OVER THE FALLS.—It is announced in the Niagara Falls Iris, by Mr. W. Conklin, that he will send two vessels over the Falls on the 29th of Sept.

At 12 o'clock, M. the Pirate a vessel of 100 feet in length, with several wild and tame animals on board as passengers, with appropriate flags and streamers, will be started from her moorings two miles above the Falls. It is intended to have this craft so well secured, hatches down and all tight, that she will make the awful leap entire, with spars and rigging all standing.

At 8 o'clock in the evening of the same day, a fire ship loaded with all manner of combustibles, will be ready to slip her cables, showing a ship on fire, until after two miles through the rapids, she will make the fearful plunge in a blaze, forming one of the greatest scenes ever beheld at Niagara Falls.

GEN. TAYLOR'S RECENT LETTER.—Its Effect in New York. The recent letter of General Taylor, together with the explicit avowal of Mr. Clay that he will not consent to the use of his name for the Presidency, is destined to exert a great influence on the result of the ensuing Presidential election. Already, David Graham, Esq., one of the leading Clay men of New York, and also one of the committee of nine, appointed to get up a Clay electoral ticket, has declined acting with his Clay friends any longer, upon the grounds that Gen. Taylor's last letter was satisfactory, and that he felt in duty bound to support him for the Presidency.

The Albany Evening journal thus expresses itself in regard to the recent Clay movement in the city of New York:

"Some professed friends of Mr. Clay in the city of New York, are endeavoring to rend the Whig party. To accomplish this object the name of Henry Clay, on the eve of the Presidential election has been thrust into the canvass; and, as it would seem, to render the object palpable while professing friendship for Mr. Fillmore, they design, so far as their power extends, to deprive him of the electoral vote of this State!

"Had these men revolted immediately after the nomination of Gen. Taylor, they might have claimed that they hoped to elect Mr. Clay. This would have gone far to excuse, if not to justify their conduct.—But now they set up no such pretence.—They simpl[illegible]am to defeat Taylor and Fillmore. They use the name of Henry Clay to secure the election of Lewis Cass.

"Those who use the name of Clay and Fillmore to effect purposes so unworthy of the former, and so treacherous to the latter will find little sympathy or favor among the Whig masses. Instead of disturbing and weakening us, it will unite and invigorate our friends. There will be occasional but feeble responses to this malign demonstration; and the only effect of the movement will be, to show the impotence of those with whom it origmated."

The Clay Party in New York.—The N. Y. Express says that the Whig party in that city are becoming perfectly united in favor of that whole whig ticket. This has been caused by Mr. Clay's letter, in connection with Gen Taylor's last Allison letter.

NEVER DESPAIR.

Philadelphia, July 26, 1846.

TO THE PUBLIC.—I certify that before my remembrance I became afflicted with what the Physicians called scrofula. It made its first appearance by pain and swelling of the joints—more especially of my ankles, knees, wrists and elbows, after which the glands of my throat and neck became inflamed and swelled, attended with most exeruciating pains. I was often confined entirely to my bed, and for week together could not move my neck or turn my head. Several physicians attended me at different times—but they did not appear to do me any good.

About a year ago I was attacked with vomiting, which continued every few minutes all one night. The next day an eruption appeared on the sides of my neck, which soon spread all over my neck, head and face, with inflamation of my eyes and eyelids, which destroyed my eye-lashes, and caused the hair to fall from off my head, and soon the disease spread all over me; my limbs were one entire scab.—I could not qend my hands or arms without causing the skin to crack open, when the blood would run out. Some of my finger-nails came off. In short, I was unable to get my own living, and in this condition I called upon Dr. Jayne, in order that he might undertake my case. He directed me to take his Alterative 3 times a day, and his Sanative Pills as often as I should find it necessary. I have now taken his Alterative four months, and am most happy to say that it has entirely cured me.
