2nd Was or not the said Osborne's house a House of ill fame generally reported to be so and much frequently as such.

4. You say in your examination in chief that on some occasion you heard the defendant urge the said Osborne to make over her property or some of her property to him, say in what year and in what month or season of the year did this take place?

5th You say on your said examination that defendant urged the said Osborne to convey her property to him as the only way of saving it. Did you intend to say that the deed referred to by you was for the purpose of saving and protecting the property of said Osborne from her creditors.

6th You say in your said examination that at the solicitation of said Osborne you waited on her creditors to solicit indulgence from them, name the creditors to whom you applied and say especially, whether you on that occasion applied to the complainants. McDowell & Gable. & Needles.

7th Were or not said creditors aware of the manner of life of said Osborne, and did you agree to indulge her in the expectation of receiving their claims out of the profits of her business. State generally what passed between you and the creditors on the subject of your application for indulgence.

8th Are you acquainted with the complainants McDowell Gable and Needles or any and which of them? Were said complainants or either of which of them in the habit of visiting the said Eliz. Osborne: and have you at any time seen them or either of them there.

9th Were or not the Clerks in the employ of said complainants or some of them in the habit of visiting the said Osborne; and did they or not frequently come with messages from their Employers to the said Osborne.

10th In your examination in chief you say. that you first went to board with the said Osborne in the year 1840. and from the first year afterwards you kept her accounts, Be pleased to say whether it was in the year 1841 or 1842 that you first began to keep her accounts, and at what season of the year you so began.

11th Did the said Osborne keep regular books? and what has become of said Books?

12th At what time was it that the loan of one thousand Dollars — spoken of in your answer to the 16th Interrogatory in chief was made say in what year? and in what month or season of the year? where it was paid down? and whether you were present on the occasion?

13th You say that after said loan of $1,000. no other large loan was effected for about two years, and that of those two years you were absent nine months. Now inform us what time you went away and what time you returned?

14th You say in your said examination that the next large loan was for $3000. now informs us in what year said sum was loaned? and in what month or season of the year? When the money was paid? and whether you were present on the occasion?

15th You speak in your examination in chief of a building erected by the said Osborne when did she commence? and when did she finish said building?

16th In what year and in what month or season of the year did the defendant loan to the said Osborne the sum of $10.000.? was the money paid in one sum? or in several sums? and when was said money paid? were you present on the occasion? and what other persons were there? How was the money paid? and how was it applied by the said Osborne?

17th: You say that at the time the said Osborne went to New York she had got of the defendant $7000. (You also say that the defendant was to have given the said Osborne a paper by which she might get back her property? Do you intend to say that the deed of the 16th February 1844 was made to secure the repayment of said sum of $7000. and that when said sum money was repaid by the said Osborne to defendant she was to have back her property?

18th In what year and in what month or season of the year did the said Osborne removed to New York?

19: You say that the said Osborne at the time of her going to New York had received of the defendant the sum of $7000. Are you very certain that that $7000. was the precise sum? and why are you so certain? was any statement made of the account at the time? if yea, where is it?

20th You say that just before the said Osborne removed to New York the defendant brought in the old notes which he held of the said Osborne and that new notes were given to him what has become of those old notes? Where were they when you saw them last? describe them.

21st You say that the sum of $10,000 was borrowed on the pledge of the House nearest to Bath Street, on a credit of five years, was a deed or mortgage given of that house at the time? was a note or Bond given for repayment of that sum? If yea, what has become of said note or Bond? Where was it when you last saw it? Was it or not one of the notes returned at the time of the settlement prior to the removal of the said Osborne to New York?

22d Did or not the said Osborne remain in possession of the Houses in question until her removal to New York? who got into possession after she was so removed?

23d You say that the sum of $10.000 borrowed at one time by the said Osborne of the defendant was nearly all paid back. How do you know this? were you present when such payments were made? when was the payment made? and where? State particularly all you know about it.

24th You say that on every loan the defendant was to have an interest or profit of Ten per cent without reference to the time of the loan? Was he to have the ten per cent on the $10.000 before mentioned.

25th You say in your said examination that Goldsmith was to give the said Osborne a paper to make her safe and to enable her to get back her property. Did he agree to do so at the time the deed of the 16th of February 1844 was executed? Were you present when such agreement was made? when was it made? who was there present? why was it not reduced to writing and executed, when the deed was drawn up and executed.

26th You say in your examination in chief that on one occasion