TAYLOR SONG.

AIR—With a helmet on his brow.

With a laurel on his brow, my boys,
And Fillmore by his side,
Old Zack Taylor will show you how
To Washington he'll ride
To Washington he'll ride my boys,
Before him all will yield,
As fled the foe before him on
Red Buena Vista's field,

Then wave aloft the starry flag,
Above the chieftain's head,
It followed him o'er tower and crag,
And waved above the dead.
As it waved at Monterey,
Above his fallen foes,
Again, on next election day,
His triumph we'll disclose.

Sound, sound your watchword high my boy's,
And let its echoes play,
And cheer the million swelling hearts
With joy for that great day.
When Zack upon his old white horse,
To Washington shall ride,
So clear the track, old Zack is up,
And Fillmore by his side.

Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah, my boys,
The're off, away, away,
We'll see them all come back, my boys
On next election day:
On next election day, my boys,
The people's voice will tell,
The ballot boxes then will show
Who 'tis we love so well.

WESTWARD Ho!—The new aerial car, Chain Lightning, will leave the Battery, for Oregon, on Saturday morning at nine o'clock All her machinery will be on board at the hour advertised, and the electricity will be fresh from the manufactory of Highflyer & Co. The number of passengers will be limited to 300 A mail bag will be thrown out while passing over St. Louis, as our new instrument, invented by Professor Puffingass, will enable us to calculate the exact longitude while at the height of 10,000,000,000 feet. A parachute, capable of holding 50 persons, will be let down at the city of Fremont, near the south pass of the Rocky mountains. Passengers will dine on board the car, and arrive at Astoria at five in the afternoon. As the Chain Lightning runs in opposition to the daily monopoly of Skinflint & Co., the fare will be put at 37 1-2 cents—dinner extra. The Chain Lightning will return on Monday, when our new patent cylindric electrical loadstone will enable us to draw up the St. Louis mail while passing over that city. Passengers who think of going, will please be on board at six seconds before the time of starting, as not a moment's delay will be allowed. For passage apply to the Captain, or to Flint, Steel & Co., 24857 Broadway.

"WHAT DID HE SAY, LIDDY."—By a new Correspondent—Good old Mrs. Call was quite hard of hearing, being somewhat advanced in years. Her daughter Lydia was a bonnie lass, who loved a good time and knew well how to get it up Lydia had arranged a junket, and the young men and maids were all on hand; among the rest was the General, then one of 'em. In the midst of the fun in popped old deacon L. to see how the widow fared. This was a wet blanket upon the merriment, and the deacon he hung on, till Lydia was all out of patience. She kept wishing and wishing he would go, but still he sat chatting with the widow on things above and things below, but by and by he got up to depart.

"Oh Deacon, deacon!" said Mother Call "don't think of going before tea! Oh do stop to tea, wont you!"

The deacon so strongly urged replied, "Well, I rather think I will, as the folks will not expect me home before dark."

"What did he say, Liddy?" said the widow:

Lydia had a ready answer—"she says he will not to-day, as the folks expect him home before dark! why how deaf you grow mother."

"Oh, well come some other day Deacon, now do, wont you?" said Mother Call as she bowed the deacon out.

"Smart gal, that," said the Deacon as he trudged along home. "she'll find her way through, I'll warrant."—JAKE.

VERY GOOD.—The Southern Literary Messenger has the following:—"A Mr. Lee, member of the House of Delegates, wore a wig, with a long queue, in the old fashion. A waggish brother member (Roberts of Culpepper,) one day saw Lee wriggling in his seat, and trying to catch the Speaker's eye, that he might rise and make a speech. Roberts dexterously tied the queue to the high back of the bench on which Lee sat, and such as all the house sat on, till within the last twelve years. The next moment a favorable juncture came, and Mr. Lee rose eagerly, exclaiming, 'Mr Speaker!'—but his wig came off—and turning to Roberts, he, in the same breath cried out,—'You're a fool!' The House roared of course."

LETTERS TO GEN. TAYLOR.—All sorts of foolish letters are written to General Taylor, and on all sorts of subjects. It is stated that he sometimes receives forty in a day. One man in Indiana writes to know if he is in favor of a national bank, with the public lands for a capital; and whether he will advocate the establishment of a branch in the county where the writer resides. If so, he will no doubt obtain the vote of his correspondent Gen. Taylor should lay by his pen for the remainder of the canvass. He has said enough to satisfy his friends and to displease his enemies, and he should leave the issue to the people. He will be harrassed with impertinent letters, but he ought to let them remain unnoticed.—Balt. Clipper.

A College in Africa.—It is stated that a citizen of Mississippi has left $100,000 for the establishment of a College in Liberia.

NEVER DESPAIR.

Philadelphia, July 26, 1846.

TO THE PUBLIC.—I certify that before my remembrance I became afflicted with what the Physicians called scrofula. It made its first appearance by pain and swelling of the joints—more especially of my ankles, knees, wrists and elbows, after which the glands of my throat and neck became inflamed and swelled, attended with most excruciating pains. I was often confined entirely to my bed, and for week together could not move my neck or turn my head. Several physicians attended me at different times—but they did not appear to do me any good.

About a year ago I was attacked with vomiting, which continued every few minutes all one night. The next day an eruption appeared on the sides of my neck, which soon spread all over my neck, head and face, with inflamation of my eyes and eyelids, which destroyed my eye-lashes, and caused the hair to fall from off my head, and soon the disease spread all over me; my limbs were one entire scab.—I could not open my hands or arms without causing the skin to crack open, when the blood would run out. Some of my finger-nails came off. In short, I was unable to get my own living, and in this condition I called upon Dr. Jayne, in order that he might undertake my case. He directed me to take his Alterative 3 times a day, and his Sanative Pills as often as I should find it necessary. I have now taken his Alterative four months, and am most happy to say that it has entirely cured me.

CAROLINE NEWBERRY,
No. 118 North Tenth St., Philadelphia.

If any person doubts my statement, they will please call upon Mrs. D. Stewart and Mrs. E. Doughty, 332 Spring Garden street; or on Mrs Tabour, where I reside, who are acquainted with my situation before and while I was taking Dr. Jayne's medicine.

FEVER & AGUE—JAYNE'S AGUE PILLS are sold under a guarantee that one bottle of them will cure one person of Fever and Ague or Chills and Fever, and in all cases if they should fail to cure, the money will be returned. But they never have failed yet, nor will they fail one time in a thousand cases.

H. J. Bostick, Esq., Drayton, Georgia, says:—Nov. 18, 1846—Dr. D. Jayne, Dear Sir—My sales of your preparations have exceeded my expectations. Your Expectorant, Vermifuge, Carminative Balsam and Fever and Ague Pills, all sell well, some of which I am now out of. I want an immediate supply of all the above medicines, more particularly a large supply of the Expectorant and Ague Pills. We have yet among us a good many long standing cases of chills and fever, in which your Ague Pills have never failed to cure. Your alterative is just beginning to be known here, and appreciated. If I had had enough of these fever and ague pills, I could have sold more than a hundred dollars worth of them. Yours, &c.

H. J. BOSTICK.

Halderman & Co., Mt. Carroll, Ill., say, Oct. 20, 1846:—Dr. D. Jayne, Dear Sir—Your medicines, so far as they have been tried in this section of country, give very general satisfaction, particularly your Ague Pills. We could have sold three times the amount we did, if we had had them. The Sanative Pills are very much liked by all who have used them, and are fast taking the place of all other Pills as a purgative.

NEW TAILORING
ESTABLISHMENT.

JAMES S. CHILDS,

OF Baltimore, takes this method of returning his acknowledgments to his friends of Easton, Greensborough, Denton and the shore generally, for their liberal patronage during his short stay among them, being encouraged by the flattering prospect he has taken the house formerly occupied by Mr. Elias Hopkins, nearly opposite Satterfields tavern. He is now ready to execute any orders with punctuality, he flatters himself that from the experience of ten years close application to public business in Baltimore City he has gained sufficient knowledge of the trade to furnish garments combining with the same as much taste and of as good style as they can be furnished in Baltimore, Philadelphia or elsewhere, he ensures all work at the establishment to give satisfaction.

French and English Fashions received quarterly, French plates direct, English republished in New York. Cutting done with as much care as if made. He therefore solicits a share of public patronage, no effort shall be spared on his part to give general satisfaction to those who may favor him with a call

Facts are Stubborn Things!

MARTIN'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF
WILD CHERRY

IS the best remedy now in use in Coughs, Colds, Asthma and Consumption, in its early stages, ever offered to the public. Read the following—

No. 25 Pleasant street, Baltimore,
January 20th, 1847.

Dr. Martin; Dear Sir:—On the 6th of Feb. 1846, I was first taken with a hæmorrhage from my Lungs, and was confined to the house in consequence of it and other pulmonary symptoms for nearly four months. I became so exceedingly weak and debilitated by it and the cough and repeated spittings of blood and matter which ensued, that I was entirely prostrated. I however recruited a little and went into the country for two months, but returned without the least benefit, and on my return to the city I had another attack from hæmorrhage. My cough now becomes so exceedingly harrassing—particularly at night. I thought I should sink under it. My feet, ankles, hand and wrists swelled much, and I nearly lost the use of them. Every morning they were rubbed for near one hour before I could use them, and when I got out of bed I had to be assisted. My expectoration was very profuse and was mixed with clotted blood I suffered much from pain in my breast and shoulders, and at times my whole frame appeared disordered. I was attended by two excellent physicians in the city who cease to visit me, and I supposed, thought my case beyond the healing art. In fact I was so reduced I never expected to be well again, and many persons both in and out of the city can certify that my case appeared hopeless.

I had used for a long time various pulmonary preparations up to November, but all to no purpose, and hope seemed to have fled. In the latter part of that month you came to see me. After talking with me some time you proposed to me to try your Syrup of Wild Cherry. I did so and after using it some weeks I began to recover, and now (thank God) I think my disease is removed. My cough has left me, my breast is easy, and I sleep soundly and comfortably and my health and strength daily improves, but as the weather is so unsettled I feel reluctant in turning out. By way of exercise I daily at your request take a turn at wood sawing.

In making my case known I am prompted by no other motive than feelings of benevolence, and for the benefit of others who may be similarly afflicted. Very respectfully,

THOMAS J. HENRIX.

MARTIN AND WHITELEY'S
NATIONAL TONIC,

A certain cure for Ague and Fever, and Dyspepsia. We publish the certificate of a worthy man who is well known in Queen Anns County, and who was speedily relieved by it—

BEVER DAMS, QUEEN ANNE'S Co.
October 3d, 1847.

Dr. George. T. Martin, Respected Sir:—In justice to you and to the Public, and to discharge a high and responsible obligation resting upon me, I take this method of making known to the public the remarkable cure your National Tonic has wrought in my particular case. I had been laboring under an intermitting fever for 15 months; I had tried different eminet Physicians but without success; 'tis true the quinine would stop the chills a day or two, but they would return with double violence until I became weak and emaciated, my stomach swollen and hard, my spirits broken, and had but little hope again becoming a sound man: last winter I accidentally saw this invaluable TONIC and commenced taking it, and before I used HALF a bottle my chills left me, my appetite gradually returned, and my spirits also, and by the time I had finished the one bottle I was, as it were, a new man. Nearly a year has elapsed and I have not had a single chill. Your Pills are the most popular pills among us. Yours with respect,

JOHN NELSON.

Martin's Universal Purgative Pills.

In offering these Pills to the public we know there cannot be found a better, or more safe, easy or agreeable remedy, in all cases were a Purgative is needed. They speedily remove all irritating matters retained in the bowels, or when the habitual alvim discharges are too tardy or insufficient for health, by their specific virtues they restore the secretions to a healthy action, and the blood to its natural purity.

Extract from W. L. Jones' letter—

I have been using Dr. Martin's Universal Purgative Pills for the last four years, both personally and in my family, and with great confidence recommend them as a certain and safe purgative, and for the billious fever I have never known them to fail; in a word I have had much sickness and use nothing else.

Respectfully yours, W. L. JONES,
Surgeon Dentist, Caroline Co., Md.

October 16th, 1846.

To Dr. G. T. Martin.
