POETRY.

I WAS A PEASANT BORN.

BY ROBERT STORY.

I was a Peasant born; the straw-roofed cot
Contained my cradle. By my infant ear
The uncultured words which Peasants speak were drunk,
Till my tongue caught the uttered theme.
In my youth I toiled with Peasants; bearing as they came,
The heats of August, and the winds of March.
The thoughts that Peasants think were mine; and though
Some touch of learning may have rubbed away
A little of its rust, I hope my mind
Smacks of the Peasant still.

I cannot dress
My face in smiles, when my heart bids me frown.
I cannot pay respects, when my heart says
The man's a villain. In my soul I loathe
The smooth hypocrisy which, ice-like, keeps
A surface never ruffled by a storm:
Nor do I like his valor, who can see
The foe at work beneath his citadel
With the best will to batter it, and yet
Retain his temper, and extend the hand
Instead of pointing the artillery.
The generous man I love—the tyrant hate:
But would not veil my hatred nor my love
For all the mines of Chili. Birth and rank,
That wear their honors worthily, shall have
My deepest reverence, and, if requisite,
My heart's warm service; but they shall not chain
The freedom of my thoughts, nor soften down
The correspondent freedom of a word
That brands a meritless minion.

These are thoughts
That square not with the maxims of the times.
So much fitter to be mine, then; who
Am proud, and well may be, too. I sprang not
From sires that sucked the people's blood—lived
And died detested—leaving to their seed
A world of infamy to purge away,
And not one virtue to achieve the work.
My father toiled like Adam; gained his bread
By his brow's moisture; died, and went to heaven,
Leaving me no legacy, save what
He taught me to extract from yon OLD BOOK,
That tells old-fashioned tales of Heaven and Hell,
And that God hates a hypocrite.

WONDERFUL BAD MEMORY.

A traveller on one of the Western steamboats recently, was landing near his home and as the boat was about to leave, he bawled out—

"Hallo, captain, there's something missing here!"

"What is it?" asked the captain.

"Hang me if I can recollect now," said the traveller; "let me see, here's all my trunks, boxes, two dogs, gun, and—oh, thunder! it's my wife and little gal, that are asleep in the cabin! I knew there was something else!"

RECORDER'S COURT.—A German lady was arraigned on a charge of disturbing the peace. The complainant and principal witness—a stout Dutch girl—informed the court that the quarrel commenced about a baby's bonnet.

"What kind of a bonnet was it?" inquired the attorney.

Witness—A yaller baby's bonnet.

Attorney—You dont mean to say the baby was a yellow one, do you?

Wit.—I don't know vedder de baby was yaller or not, but it was a yaller baby's bonnet.

Recorder—Do you mean the bonnet was yellow, or the baby it belonged to?

Wit.—Oh, yaw! dat ish de vay.

The last answer conveyed such a clear idea of the merits of the case, that "his honor," deeming it useless to inquire farther, dismissed the parties.—Reveille.

HORN'S VERY LAST.

A few evenings since, some devotee of the weed laid the stump of a segar on the counter of Mr. Horn. The wag observed the soger, and enquired earnestly who laid it there. No one could answer, and finally some one asked why he wished to know Horn replied, saying in the language of Mr. Toots—

"It's of no consequence, but I don't like to take a stump from any body."—Sunday Morning News.

A LAWYER'S OPINION ABOUT LAW.—Counsellor M——t, after he retired from practice, being one day in company where the uncertainty of the law became the topic of conversation, was applied to for his opinion, upon which he laconically observed: "If any man was to claim the coat upon my back, and threaten my refusal with a lawsuit, he should have it, lest in defence of my coat I should, too late, find that I was deprived of my waistcoat also."

A PROMISING GARDNER.—A gentlemen living in S——, in Massachusetts, hired a raw Irishman to work in his garden and on his farm. As he was idling round one day this week, his employer told him to go out and weed the garden. Well, what do you suppose he pulled up for weeds? Why all the gentlemen's potato vines, seventy five young pear trees and the same number of young peach trees about a foot high, which had all been set out this season. The man was procured from what is called the "State Farm" in Westboro. Sp of the Times.

☞ What is mine, even to my life, is hers I love; but the secret of my friend is not mine.—Sir Philip Sidney.

"THE THREE BLACK CROWS" of the story which shows how rumor gains by travel, are nothing to the various phases of locofoco denunciations against General Taylor. First, he had no principles—then his principles were dangerous, next, he was a mere soldier and no civilian; then all his civil qualifications were enumerated to show that they would not suit locofocoism; and lastly, the General who never showed but one face to his country's enemy, is accused of having a dozen faces and nearly as many lives. All this shows that he is becoming more formidable to his political opponents.

CURES! CURES! CURES! are constantly being performed by Dr. Jayne's Family Medicines. Mrs. Sabra, wife of Capt. John Dunham, No. 6, Galbraith's Court, Philadelphia, had a very bad cough, soreness of the breast and side, sore throat, costive habit, lowness of spirits, with weakness and pain in the small of the back. Spitting of blood and liver complaint has been entirely cured by using Dr. Jayne's Sanative Pills, Alterative and Expectorant.

[From the Great Falls, (N. H.) North. Light.]

☞ It is with pleasure that we give place to the following from Mr. Ira Huckins, of Tamworth, who was supposed to be past cure of a Consumption, but was restored to health by the use of "Dr. Jayne's Expectorant." We can speak with confidence of this medicine, as we know of many of our friends who have been greatly benefitted by it. EDITOR.

Tamworth, N. H., Dec. 10, 1845.

Dear Sir—I feel it my duty to make known to you, for the benefit of the public, the aid I received from the use of a bottle of Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, which I purchased of you. I had been sick between five and six months, caused by the lung fever, which left me in a very low state of health, with a very bad cough and for about three months I could only speak in a whisper. My friends all thought me to be in a decline. My physician said he had done all for me he could. About this time I fortunately saw advertised in the papers, "Dr. Jayne's Expectorant," for sale by you. I immediately sent to you for a bottle, and in two days after using I began to feel better,—in about ten days I recovered my voice and could speak tolerably well, and before using the whole bottle I was nearly as well as ever. My health is now good.

I attribute my cure wholly to Dr. Jayne's medicine. IRA HUCKINS.

NEVER DESPAIR.

Philadelphia, July 26, 1846.

TO THE PUBLIC.—I certify that before my remembrance I became afflicted with what the Physicians called scrofula. It made its first appearance by pain and swelling of the joints—more especially of my ankles, knees, wrists and elbows, after which the glands of my throat and neck became inflamed and swelled, attended with most excruciating pains. I was often confined entirely to my bed, and for week together could not move my neck or turn my head. Several physicians attended me at different times—but they did not appear to do me any good.

About a year ago I was attacked with vomiting, which continued every few minutes all one night. The next day an eruption appeared on the sides of my neck, which soon spread all over my neck, head and face, with inflamation of my eyes and eyelids, which destroyed my eye-lashes, and caused the hair to fall from off my head, and soon the disease spread all over me; my limbs were one entire scab.—I could not bend my hands or arms without causing the skin to crack open, when the blood would run out. Some of my finger-nails came off. In short, I was unable to get my own living, and in this condition I called upon Dr. Jayne, in order that he might undertake my case. He directed me to take his Alterative 3 times a day, and his Sanative Pills as often as I should find it necessary. I have now taken his Alterative four months, and am most happy to say that it has entirely cured me.

NEW TAILORING

ESTABLISHMENT.

JAMES S. CHILDS,

OF Baltimore, takes this method of returning his acknowledgments to his friends of Easton, Greensborough, Denton and the shore generally, for their liberal patronage during his short stay among them, being encouraged by the flattering prospect he has taken the house formerly occupied by Mr. Elias Hopkins, nearly opposite Satterfields tavern. He is now ready to execute any orders with punctuality, he flatters himself that from the experience of ten years close application to public business in Baltimore City he has gained sufficient knowledge of the trade to furnish garments combining with the same as much taste and of as good style as they can be furnished in Baltimore, Philadelphia or elsewhere, he ensures all work at the establishment to give satisfaction.

French and English Fashions

received quarterly, French plates direct, English republished in New York. Cutting done with as much care as if made. He therefore solicits a share of public patronage, no effort shall be spared on his part to give general satisfaction to those who may favor him with a call.

MARTIN'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF

WILD CHERRY

IS the best remedy now in use in Coughs, Colds, Asthma and Consumption, in its early stages, ever offered to the public. Read the following—

No. 25 Pleasant street, Baltimore, January 26th, 1847.

Dr. Martin; Dear Sir:—On the 6th of Feb. 1846, I was first taken with a hæmorthage from my Lungs, and was confined to the house in consequence of it and other pulmonary symptoms for nearly four months. I became so exceedingly weak and debilitated by it and the cough and repeated spittings of blood and matter which ensued, that I was entirely prostrated. I however recruited a little and went into the country for two months, but returned without the least benefit, and on my return to the city I had another attack from hæmorrhage. My cough now becomes so exceedingly harrassing—particularly at night. I thought I should sink under it. My feet, ankles, hand and wrisio swelled much, and I nearly lost the use of them. Every morning they were rubbed for near one hour before I could use them, and when I got out of bed I had to be assisted. My expectoration was very profuse and was mixed with clotted blood I suffered much from pain in my breast and shoulders, and at times my whole frame appeared disordered. I was attended by two excellent physicians in the city who cease to visit me, and I supposed, thought my case beyond the healing art. In fact I was so reduced I never expected to be well again, and many persons both in and out of the city can certify that my case appeared hopeless.

I had used for a long time various pulmonary preparations up to November, but all to no purpose, and hope seemed to have fled. In the latter part of that month you came to see me. After talking with me some time you proposed to me to try your Syrup of Wild Cherry. I did so and after using it some weeks I began to recover, and now (thank God) I think my disease is removed. My cough has left me, my breast is easy, and I sleep soundly and comfortably and my health and strength daily improves, but as the weather is so unsettled I feel reluctant in turning out. By way of exercise I daily at your request take a turn at wood sawing.

In making my case known I am prompted by no other motive than feelings of benevolence, and for the benefit of others who may be similarly afflicted. Very respectfully,

THOMAS J. HENRIX.

MARTIN AND WHITELEY'S

NATIONAL TONIC,

A certain cure for Ague and Fever, and Dyspepsia. We publish the certificate of a worthy man who is well known in Queen Anns County, and who was speedily relieved by it—

BEVER DAMS, QUEEN ANNE'S Co. October 3d, 1847.

Dr. George. T. Martin. Respected Sir:—In justice to you and to the Public, and to discharge a high and responsible obligation resting upon me, I take this method of making known to the public the remarkable cure your National Tonic has wrought in my particular case. I had been laboring under an intermitting fever for 15 months; I had tried different eminet Physicians but without success; 'tis true the quinine would stop the chills a day or two, but they would return with double violence until I became weak and emaciated, my stomach swollen and hard, my spirits broken, and had but little hope again becoming a sound man; last winter I accidentally saw this invaluable TONIC and commenced taking it, and before I used HALF a bottle my chills left me, my appetite gradually returned, and my spirits also, and by the time I had finished the one bottle I was, as it were, a new man. Nearly a year has elapsed and I have not had a single chill. Your Pills are the most popular pills among us. Yours with respect,

JOHN NELSON.

Martin's Universal Purgative Pills.

In offering these Pills to the public we know there cannot be found a better, or more safe, easy or agreeable remedy, in all cases were a Purgative is needed. They speedily remove all irritating matters retained in the bowels, or when the habitual alvim discharges are too tardy or insufficient' for health, by their specific virtues they restore the secretions to a healthy action, and the blood to its natural purity.

Extract from W. L. Jones' letter—

I have been using Dr. Martin's Universal Purgative Pills for the last four years, both personally and in my family, and with great confidence recommend them as a certain and safe purgative, and for the billious fever I have never known them to fail; in a word I have had much sickness and use nothing else.

Respectfully yours, W. L. JONES,
Surgeon Dentist, Caroline Co., Md.
