PUBLISHED EVERY . SATURDAY MORNING. ALFRED P. JUMP, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. W. H. Conncell-Printer.

ements.

g been formed

N & PRO-

ALTIMORE, LGHMAN,

siness to merit

patronage.

Society.

GIC

3

o describe all of igthened an ad-

e benefit of the

are selling the $25-grinding

35—grinding 5

5-grinding 10

hin the reach of

p in my Wate-

ork that in oth-

me, worked by warranted.

Sole Agent,

Pratt street.

Baltimore.

xtent never

YOURSELVES.

rn perfumer, of choice products

ric Prize, that I

ge. Many of my rom them and en-

nusem ettmordi-deuring the sick.

nd pleasant to be m valued by the

V, writes from

n your Pille with

lone of appetite,

Pills cured me.

my years in my

it a piraoure to-

Ponu. Railroad

testimony to the cd very material cal and Catharne

antily, nor shall f

M. U., of West

in my practice, 1 n invaluable pur-us of the liver, en, and the great

e a surer remedy bese Pills to the er found. They by safe, qualities for public use. I ry Pectural as the those Pills are in paration for the e been afflicted form, and now, of amount of suf-a few weeks by

I have suffered,

m this buthsome

be unendurable

of my head, and rily hald all my e, and kept it for taking your Ca-on the complaint my hair has com-t makes not fee?

Saigeran luence

I am, with every

IA RICKER."
Ricker from her

ESERVE,

rion, writes from hich had become

by my Physician,
t a few dones of a health. I have t, with the best I recommended had troubled him
y had oured him
id, and I am free

made hen well:

enemted by your sears since, of a sears since, of a sears Pectural, the My children take of the Influness, which has this cure is much - ailed to get relief.

on of the country
dies I had taken.
ential blessing to
are not unmind-

THAXTER."

April 5th, 1854. ve made a thor-ful Rheumatism he first dose reth now than for

METCALF."

publicly known take these state-t they were true.

YER,

Lowell, Mass

Laston, Md.

nt. june7-y

manufacturers,

, such as Gen-

, Broad Strop

also a large lot

and fitted it PP

e solicit a cos-

ng assured that particular.

& HUGHES.

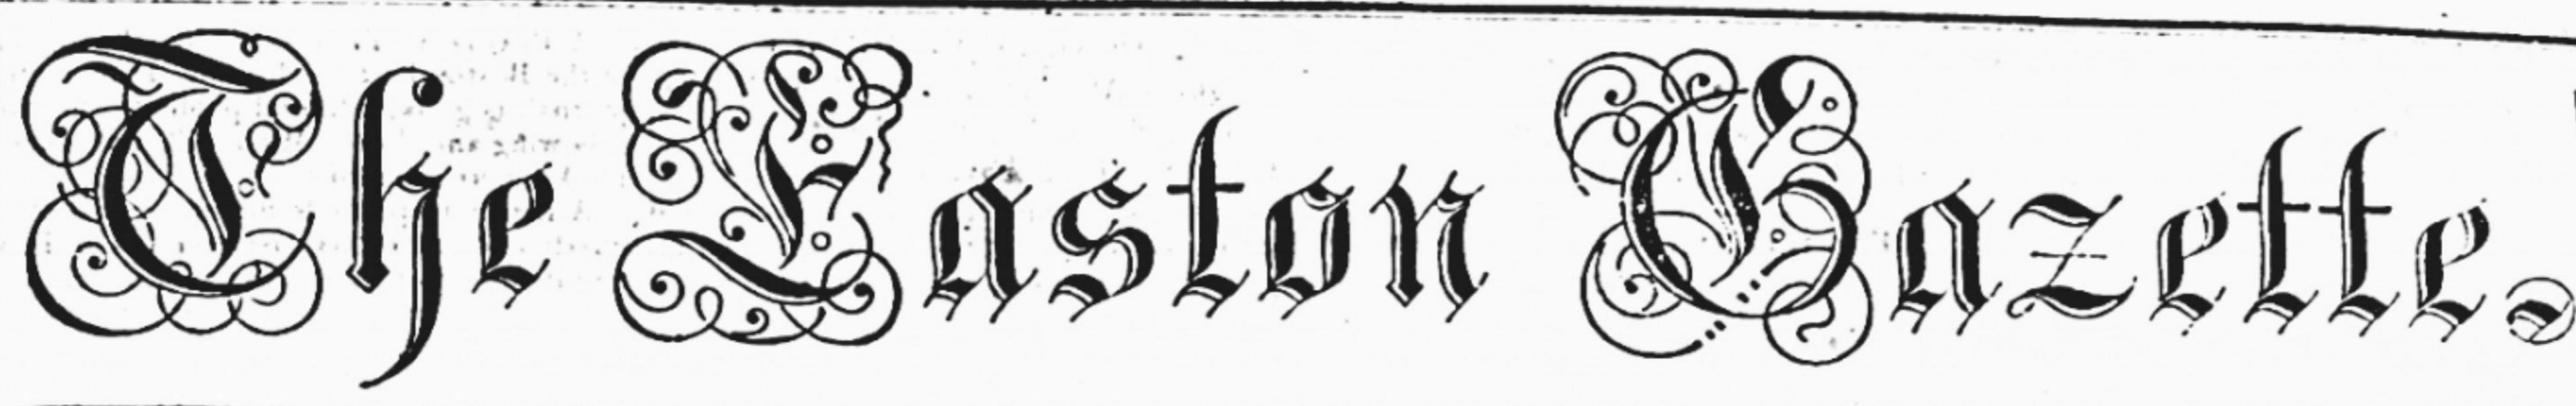

all of which we-

Sch April, 1854.

edicine.

INESS.

TERMS. TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM IN AD-VANCE, or TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS if not paid within one month of the time of subscribing, or the renewal of subscription .-A failure to notify a discontinuance is considered as a new engagement.

VOL. XXXIX.

EASTON, MD., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1856.

THREE TIMES for ONE DOLLAR and TWENTY-FIVE cente for each subsequent inserton. Longer once in proportion. A liberal deduction to yearly advertisers. Advertisements not marked the numer of insertions desired, will be continued until forbid, and charged accordingly.

ADVEBTISEMENTS.

Not exceeding one square, (12lines) inserte

Merchants and others who advertise by the year, wi'l in no case be allowed to insert any advertisement not contacted with their regular busil ness, without an additional charge.

All orders addressed to the editor, post-paid, will No. 44. receive prompt attention.

ALFRED P. JUMP, Caston, Mid.,

TATILL practice in Talbot and adjoining counties, and attend punctually to all business entrusted to his care. CLAIMS of all kinds collected and payments promptly made over W- He may be found at the "Gazette" Office. sep 27-tf CHEAP LUMBER. 50.000 feet White Pine and Hemlock Lumber will be received in a few days at the low rate of $15.00 per thousand. Also 30,000 Hart and sap shingles, 20,000 Ne. I Hart do.

20,000 Plasteting laths, 15,000 I siding, good quality, on hand and for (aug 23)

DENTISTRY. specifully inform the citizens of Faston and the surrounding country, that he will be in Faston during the first weeks in August, October and December. and at such other times as his services may be called for. 305- A line addressed to him at Cambridge will [june 28-6m ment with prompt attention.

A. B. PRITCHETT. EBBINEL MINEB TAS his shop en Dover street, a few steps II from Washington street, where he is prepared to make up Cabinet Work of the various kinds. All orders for COFFINS promptly attended to, and Coffins sent to any part of the County required. Orders for any work in his line of business left with Mr. Sam'l Patchett will receive prompt attention.

CO-PERTTERSHIP. AS this day been formed between the undersigned for the purpose of Grave Bricking. Street Paring. Repairing and putting up is responsible for the follwing good one: Chimneys. They will keep constantly on hand

JOS. NEWNAM. JAS. R. WRIGHT. August 18, 1855.

GEO. W. MORLING & SON,

PY customers that having closed out our last year's stock, we are now opening an entire new stock of F.H.L. & WINTER GOODS, which party. we are determined shall not be surpassed by any! GEO. W. MORLING & SON. aug 30-if DISSOLUTION. I IIIF. co-partnership heretofore existing be- accepted, and they were married. day (June 31) been dissolved by mutual consent. Charles Keitholtz is authorized to settle the busiof September next, will find their accounts in the speaking of himself as a Democrat.

DAVID & CHARLES KEILHOLTZ. Faston, June 31, 18.00.

ly requested to continue their custom. Strict at dyed and twisted in wool." tention will be paid to business. CHARLES KEILHOLTZ.

WHEELWRIGHTING BLACKSHITHING. you do."

SMITH, who is prepared to execute work in the tate.

and hopes by strict attention, by dispatch in the to quit the room. execution of all orders, and by the use of none but As he was leaving the door, she callad a rational way.

and will befeafter carrs on the liberally extended toward him. executed with neatness and despatch.

Orders from a distance punctually attended to. and all new work warranted for 12 months.

appointment in getting their supplies.

DAWSON & BRO. AY RAKES—on hand and for sale by June 28

For the Easton Gazette. MY SLIPPERS. BY THE PILGRIM BARD.

Let Poet's lyres some nobler theme discover, To woo the muse, while listening cars attend; Be mine the task-I ask a nobler, never-To sing the TRIBUTE of an absent friend.

For oft when Sol with sultry beams is shining, And all the air is fervid with his heat, At eventide, in langour half reclining, What comfort gave they to my weary feet.

Or when anon from noisy care retreating, In pensive mood, I sought some hower or stream, What joys arose, as to my heart repeating. [nam. Remembrance breathed the generous given's

And oh, how oft from winter's hills descending When bleakly dreary all the barren earth-What pleasure yield they when my roving ending, I've sought the comforts of the strangers bearth

Where'er I rove-less humble objects scorning To look on thee, the sweetest memories stir. And when afar my weary steps are turning, Each eve reminds me something sitll is dear.

In purple bright the golden thread entwining, With curious art so beautifully blent. I trace the impress, though all undesigning. Offriendship's warm and generous intent. Each devious mode, each tinsil slight, revealing

Each varying shade so plainly, sweetly telling

Let Poet's lyres some nobler theme discover. To woo the muse, while listening ears attend Be mine the task-I ask a nobler, never-

To sing the TRIBUTE of an absent friend.

Jack D., then a most bigoted and unrea- spirit this day: in their line of business at short notice and in the States was a red hot Democrat, and his best manner. When not engaged in the country chief pleasure seemed to consist in making Seward and Fillmore for President, we done to maintain her constitutional rights, whole world. His friends and acquaintances who know him well, and whom he had often victimized, with one consent pronounced Jack a bore, and his politics a MERCHANT TALLORS nuisance: but with a stranger the thing was essentially different. Soized by the button 259 Bullimore St., corner of Hanorer, at the moment of introduction, Jack would BALTIMORE. Jastonish him by a rapid rehearsel of the articles of his political creed, and branch EE'E would respectfully inform our friends and out into an interminable rhapsody on the

One unlucky day. Jack met, at the House in the country. Having secured the ser- house of a mutual friend, a young lady of vices of the best cutters, we can guarantee satis | great personal beauty and accomplishment; faction. We will have our stock complete on or attracted by her loveliness and captivated about the first of September, when we shall be by her intelligence, he became assiduous pleased to see all who are in want of good clothing. in his attentions, forgot for a while his might be the political preference of his "lady-love," imprudently proposed' was

tween David & Charles Keilholtz has this The wedding was over, the guests had departed, the happy pair had retired to their ness of the late firm, and all persons indebted for chamber, and were snugly ensconced in castings, plows. &c., are requested to make imme | bed, when Juck, in the course of a quiet diate parment to him. Those who do not pay up conversation with his wife, unwittingly al- him off with the Vice Presidency." or settle their accounts by note before the 1st day luded to his favorite subject by casually suddenly upon him, "are you a Democrat?" blessed health!" exclaims Sterne, "tis could have been spared to aid us in this N. B.—The subscriber having purchased the with the idea of having a patient listener to all its powers to receive "instruction and to interest of his brother in the foundry, will carry his long restrained oratory; "I am a Dem- relish virtue. He that has thee has "little on the business as heretofore. He has on hand ocrat; a real Jeffersonian Democrat attached else to wish for; he that is so wretched as to a large stock of eastings and plaws which he to the principles of the great Democratic want "thee, wants everything with thee." selling at the usual rates. Farmers are respectful- party-a regular out and outer, double The truth of this apostrophe every one copy or correct.

into a capitulation. power, and extinguished hope.

which he would respectfully invite the public to a surrender must be abandoned.

CILAUBER SALTS-Farmers in want of What they were, of course, was only and eradicate the first causes, thus destroy driver, and ordered him to drive as the wo-securing the money of his victim, but if he York. On Wednesday morning in New Glauber Salts for their Wheat this Fall, will known to himself, but they seemed to result ing all subsequent hability to similar affected. The little ones soon finds an unsophisticated and unprotected. Y. ik city a mad ox rushed suddenly through please hand in their orders at once to prevent dis- in something decided, for at his wife's door. tions. We do not mean to praise these dried their woman, he knows how to turn her a trac- the streets. He attacked a man named Corthird time the door shook with the violent that no eulogy is needed. They speak for father. Jas. H. GRACE. attack from the outside. themselves .- .- Mobile Register.

ed from a deep sleep. "It's me, my dear; and perhaps a little the Editor Chronicle and Sentinel: best Whig you ever saw."

noisy and disputatious as before.

man doubts the utter recklessness of a great he is not a platform with self-adjusting portion of the Democratic party, at the pres- planks that may be removed and substituted ent juncture of our national affairs we think at pleasure. I trust the "Nerrous Politihe will find something in expressions like the cians" in Georgia will be satisfied that Mr. following to remove his doubts. There is Fillmore is reliable on this as all other fast growing to be that in the tone of a mapoints, the "iron ribbed Democracy" to the jority of the Democratic journals South of contrary notwithstanding. us to set men reflecting in serious carnest before entrusting the party they represent with power in any capacity. The sad experiences of history have taught that the constant recurrences of men to any favorite impulse of passion, however evil, is apt in two favors of the 25th instant have just school room. A child of delicate nerves never been defeated in a Presidential electhe end to lead to its adoption, and that fa- come to hand, and furnish additional evi- may be unfitted to recite a well studied tion, as she has always cast her vote in familiarity with the idea of treason, as with dence that I am constantly misrepresented lesson, by the fierce gesticulations of a tea- vor of the successfull candidates and conany other selfish vice, is but too prone to both North and South. In the North I am cher, and the hours of children made mis- sequently, the saying, "As New York goes, The steady eye, the skillful hand that wrought lead to its perpetration. With this convictionarged with being a pro-slavery man, see-With what of woman's tenderness 'twere for tion firmly rooted in our minds we observe king to extend slavery over free territory, with alarm the very men who preach the and in the South I am accused of being an a primary school. election of Fremont to be tantamount to a abolitionist. But I am neither, and as I dissolution of the Union, speaking in the have invariably refused to give any pledgnext breath as we shall quote. It looks es, other than such as might be inferred from like the treasonous idea of disunion was be- my known character and previous official. coming attractive, and that any one event conduct, I have not answered to the public HOW TO CONVERT A DEMOCRAT. which does not bring the triumph of the par- any of these charges. If, after all I have The editor of the "American Union," an ty." will furnish as good an excuse as a-done, and all the sacrifices I have made excellent family paper published in Boston, nother. We trust thinking men will pon- to maintain the constitutional rights of the gard of the immortal ones entrusted to his We do not think there is a doubt, nor the der these evidences of the "rule or ruin" South, she still distrusts me, then, I can cently declared:-

should not hesitate a moment to prefer the and advance her interest, she distrusts me, ocratic) has the following:-

just as much freesoil as Martin Van Buren should be well governed, and that this unor Prince John: and we emphatically assert fortunate sectional controversy between the ways have been and are now sounder upon ternal feeling restored. But I apprehend. all constitutional questions the subject of that the difficulty is, that the extremes on aging older scholars to laugh at their errors! but their duty. manifest destiny of the great Democratic slavery included) than Millard Fillmore, each side want a President favoring their Happily for us, however, such monstrous And why should any man, with the same for President than to support Fillmore?"

Virginia Democracy, said recently that Mar- Union, North and South, East and West, tin Van Buren was an angel of light com- and if my country will not accept me en pared with Millard Fillmore.

Metchant Tailors. | "principles," and without inquiring what Buchanan paper in that State, grows still Richmond Whig from the Builalo Commerbolder. Hear it:

tor as he is to the home of his birth, the Pres- for the South and another for the North, ident of the United States than Mr. Fill- and therefore I send it. more, who never ceased to hate and perse- In conclusion, permit me to express my cute the South, until the South had bought sincere thanks for the kind interest you

DAVID & CHARLES KELLHOLTZ. "What!" said she, turning sharply and The DEATH KNELL OF QUACKERY.—"Oh, him my triend. I wish his valuable life such liberal salaries: Pay well and demand "Yes, madam," replied Jack, delighted thou who "enlargest the soul and openest struggle to save our country. must acknowledge; poor Sterne spoke from "Just double and twist yourself out of sad experience. And yet, familiar as eve-bidden subject on either side. There was tions may be numerously varied. The old mother's grief. No answer. The signal was repeated in a Pills and Ointment. We confine ourselves innocent prattle, the youngest one often tions to his advantage. The keepers of bad nelious Lynch, goring his abdomen and tear-

"Who's there?" cried his wife, just rous- A LETTER FROM MR. FILLMORE. of a poor little hovel, which the woman said viding ithem with boarding places. A po-

Dear Sir-Enclosed you will find a letter forth his card, he asked the woman's name. bly detained for some time. The revolution in his opinion was radical from Mr. Fillmore, which you will find a letter from Mr. Fillmore, which you will please county, became popular, offered himself as publish with the enclosed article, also sent a candidate on the Whig ticket for the Le- having endersed on it " We continents— W bank bill, saying, 'when you need more for enthusiastic demonstrations, which we sessions represented his adopted county as while I am free to admit that Mr. Buchan, kind good night, he took his seat, and we gets, which are lively enough now. Rides, an is conservative. especially so far as the South is concerned, (having out "Ostend,") and have no doubt he would make a good, RULE OR RUIN .- If any dispassionate President; yet I preser Mr. Fillmore because

Your obedient serv't, J. W. M. BERRIEN.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 29, 1856. will furnish at moderate prices when called on so to do. They will execute with dispatch all work influential lawyer in one of our Southern to do. They will execute with dispatch all work influential lawyer in one of our Southern to do. may show her gratitude to her confidence. If hope she may find one more worthy of The North Alabama Register (also Dem- her confidence and bestow it acccordingly.) I shall have no regrets for myself in either and well and sorrowfully do we remember his carrying the Empire State by at least The whole Whig party in the North was case. I am only anxious that the country one poor fellow who when drunk would twenty thousand majority. Nothing is more that Martin Van Buren and his son John al- North and the South be settled, and a fra- for their ignorance, provoking their confu- Let those who desire to see him elected do and we had rather support either of them own peculiar views as against their oppo- conduct is passing away and the man is mind, a patriotic heart, and who really and nent. I cannot consent to be such a can-The Richmond Enquirer, the organ of didate for either side. I am for the whole those conditions I shall not complain.

The Atlanta (Ga.) Intelligencer, a leading | The enclosed article, copied into the have manifested in my success as the can didate of the Union. I remember your la-THE BEGINNING OF THE END .- mented brother well, and was proud to call morals as well as literature, and give all Brooklyn Evening Mar.

With sentiments of respect, I am, truly and sincerely yours, MILLARD FILLMORE. P. S.—I write in haste, without time to will admit of. He will warrant all new work nest, and the only alternative left him was The honest laborer in the cause of human- "In the year 1851 I chanced to be one in their line of business. A course of free "James B. Platform." - Cinn. Times. prompt renunciation of his heresy or a ity finds no sadder discouragement "than of a party who were taking an evening lectures has just been inaugurated for the He has in his employ an experienced BLACK. Bed in another room. Jack did not hesi- in the complacent indifference with which drive in the suburbs of the city of Wash- benefit of artisans, to be delivered in a hall. Senaror Benjamin at Benjamin of Democrate ner and with the attention of one of our party was magnificent building is completed, and fit- and old line Whigs, at New Orleans, on the attention paid to Horse Shoring for which the Cash will be required. In this line of his business he can't be beat—try him.

doctrines of his party, to renounce his allery to get rid of it. The more aged an error arrested by a female, with time small fed up according to the party for which the giance to that faith which had become idenhas become, the more difficult it is to remove children, seated near the closed gate. She founder, it will furnish everything that the speech was a failure, being a special plea in mess he can't be beat—try him.

The Aster Library roust not be forWhenever he mentioned the names of All orders promptly attended to in person, and the mere whim and caprice of a woman, the art of healing, as it was known and apparel and that of the little ones told a tion. The Astor Library must not be for- Whenever he mentioned the names of a discount of 6 per cent, will be made on all cash was utterly ridiculous and absurd, and be practiced before the advent of this wonder- tale of suffering which was truly distressing. gotten as an invaluable aid to the practical Clay and Fillmore, the house shook with and boose by strict on the bed and prepared ful genius whose mission has been to re-es- We had gone but a short distance when the and theatrical artisans of the city—who applause; and when the meeting broke up tablish the treatment of human ailments in person whose attention had been arrested seem to avail themselves of its privileges the crowd went down stairs burrahing for the best materials, to retain the public confidence to him, "I say, my dear, when you recant one by them ordered the public confidence to him, "I say, my dear, when you recant one by them ordered the place where they were seated. The quiet and seclusion of the Library, and erously, and kept it up long after they are seated. The quiet and seclusion of the Library and into Lafavette and a continuance of the patronage heretofore exded to him.

To him, "I say, my dear, when you recant to him, be said to him, be said to him, be said to him, and say, my dear, when you recant to him, be said to him, be said to him, and say, my dear, when you recant to him. JAMES AUSTIN. at my door, and perhaps I will let you in " among the rest, the errors that have crept ed the woman and inquired the cause of mankible, afford a striking contrast to the Square. In fact, a Fillmore procession

A sense of insulted dignity and a firm be asked, are the proofs? Proofs! Why, left his home to find a better one in Amer- side, or the industrious Bowery on the oth- for Fillmore, we suggest that the Fillmore son & Hopkins) takes the method of infor- conviction that he was a martyr in the right there is one great, patent, palpable fact, ica. He had worked very hard, and sa- er. ming his friends and the public generally that he cause, strengthened his pride, and he re- which has been staring the world in the ved money enough to send for his family, solved to hold out till he forced his pride. It will save them a louder tone; still all was silent; and the tostating facts, and are perfectly satisfied asking if we were going to take him to his houses willingly pay a large commission ing out his intestines. A woman was also

"A half hour's drive brought us in front grants into the dens under pretence of pro- The animal was healts shat conducted them to the door, then, drawing one of these houses, where she was forci-President of the United States."

CHARLESTON, Oct. 6th. 1856. | would be home if Jemmy were there.

our Primary Schools; and in the beginning of this article, by leave, to say however well a man may be qualified to teach, a "AS THE EMPIRE STATE GOES SO habit of scolding and anguly threatening GOES THE UNION"-It is generally un-J. M. Berrien, Esq. - Dear Sir: - Your children, should exclude him from the derstood that the State of New York has erable by the quarrelsome disposition of men so goes the Union."

better qualified to manage a managerie than Now if this be true it settles the question the feelings and win the confidence and re- country. for woe, and have great tendency in the recting the hearts of our citizens, will as an fortunate mebriates governed our schools, country, and the whole Union, as to ensure use such epithets as "blockhead, dunce, certain, and all that is necessary to ensure numbscull," &c., and taunt the little ones an increased vote, rests with his friends. sion and evil temper, and actually encour- their duty, their whole duty, and nothing language to little children, or who mana- important question, and say, (and all acne-ses and frailties of the young.

cial speaks my sentiments on the Missouri present let me say to all interested that it is he has been trusted and proved faithful, and "For our part, we do not scruple to say Compromise. It may or may not suit a matter of grave importance, and deserves I'll trust him him again. full and impartial discharge of duties. Sept., 1856.

New York Correspondence.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10, 1856. except at the political meetings, and at the The Locofocos should cease calling their American Institute Fair. This latter at candidate "Old Buck." It is a misnomer. traction has filled the Crystal Palace, for The name implies something peculiar, MILLARD FILLMORE .- A friend who the last few evenings with as large and bril- something sturdy and strong-minded: and this bed, then," interrupted his wife. "I ry man is with the truth herein expressed, was an eye witness of the following inci- liant assemblage as one used to meet there the nomince of their party is neither .am a Whig, and I will neversleep with any no mortal could compute the members who dent, narrated it to the editors of the New in the palmy days of the great exhibition. We have an "Old Hickory." a Black Dan," man professing the abominable doctrines ruin themselves in body, mind, and fortune Orleans Creole, as an illustration of genu- The Institute fairs have always been well a "Mill Boy of the Slashes," an "Old Rough by neglect to employ the proper remedies ine love for humanity. The principal patronized-but the receipts of this year and Ready." and an "Old Bullion." These THE subscriber begs leave to inform his cus. Jack was speechless from absolute a- when health fails. How is this neglect to actor in the scene doubtless never expecting the names of men-great glory, hard tomers and the public generally that he still mazement. That the very wife of his bosom be remedied? The evil has become so ted that it would have been the subject of vious one. The machinery department is headed old heroes, who controlled, and Skinton He has now to large the should prove a traifor was horrible—she consecrated by age, that the man who un- a newspaper paragraph; but it is so charac- peculiarly attractive, containing some new were not controlled by others. But "Old Skipton. He has now on hand a lot of the best must be jesting. He remonstrated—in dertakes to amend it requires no ordinary teristic of true generosity and nobleness and very important inventions. The me-Buck," is a nickname implying something materials, and is prepared to put up new work in a manner that cannot fail to give entire satisfaction, and on terms as accommodating as the times treaty—'twas no go. She was in sober early and the treaty—'twas The door was violently slammed to, and into medical practice have got their dismiss- her sorrow. In a plain and simple style noisy marts of business so near at hand.— was formed outside on the instant and Jack proceeded wrathfully in quest of another apartment.

Jack proceeded wrathfully in quest of another apartment.

Jack proceeded wrathfully in quest of another apartment.

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sireets:

There is but a block between the cloistermarched through me sire solved to hold out till he forced his wife face for the last twenty years, and working and had a small home prepared to receive themselves conspicuous lately by "striking" good deal of labor. COACH-MAKING BUSINESS Into a capitulation. Its way through popular prejudice into popular p perience in the basices be flatters ing had happened, but whenever Jack ven- unquestionable evidence of its power as a er, for two days previous he had fallen rection, of course, are thrown into utter con- York Express says: himself that he will be able to give general satis- tured to affice to the rupture of the night proof. The medicines of Professor Hollo- from a staging where he was at work, and sternation. Engineers have refused to "The Brooks' then in this State will all faction, and hopes by a prompt and faithful attenprevious, there was a "laughing devil" in way have been silent but powerfully effect now,' said she, pointing to the gate, 'he is serve the company at double the usual wat vote for Fillmore and Donelson, making no vor and matromage which have heretofore been so her eye that besponse a consciousness of his ting a change in the science of physic which in there. I've come out with my little ones ges. They complain that they are not paid bargain, and desiring none,—and if the Buthe world itself has begun to wonder at .- to see the grave-but it's too late. The for the time they lose while their engines change mendon't mean to throw their votes He is prepared to manufacture Carriages of all A second night he repaired to his lonely It is well known that the cause of all the gate is shut, and we must come back to- are being repaired. We met one of the away, they will do so likewise, and that is kinds to order, in a very superior manner, at short couch, and a second day was a repetition of diseases and suffering to which people are morrow.' The poor woman quite overcome, engineers the other day, who complained all the bargain that exists. There are about notice, and on reasonable terms. Repairing also the first-no allusion was made to the for subject are very few, although their indica- and the children cried at beholding their very strenuously of this arrangement. He 400,000 people in this State, and they don't was a jolly fellow with a miniature locomo- intend that the State shell zo for Buchanan,

He has now on hand and ready for sale a fine a look of quiet happiness and cheerfulness plan of curing diseases was by affecting "Will you take a seat and ride home?" tive in his cravat. He seemed to be as -150,000 of them Fremont men, and assortment of Carriages, Harness, &c., both new about his wife that puzzled Jack sorely their results without affecting their prima- said the gentleman. 'O, thank you, thank proud of his engine as a fast man could be 250,000 of them Fillmore men.—all against and second hand, of various natterns and finish. which he would respectfully invite the public to and he felt that all idez of forcing her into ry causes. Professor Holloway initiated a you, sir: but I could not think of it. He of his 2.40 nag, or a fireman of his machine. Buchanan men.—and 150.000 Buchanan which he would respectfully invite the public to new mode of treatment by the discovery of insisted, and taking one of the forlorn little! One of the lowest shifts which depraved men, and 250,000 Fillmore men, the don't A third night he was alone with his his Pills and Ointment, which, whilst im- creatures in his arms, he placed it in the humanity has ever resorted to for support, intend it shall go for Fremont." rranted for 12 months.

SAM'L B. HOPKINS.

thoughts. His reflections were more serious mediately grappling with the ultimate symp- carriage. The mother and remaining two is the emigrant runner business. The and composed than on the night previous, toms, reach also to the seat of the disease children followed. I took a seat beside the runner, very frequently is not satisfied with. A Man Ox in the Streets of New Whole the runner of the rest of the liceman was arrested yesterday, charged "Assisting the party out, the gentleman with decoying a young emigrant girl into Bridget Murphy,' said she. Writing it on We are in the midst of a glorious Indian rode in silence to our respective lodgings. bon-fires, torchlight, etc., are to be had gra-"That man was Millard Fillmore, the tis now by all intelligent voters, as these inducements are tossed about right and left by the drummers who get up mass mee-For the Easton Gazette. | tings. Screnaders are also in order, this PRIMARY SCHOOLS-MISTAKES OF moonlight weather. This sort of entertain-TEACHERS, &c .- With your permission, Mr. | ment. however. is getting scarcer than it Editor, I will call the attention of parents was wont. For since organ-grinders have and guardians of children to the ruinous the field by night, youthful and ambitious as to who will be the successful candidate A child may be pecvish and fretful from on the fourth of November next. Mr. Fillbad health or detective training, and it ill more being the only national candidate, New becomes his instructor to add to their un- York, true to her instincts and her past hishappy temper by faultfinding and abuse .- tory, will vote for him, who alone is the Would it not be better to speak gentle and Union candidate that can receive the suploving words of encouragement to soften port of each National vote in an American care? Will any parent sanction conduct ghost of a doubt as to how New York will formation of his character? How impor- avalanche sweep away, like cobwebs, the tant then that men of good morals and hap- hopes of Fremont and Ruchanan and conpy tempers should be selected as instruc- centrate upon Mr. Fillmore such a compacttors of our youth! In days gone by, un-jed mass of voters, that are true to their now justly regarded as a contemptible brute truly desired the perpetuity of his, 'country's who uses any but chaste and gentlemanly glory, refuse for one mement to decide the ges his school without regard to their feel- knewledge, that as Mr. Fillmore is the safings, or making due allowance for the weak est candidates, because he is the National American candidate, whose life and acts is I may pursue this object hereafter: at one of the brightest pages in our history,) it, that we would sooner see Fremont, tra- your latitude, but I have not one thing their attention in selecting teachers for the In fact he is the only one under existing circoming year. The fact is, if we were as par- cumstances that we can safely trust, and ticular in choosing teachers as farmers and when we look at the momentons interest, the merchants are in securing overseers and very vitality and life of a republican governclerks, the interests of children would be ment and institution, would it not be a spesecured. Employ none but competent in cies of phrenzy to elect another in the place structors-men competent to instruct in of him who alone deserves your suffrage .-

RIVINGTON.

> "JAMES B. PLATFORM."-This is now. says the Memphis Eagle and Equirer, the real name of the Democratic candidate for the Presidency. James Buchanan no longer exists, having merged his identity into There are no great crowds abroad now an antomaton called "James B. Platform."

men in the city request him to visit every to these runners, who entice female emi- knocked down and considerably injured.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2940_scm11033-0044