THE UNION FOREVER. Perish the hand that would destroy The temple of our sires! Perish the heart that hopes for joy

In its consuming fires! Let not the monster be forgot Who dares to light the flame, But curse him with a traitor's lot, And with a traitor's name.

Our fainting hopes refuse to die, Our tottering bulwarks stand. And freedom's hanner still floats high O'er a united land! The stars that gem the azure fold May cease awhile to shine:

But tremble not! the arm that holds The flag-staff is divine ! While the dark raven bodes despair, And still our fears renews, The noble eagle, high in air,

His onward way pursues. He dreads not there the tempest's wrath. Though all its thunders roll; But soars above the tempest's path, Exulting to the goal.
