And on the same day the Judge passed the following order nisi

Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County. In Equity.

Ordered that the sales of the estates real and personal of William S. Holliday and others made by Oliver Miller and Alexander Randall Trustees & reported by them to this Court above, be ratified and confirmed unless cause to the contrary be shown, on or before the fourth day of May next: provided a copy of this order be inserted in some newspaper printed at Annapolis once a week in each of three successive weeks before the fourth day of April next. The report states the real estate sold for $1057.00.

Nicht. Brewer Circuit Judge 4 March 1853

Afterwards: to wit, on the 19th March 1853 Stephen Broadbent and others by Frank H. Stockett Esq their Solicitor and B. T. B. Worthington for himself files in said Causes their petition accompanied by sundry Judgments, Executions & Schedules in the words following to wit:

To The Honorable Nicholas Brewer Judge of the Circuit Court of Anne Arundel County in Equity:

The petition of Stephen Broadbent, William G. Chappell, Samuel Hurst, James C. Atter and John C. Hammett of Baltimore City and

Brice T. B. Worthington of the City of Annapolis respectfully states that William S. Holliday of Anne Arundel County being indebted to your petitioners severally, to wit, to your petitioner Stephen in the sum of ninety five dollars, to your petitioner Samuel in the sum of forty three dollars and twenty six cents: to your petitioner William in the sum of forty six dollars and sixty nine cents, and to your petitioner James in the sum of sixty nine dollars and fifty three cents on Judgments rendered in their favour severally with interest and the costs of suit thereon by one James W. Hunter a justice of the peace for Anne Arundel County, they caused executions of fieri facias to be issued thereon and levied in the months of July and August last by the Sheriff of Anne Arundel County on the crop of corn then growing on the farm of said Holliday in this County as will fully appear by said Judgments executions and schedules of levy herewith filed as parts of this petition and marked No 1. No 2. No 3. No 4: and to your petitioner John in the sum of fifty three dollars and fifty six cents on a Judgment rendered by said Hunter with interest and the costs of suit: and to your petitioner Brice in the sum of one hundred and ten dollars and forty six cents on a certain Judgment rendered at April Term 1852 by this Court as a Court of Law with Interest and costs of suit, on which no executions have been issued, as appears by copies of said Judgments herewith filed marked No 5 & No 6. Your petitioners further state that under proceedings filed in this Court by certain Nathan E. Berry and others creditors of the said William S. Holliday, a decree was passed on the 25th day of January last for the Sale of the whole property, real and personal, of said Holliday and appointing Alexander Randall and Oliver Miller Trustees to make said Sale, who have sold the same and made their report thereof to this Court all of which will appear by reference to the papers in said Cause now remaining in this Court, and among the other property the crop of corn which was levied on under executions & Judgments of your petitioners Stephen, Samuel, James and William as is hereinbefore stated. And your petitioners are advised that under the proceedings and decree in said cause, they and all other creditors of said Holliday are authorized to come into this Court to participate in the proceeds of the said Sales according to their respective priorities, and especially are your petitioners Stephen, Samuel James and William advised that their aforesaid executions from the date of their receipt by said Sheriff, became a lien on all the personal property of said Holliday and particularly on the crop of corn so levied on as aforesaid. and sold by said Trustees as aforesaid, and they claim that said executions are therefore entitled to satisfaction out of the proceeds of sales of said property according to their priorities in preference to the debts whether by Judgments or otherwise of their Creditors. Your petitioners further state that they, all, herewith file their claims as before stated and beg leave to become parties to said proceedings, and pray that their claims may all be severally allowed out of the proceeds of said Sales coming into this Court for distribution, according to their several priorities, and as may consist with right and justice in the matter & as in duty &c

Frank H. Stockett for Petitioners Stephen Samuel William James and John.
