[From the New York Dispatch.] MARYLAND-THE UNION'S HEART.

BY AUGUSTINE J. H. DEGANNE. Unroll the Nation's crumpled chart-Half-rent amid Disunion's jars-And mark the State whose loyal heart Beats for the Union stars! Behold a sad majestic shade Beside Potomac's margin stand: One hand on Vernon's tomb is laid-One points—to MARYLAND "Mary!" the name of her whose son Was Freedom's first and greatest one! O WASHINGTON! thy mother's name Could find no worthier strand. Than that which glows with patriot flame-

Unfaltering Maryland ! No need hast thou, O Baltimore! Of monuments to mark thy shore: While roll the waves of Chesapeake, The Fature of thy faith shall speak-While sounds the Union's rallying-cry, Thy brave "DEFENDERS" shall not die! From Allegany's azure edge,

And down Kotocton's misty ridge, And up the ancient Warrior crags, see a thousand starry flags; And, woven with every stripe and star, In scrolls of glory flashing far, Like sacred talisman. see "The Union" writ in light. And hail that motto, proudly bright, "A MERICAN !"

Where Calvert's tolerant footsteps trod And good Charles Carroll worshipp'd God There, deepest in our country's sod, The NATIVE's love bath root: Let slander's tongue the lesson heed, Nor dare proclaim that l'atriot seed Can wax to Bigot fruit!

Heart of the Union !- trebly steel'd. To meet and buffle danger's shocks; Tried-in the changing battle field, True—at the ballot-box! Heart of the Union !- Maryland ! Clasp thou its banner in thy hand-Le this thy feaity's prize! From Susquehanna's joyous tide. And where l'atuxent's waters glide, To Wicomeco's sunlit side, Ye southern maidens rise!

Go, crown with wreaths your patriot hand-Go, bless the brave who loral stand-Go, greet the sons of Marrland With lips, and cheeks, and eyes!

No sweeter lip, or purer check, No brighter eve in love may speak! No warmer heart the world command, Than woman's beart in Maryland! Faithfu! amid the Fa!se! To thee, (), Maryland! be endless fame! Henceforth our Banner-Bearer be-"THE UNION'S HEART" thy name! Our FLAG shall fly-our Uxiox stand, While beats the Heart of Maryland!
