S & Rew engagement.

to execu te all kinc.

4, suc b as Hub

and Fancy Scroll

je ne [4-(y)

BUSINESS.

having incen formed

cenly and Williams

BAIN & PRO

BUSINESS II

& TILGHMAN.

CES.

Ann's county, Md.

d. Ag: Society.

. Senate.

Baltimore,

esville, Va.

MAGIC:

hich to descri be all of

too lengthene d an ad

for the benef a of the t we are so lling the

te, for $25- granding

for $35-gr inding i

or $15-gri ading to within the reach of

me work that in oth

ES. Sole A gent.

W. Pratt street.

an extent never

FOR YOUR SELVES.

t known pe efemer, of whose choice products

ATHERITO F that I

nowledge. I lany of my sefits from t arm and re-

they pose a extraordi-asfe and p socaut to be he them va hed by the

RDLAST, . trites from

e taken yor ar Pills with

of late year a overtaken

of your Pit's cured no.

t feel it a pleasure to

of the Penn. Radroad edelph a. Dec. 13, 1853.

g de ived very material

Per toral and Cathorie

on my tamily, nor shall one will procure them

VE 48, M. D., of West

fur actions of the lives.

stiv eness, and the great

nen d these Fills to the tas e ever found They pe fectly safe, qualities article for public use.

r Cherry Pretoral as the d, a old these Pills age in

I have been afficied

s w. c-t form, and now,

red in a few week- be of re pricing I write, man

free from this both-one is it a stacked on eye me pertly hald all my my fact, and kept it for free from the complaint r, and my bair has com which makes me feet

the means of converies

others, I am, with every

MARIA RICKER."
d Maria kicker from her

trictly tru s.
V. J. MESERVE,
h Manufacturing Co."

ip Marion, writer from a a bilious attack which ver, which had become ed me to health. I have which had troubled him ays they had cured him the world, and I am free

Solicitor of the Supreme a have made him well neighboring States. belease, 5ch April, 1854 in assuring you that my much benefited by your two years since, of a roug Cherary Pectodal.

rom attacks of the laftiinvaluable remedy isc ric Pills have entirely costiveness, which has indeed this cure is much if I had failed to get relief
his section of the country was remedies I had taken.

providential blessing be

VITT THAXTER."

. Ohio, April Sek, 1854.

1: I have made a three a, left me by your agent.
he dreadful Rheumaticius

nt doses have entirely tter bealth now than he ute entirely to the affects

who are publich known mist, Lowell, Mass.

ents, Easton, Md.

H. C. MLCKET.

ng Agend. june7-5

amask Table Lines.

C. AYER,

With great respect,

try, but a few deses of

ze wi mt I have suffered,

be: I are a surer scenedy

ral many y care in my

By Medic inc.

₹'S

set up in n'it Ware.

ny time, w orked by

Ba himore.

fully warre sted.

to busine 88 to ment

. BALTIMORE.

EASTON, Md., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1856.

ALFRED P. JUMP, ATTORNEY AT LAW. Caston, Mid.,

TATILL practice in Talbot and adjoining coon ties, and attend punctually to all business entrusted to his care. CLAIMS of all kinds collected and payments promptly made over Or He may be found at the "Gazette" Office.

DENTISTRY. DR. BAIRD, would must respecifully inform the citizens of Easton and the surrounding country, that he will be in Easton during the first weeks in August, October and December, and at such other times as his services may be called for. 35 A line addressed to him at Cambridge will) June 22-6m ment with prompt attention.

A. B. PRITCHETT. CHBINEL WYREB TAS his shop on Dover street, a few steps from Washington street, where he is preguared to make up Cabinet Work of the various kinds. All orders for COFFINS promptly attended to, and Cuffins sent to any part of the County required. O:ders for any work in his line of business lest with Mr. Sam'l Patchett will receive

A. B. P. FASHIONABLE TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT.

Fall and Winter Fashions.

TOIIN ' R. MORTIMER begs leave to inform the citizens of Faston and the public generally, that he has made himself thoroughly acquainted with the latest and most approved Rules of Cutting, and having fitted up his establishment, immediately opposite Campbell's Drug Store, he is now prepared to execute, in the neatest style, all orders committed to him. He earnestly solicits his friends and the public prompt attention.

LOB ADABBEFL

THE subscriber hast just returned home with a first rate assortment of Clothes, Cassimeres & l'es.

as handsome Black & Fancy Cloths. Also, Cassimeres of all colors and quality. and Vestings to match.

Come and see for yourself at my old stand. No. 1, turned from business one evening. JOHN SATTERFIELD.

CO-PARTNERSERP.

Chimneys. They will keep constantly on hand to demand. best manner. When not engaged in the country ed. they can be found at their residence in Faston. JOS. NEWNAM.

JAS. R. WRIGHT. August 18, 1856. Jaug 23-1f

COLLECTOR'S NOTICE. IlliE substriber informs the tax payers of Tal I hope they will be promptly paid, as I shall aim the exception. to dose my collections within the time prescribed by law. The commissions paid for collecting the taxes are not sufficient to justify me in riding the county to make repeated calls on delinquents, therefore I shall expect tax payers to call on me at once, and settle their taxes. To enable persons to sare the four per cent discount on their State ring this month (September.) I shall be in Easton for a suitable reply for this query. every Tuesday, at Trappe every other Saturday. beginning with to day, and at St Michaels when ceipt for taxes for me during any day in the week nobody thought them pleasant. for the Easton, Trappe and Chapel Districts. JAMES HARRISON, Jr.

WHEELWRIGHTING -AND-BLACKSMITHING.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his cus-Luners and the public generally that he still continues to carry on the above business near a manner that cannot fail to give entire satisfac- I think so." time, and on terms as accommodating as the times will admit of. He will warrant all new work tnade by him.

He has in his employ an experienced BLACK. SMITH, who is prepared to execute work in the time." various branches of that leasiness in the hest manner and with the utmost promptness. Particular Cash will be required. In this line of his busi- The ness he can't be beat-try him.

All orders promptly attended to in person, and a discount of 6 per cent, will be made on all cash payments. He edicits the business of farmers, gossip party, at which the vinegar-faced laand tupes by strict attention, by dispatch in the dies will traduce the characters of their execution of all orders, and by the use of none but neighbors?" the best materials, to retain the public confidence . There are to be no such ladies there.' and a continuance of the patronage heretofore extended to him.

JAMES AUSTIN.

AND HARNESS MAKIMG.

THE subscriber (surviving partner of Ander- too much of me.' son & Hopkins) takes this method of informing his friends and the public generally that he has taken the shop, stock, &c., of the late firm, day." and will hereafter carry on the COACH-MAKING BUSINESS in his own name. From his long exhimself that he will be able to give general satis- thoughts." tion to business, to merit a continuance of that far pend upon having you there. vor and patronage which have heretofore been so ! liberally extended toward him.

He is prepared to manufacture Carriages of all plied Charles, indifferently. kinds to order, in a very superior manner, at short 'I am so disappointed." notice, and on reasonable terms. Repairing also executed with neatness and despatch.

and all new work warranted for 12 months. mar 29-y SAM'L B. HOPKINS.

lot for sale by DOT 15 J. H. GRACE. CHRISTMAS COMES!

Merry, merry Christmas comes! Cold December, bright December, Gayest month of all the year, Bids us now, the time remember, When a new light had its birth, When a bright "Star," dropped on earth. Wise men, with an eager eye, Journied westward night and day, Guided by a wondrous Star, Where the spotlees infant lay, Juda's "Star," the Fing of Kings! Lord of Lords! above all things. Precious jewels, brought these men,

Which they offered at his feet-Myrrh and costly frankincense-Worshipping, rejoiced to greet Emanuel, the Gentiles friend, Whom God in mercy deigned to send. Shepberds, as by night they watched, O'er their flock of snowy white, Suddenly, beheld a form, Lo! a wondrous Angel bright, Close beside them sweetly told, Of a mighty one on earth-Of a "Shepherd," for the fold ! Of a Saviour, born to give Ransome that mankind may live!

And a mighty host from God, Anthems, beavenly anthems sing, To the new-born child, the Christ, To the Holy one, our king! Mounting, as their music ceased, To the haven of the blessed !

Trembling, these poor Shepherds sought, Where the blessed lamb reposed-In a manger, filled with hay, Sweetly THERE, the infant dozed-And the wondrous Star hung o'er, l'ointing to the humble door. This is Christmas-this the day,

Hailed by princes, thrones and powers, By the milions o'er the world, Deemed the happiest of bours-And all people, tongues proclaim Emanuel! that blessed name. Merry, merry Christmas comes! Cold December, bright December, Gayest month of all the year, Whisper now, the time remember, When a strange mysterious birth, When a "Star" illumed the earth! DEC. 13, 1856.

BY OLIVER OPTIC.

My Overcoating is also of of July, Charles, and we are invited," said broken, and Squire Epson had actually of sensibility. The horse, after throwing him, first rate quality, suitable for young and old .- Mrs. Ellenwood to her husband, as he re- fered three hundred and fifty dollars, before had leaped over a fence down a steap em-"A picnic?" replied Charles, with the broken, and his wrist sprained.

cle of the organ.

Bricks of the best material for Graves, which they | "l'icnics are a great bore;" said Charles body seemed disposed to have him even at beam of consciousness. to do. They will execute with dispatch all work Ellenwood, giving expression to the senthis rate.

"Don't you like picnics?"

'I am sorry you don't like picnics.' 'Picnics are intolerable nuisances,' perbut come'y that he is prepared to receive sisted the husband, taking it for granted you buy that horse." their State and Commanty Taxes for the year 1856. that his opinion was the rule—and his wife's

'I'm sure they are very pleasant.' 'Pleasant?'

'I think so.' 'No body else does.'

'What do they have them for?' 'Sure enough! What do they have them

But his profound and far-reaching mind

'They are fashionable,' said be.

other sphere in society.' 'I don't think so.'

'I'had made up my mind to go.' 'Had you?'

'I have been looking forward all day to a 'At a picnic?'

'The more fools they.' 'I know it will be very pleasant.'

'What will it be, my dear, but a kind of storm that was brewing.

'Always are.' 'But, Charles, you will go to please me.'

'I couldn't think of going on any account.' be law to me, yet.. 'Not to please me i' 'I would do anything to please you, my peace.'

dear; but going to a picnic is really asking

'Don't be odd, Charles.'

'What will the folks think?'

faction, and hopes by a prompt and faithful atten- But it will look so strange. They de- and was ready to take any decided step the beauty of woman.

'The best calculations fail at times,' re-

'Isn't it selfish of you to refuse to go to a place where I wish to go so much?"

had been married only about two years, and lown way.

ry Ann Ellenwood to her husband. wife had a will of her own.

'Why not?' asked Charles, rather coldly. proach her. 'I should never be easy for a moment if It was possible that Charles had met with On our way to dinner vesterday, we found will not heal sound. If the bone be affec-You think so.'

not make it so.' 'Everybody thinks so.'

'Everybody is a fool, then.' son, threw him off, almost killed him.' 'Farmer May's son did not know how to manage him.' 'Of course I can.'

cessary upon so plain a question. He un- her side of the question. derstood a horse; knew how to break a 'Mary Ann,' said he, 'you must go to my would have moved a heart of stone. Three giving your old trees in the orchard, a good horse, could manage a tractious horse which house and stay with your sister for a tew infants, who could not have been more dressing of some kind of fertilizer, to renew no one else could manage; in short, he was days.' a regular Disbrow-in his own estimation. It is true, he had never had much expe- eyes filling with tears rience with horses, and especially not with fractious horses; but then it was an easy matter. He was fond of horses, delighted 'We will bring him to his senses first. No roof being now removed, its helpless in- and yourself a day or two, and put round to ride after a spirited animal, and had man- one shall know anything about it but your mates were exposed to the cold Novomber each tree a load or two of barn-yard mausactured a little equestrian theory of his sister and mysels." own. If the horse attempted to run, he She complied, and Henry procured a their plaintive cries. NORMAN. | would do so and so; if he reared and plun- conveyance to hunt up the fugitive. By | Where were the unnatural parents? No from the road-side, or leaves, and scraping ged, he would do so and so; and if the rein constantly inquiring at the places he pas- one could answer this question, and we of woods or swamps. It will pay. You One's Meat Another's Poison, should happen to break, he would leap out sed through, he succeeded in tracing Charles passed on to dinner. The infants were re- cannot expect that your trees will support

"Our folks are going to have a splendid imal, but a mere colt. People said he had beed thrown from his horse that mornpicnic down to Swaan's Grove, on the 4th would bring five hundred dollars, if well ing, and was at the tavern in a state of inthe accident by which Jim May had his leg bankment, and broken his neck.

slightest perceptible curl in the lower mus- Then it was decided that the horse was as he had suspected, found his brother invicious and Farmer May would not keep law was the stranger. He took such steps short illness from brain fever, aged 19 years. dent of the Country Gentleman says:-"Yes, Charles, a picnic," added the him. He offered to sell him to Squire Ep- as were required for the recovery of the This young lady was engaged to be mar- "I have had some experience in saving dersigned for the parpose of Grave Brick- young wife, with quite as much enthusiasm son for two hundred dollars; but the Squire injured man. In the course of the night ing. Street Paring. Repairing and putting up as the important nature of the affair seem wouldn't have him as a gift. Then the ow- he came to his senses. He faintly whisner offered to sell him for fifty dollars. No- pered the name of his wife, with the first was bespoken. To-day, the flowers that in the field, and dig a trench, say two feet in their line of business at short notice and in the tence which the nasal curl had foreshadow- Charles Ellenwood wanted a horse, but his case a hopeful one. He was seriously was buried in her wedding robes this mor- inches between the rails—then lay carrots he could hardly afford to buy and keep one. injured, and it would require two or three ning. The cheapness of the splendid animal temp- weeks to restore him. ted him, and he talked of buying him. - 'My wife,' faintly murmured the sick 'Picnics are a nuisance,' continued Charles His wife was alarmed. In spite of his vaun- man. ted skill in the management of horse-flesh, she had little confidence in him.

'I shall never enjoy a moment's peace if 'I suppose not.'

'He will certainly kill you.' 'I am surprised, Mary Ann, that you? A trusting, confiding wife, it seems to me, stand by my bedside.'

ought to distrust the judgment and ability of her husband.' ·Can't help it, Charles; the horse is very Henry relented at last, and promised that brittle hold on lifetax, which they may do by paying their taxes du- for?' and Charles was a little nonplussed ugly; don't buy him. If you love me, he should see his wife. On the following

Charles, dont't. For a week the wife coutinued her op-streaming eyes he begged her forgiveness. not on a cruise in other parts of the county. Mr. immediately divested the reason why they position to the fractious horse. Although which was readily granted. Charles Rubinson, in Easten, will receive and re. had picnics when they were a nuisance and she based her opposition on the ground of | 'I am ready to yield my will, Charles,' would not live in almost any place where in the several cities, and going over all the danger her husband would incur, it was replied she, as she kissed the pale cheek of the young ladies are addicted to the delious names separates, by his extraordinary memquite probable that she had, by this time, the sick man. 'Picnics fashionable!' exclaimed the lady come to some interest in carrying her point. I shall be willing to yield mine in the as follows: in surprise. 'Did you ever hear of the Fitz- She wished to prevent her husband from future, my dear wife. If I had listened to Quaker voung ladies in the Maine Law firms and directions in other cities as well herberts or the Arlingtons going to one?' buying the horse, and it is human nature to you, this thing would not have happened.' States, it is said, still continue to kiss the as in his own. Thousands of dollars have good which that success might produce. is one's meat is another's poison. 'Don't you?' asked Mr. Ellenwood, with desiring only to carry her point. He ar- Mary Ann. I was wrong.' Skipton. He has now on hand a lot of the best the air of one who intended to say, 'i'ts of gued that she wished to rule him, to con- What is one's meat is another's poison. with all the dignity of an executive officer, The St. Louis Republican of Thursday last, a manner that cannot fell to put up new work in little consequence what you think, provided trol his action; in fine, to subject him to Husband must yield, wife must yield, wife must yield, wife must yield, wife must yield.— and the innocence of a dove, with the gives the following account of the discovery

May, he bought the horse. when her husband rode the horse into the to the peace of the household. yard. She had hoped she possessed influ-'Certainly, Charles. Our tolks are all ence with him to prevent the purchase.

she asked.

'Oh, Charles!'

'Come. now, I don't want a 'scene.' bed Mary Ann.

'You can if you wish.'

which the circumstances seem to require.

night darkened upon her, and Charles did her own chamber she can be physician to yesterday what made her stick out so and 'It is wrong in you, Mary Ann, to wish not come. One by one, the hours struck hereelf, and will soon learn, as millions she said "hush!"

For the Easton Gazette. | me to go to a place of which I have a de- through the long, long night, and he came have already learned, that she has found | Sores on Horse and Cattle - A cor-

more about picnics. If I do I will quit the ed for her safety. He had left the house in been published of the experience of others, Lime and lard are the best application to a fit of anger. He was angry with her- who suffered as she suffered and have been old, bad sores, of any kind that I vecow. The young and loving wife wept. They angry because she had sought to have her restored by the same means.

never yielded to her. Her wishes were are called the proprieties of life; but a sense a bottle, cork tight, and keep it in a dark Don't buy that horse, Charles,' said Ma- heeded, and she could not reconcile the i- of duty has impelled us to glance at one of place from the light and air, and it will dea that she was never to have any influ- the most valuable peculiarities of Hollo- keed good for years. Take one part of It was a year after the event of our first ence with her husband. She asked herself way's remedies, and we feel assured that lime to three parts of lard, in bulk, and chapter. Somehow during that year there -if she had ever been imperious and un- our motives will be appreciated .- N. Y. mix them well, cold, and apply a prohad been trequent disagreements between reasonable. She telt that she had never Sunday Times. them. It was unfortunate that the young desired to exercise an undue influence over tujured him. It might be that he was dead. Dearborn streets, a crowd of person, whose ought not to till the bone shall be healed .-Her heart beat quickly as she thought of excited gestures, and eager language beto- Sores healed under this treatment always He meant, but did not say-That does these things. What should she do? She kened a scene of unusual excitement. On heal sound. If fungus be in the sore, this could not expose her unhappy domestic re- hastening to the spot, which our readers ointment will clear it all out, and keep it lations, and yet she must. While she was will recognize as the recent site of Doan's out.

She could only tell him that Charles had of buildings, the cause of the excitement be necessary for the different strength of the gone off on horseback the evening before. became at once evident. 'Can you manage him any better?' asked He was surprised, mystified; and Mary Ann The workman, in the progress of their fore he would be satisfied.

Henry understood the character of Charles the roof of what proved to be a subterrane- trees in autumn, is another which, in jus-Charles did not deem any argument ne- and was ready at once to place himself on an apartment. The sight thus suddenly tice to old trees, we would beg leave to.

'Has he not left you?' 'But he will come back.'

upon his back and take him by the ears. to a village about twenty miles from his tained, we understood by one of the work- you, year after year with fruit, and the soil The horse in question was a splendid an- residence. There he learned that a man men. - Chicago Times, 7th inst.

Henry sought out the wounded man, and,

In the morning the physician pronounced

'You have descrited her, have you not? said Henry rather imprudently.

'God torgive me!' groaned Charles. was wrong and unreasonable.' 'You were.' 'Can I not see her?'

'You have chosen for yourself.'

'God forgive me!' day Mary Ann was at his bedside. With

'You have bought him, have you Charles?' Solace FOR THE SICK .- Science would curls, raises her sylph-like form upon her ingit, the body of a young child was found, lack the grand charm that sheds a halo over tiptoe; and with her angelic features lit up brutally mirdered. Its head was so thor-I have, he replied coldly, for he saw the its labors, if the gentler sex were not made with a smile as sweet as heaven, placed her oughly crushed, that, to keep it together, that sex the medical discoveries of the dis-strawberry, honeysuckle, sunflower, rose- one side a hole was made, evidently by tinguished philanthropist, Professor Hollo- Lud, nectar lips against yours and (Oh Jeru- blows with a hammer. The orifice was 'How could you buy that horse, when way, have been singularly beneficial. For salem! hold us!) busses you by crackey!! found stuffed with old rags. you knew I didn't wish you to do so?' sob- the complaints peculiar to the female organ- Hurrah! for the gals and the Maine Law, ization, and which are borne with a forti- and death to all opposition. 'I was not aware that your word was to tude rarely exhibited by man, Holloway's Pills have been for twenty years adminis-'I shall never have another moment's tered with wooderful success. In those crises of woman's life the dawn of womanhood and the commencement of old age, as vigor and maturity every sort of generous The poor wife wept as though her heart well as in the innumerable cases requiring and honest feeling that belongs to our nature ould break. Charles was discusted — medical assistance which occur between To bring the dispositions that are levely would break. Charles was disgusted .- medical assistance which occur between 'I'm as even as the sky in a summer's Such scenes as we have described had be- these two important epochs, the mild and come quite frequent. She, fearing that her restorative action of this great remedy is of the commonwealth; so to be patriots as up. influence was gone, was very unhappy; and attested by the strongest vouches. Nor is They can suit themselves in that res- he, satisfied that his wife wished to control the Ointment less highly appreciated as a perience in the business he flatters pect. I have no desire to control their him, was indignant, and quite as miserable remedy for the eruptions and other exteras she was. He deemed himself a martyr, nal disfigurements which sometimes cloud ation. To be fully persuaded that all virtue to Mary Ann wept incessantly for an hour, or daughter languishing under the attack of in a course which leads us to act with effect Go and said a great many bitter things. Charles disease; the lustre fading from her eyes, and energy than to loiter out our days withgot out of patience, and bolted out of the the rose from her cheek, and premature de-Charles whispered an opera air. When house. Scarcely knowing what he did, in crepitude prostrating her energies in the against his duty who sleeps upon his watch, eople hegin to which the which is the state of the energy. people begin to whistle in the house after the excitement of the moment, he went to morning or the prime of life. Perhaps the as well as he that goes over to the enemy. He has now on hand and ready for sale a fine a controversey, the presumption is that they the barn, and saddled the horse which had innate sensitiveness and delicacy of her named sense and second hand, of various patterns and finish.

—Burket. been the cause of all the trouble. Moun ture forbid her to disclose the cause of the which he would respectfully invite the public to Tall and the week preceding the 4th of ting him, he rode furiously down the road. difficulty, or if she seeks medical aid she which he would respectfully invite the public to July, the disappointed wife tried in vain to The wife retired to her chamber, and fin- finds little or no relief from stereotyped hoops:

Little or no relief from stereotyped hoops:

Little or no relief from stereotyped hoops: Orders from a distance punctually attended to, persuade her husband to attend the picnic, ished the day in weeping over the coldness prescriptions. Fornished with Holloway's Charles was obstinate. It was asking too and indifference of her husband. She was remedies she needs no professional adviser. much of him to attend a picnic, and he got conscious that she had done nothing that The directions acquaint her with the man-ask?" ERINO SHIRTS-A very large and cheap, ill-natured as also continued to importune could reasonably offend her husband. The ner of their use. In the quiet seclusion of the true elizer vita. As the glow of health respondent of the Maine Farmer, in reply returns to her dimmed eyes, elasticity to to an inquiry by another correspondent for Day dawned, and hour by hour sped by, her step, and cheerfulness to her heart, she a cure of a bad sore on a horse's shoulder, 'That will do; don't let me hear any but Charles did not come. She was alarm- will realize in her own feeling all that has gives the following prescription:

she had not yet learned to submit to all her Perhaps she was wrong. Yet he had to be explicit, without trenching upon what sift through a fine sieve. Put the flour in her husband. Her conscience did not re- A Case of Horrible Destitution-A the sore descends below the outward opening FAMILY LIVING UNDER THE PAVEMENT .- it must be opened to the bottom, or it you had that horse. He's so skittish and an accident. Perhaps the unruly horse had collected near the corner of Randolph and ted the sore probably will not heal, and his wife; but conscious it was a daring que- was obliged to tell him the whole story be- task had removed some dozen of the planks MANURING THE ORCHARD.—In connecof the side-walk, and in so doing removed tion with the subject of transplanting young presented to the view of the spectators urge upon your attention. It is that of than a few weeks old, were lying, without their strength and energy, and rouse them And Charles asked the poor wife, her a particle of clothing, upon a rude bed up to action another season. The fall is a which was found to be made of dried husks good time to do this. You cannot expend of corn. There was not another single ar- time, money and labor in a more useful ticle of furniture in the apartment, and the manner than by taking your man and team, Winds, and made the air resound with nure or musk, or, if you do not have either account of the death of a young lady: Miss Anna M. Lachaise, daughter of Maine Farmer. James M. Lachaise, of this city, died on ried to a gentleman of this city, imme- carrots for spring feeding. After they are diately on her arrival, and the bridal wreath pulled and topped, I make a smooth place were to have adorned her nuptials are wide, six or eight inches deep, and then' strewn upon the bridal bed of death! She lay in two rails-leaving a space of eight friends on board; and there was one who can make your pit any desred length; cover day; and when the good news was tele- es of dirt; but be sure that the ends of the graphed-"the Arago is below"-he went rails be left open so that the air will pass ship to welcome the bride of his heart, he this way I have kept mine for a number of 'She will forgive me! I will go down found that "the soul of his soul's idol" had years in good order." have so little confidence in your husband. upon my knees before her. Only let her just departed. The cold casket was there, but the beautiful jewel was gone. It is a A PHILANTHROPIC GENTLEMAN.-Lists sad thing, at best, to fix one's affections on of missent letters sometimes appears in the these lovely, yet perishable beings, whose papers that should have gone to houses in

-"Is like the spider's thread, That breaks at every breeze."

A Delicious Temperance Test .- Who occupation, takes the published list of letters'

'Perhaps not; they are the fashion of an make success an object, independent of any I will not reproach you Charles. What lips of the young temperance men, to see thus been sent to their owners that would' if they have been tampering with liquor .- have else gone to the "dead letter" office. Charles Ellenwood looked upon her as 'I thought you were trying to rule me, Just imagine a beautiful young girl approaching your young temperance man, HORRIBLE CASE OF CHILD MURDER, "petticoat government." He resolved to What one likes the other will not like. It charge: Mr. Ike P., the ladies believe you of the body of a murdered imant in that resist, and the next time he saw Farmer will not do for me to insist with arbitrary are in the habit of tampering with liquor, city: will upon a given point. Compromise, and they have appointed me to examine The coroner resterday found a small cof-Mary Ann was astonished and indignant which sacrifices no principle, is necessary you according to our established rules-are fin of walnut with a silver cross on the top. you willing? you must acquiesce. She It was buried in a dirt heap, where a poind steps gently up to you, lays her soft arms was being filled up, near the corner of HINT FOR THE HOME CIRCLE- around your neck, dashes back her raven O'Fallon and Fifteenth streets. On openparticipants of the benefits it imparts. To rich, rosy, pouty, sweet, sugar, molasses, it had been bound round with a cloth. On'

> SELF-CULTURE.—It is our buisness to cultivate in our minds, to rear to the utmost in private life into the service and conduct vate friendship and to incur enmities. model our principles to our duties and situ-It is a terrible thing to see a beloved wife rather to run the risk of falling into faults

> > Here is a last "good thing" about the self from motives of delicacy.

Little Boy-"Ma, what is husb?" Mother-"Why my dear? why do you kansas, Senate died a few days ago' feet

Little Boy-"Because I asked sister Jane

ADVEBTISEMENTS,

Not exceeding one square, (12fines) inserte THREE TIMES FOR ONE DOLLAR and TWESTT-FIVE cents for each subsequent inserton. Longer ones in proportion. A liberal deduction to yearly advertisers. Advertisements not marked the number of insertions desired, will be continued entif [] forbid, and charged accordingly.

Merchants and others who advertise by the year, will in no case be allowed to insert any advertisement not connected with their regular businese, without an additional charge.

All orders addressed to the editor, post-paid, will No. 1. receive prompt attention.

especially if the bone is any affected. The subject is one on which it is difficult | Take good stone lime, slake dry, and > per quantity to the sore twice a day and cleanse well each time with soap suds. If deliberating in terrible suspense, her broth- fruit store now removed, and where work- The above proportions are about right, But he ran away with Farmer May's er-in-law, Henry Raymond, called to see men are engaged in making excavation for but the applicant will soon learn to vary the foundation of a new and splendid block them if necessary. Some allowance will > of those to spare, some chip dirt, or loam in which they are placed never become exhausted. If you would have continued A SAD EVENT .- The New York Mirror heat from the fire, you must add fuel. If of Saturday relates the following pathetic you would have continued fruit from your trees, you must add manure to them .-

> board the Arago on the 3d instant, after a How to SAVE CARROTS .- A corresponover these rails so as to leave the space The delay in the arrival of the steamer open; then pile on the carrots, say three caused some anxiety among those who had feet high and four wide. In this way you watched at the wharf until midnight on Fri- it with a coat of straw and about four inchhome to his friends inexpressibly happy .- through from one end to the other, and The next morning, on going early to the they will not rot or freeze to injure. In

New York, Boston, Baltimore, &c. The New York News says that this list is made by Mr. Walter B. Dick, of Philadelphia, a retired merchant, who, for sake of the custom, which is set forth by an exchange, ory, the letters that lie misdirected in dif-

WHAT THEY ARE LIKE .- Men are like bugles-the more brass they contain the frither vou can hear them. Women are like tulips-the more modest and retired they appear, the better you love Printers are like patient wives with dissipated husbands-they are used to'setting

Not long since a rotth older in wits than years after being cateshised concerning the power of God, replied, "Ma, there is one thing God can't do."

"What is it?" eagerly inquired the moth-God can't make Bill Jones's mouth any

An exchange paper very gravely informs us that a young man who was recently bathing in the Missisippi river seeing a number of ladies approach drowned him

Hon. John Berry, a member of the Arthe bite of a spider.

The lady who burst with laughter was immediately kooped up

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2940_scm11033-0078

And a glare of heavenly light-Prostrate, on the ground with fear, Every one lay trembling near.