"Complainants Exhibit No 2."

Dear Catharine
May 6th 1843
I have just received your letter and I am sorry that it is not in my power to comply with your request. I never was in such distress for money if I had or could get it you should not ask me twice for to lend you some Rosin is harassing me for money to pay his bill for what I got for you.
I never gave any of your mothers daughters the sum you say I did but if it was in my power to give you money I would with pleasure but you know my unhappy situation I walked six miles last week to get some money that was owing me and could not get one cent the times are so bad I know them to be honest people and would pay me if they had it.
God bless and protect you is the ardent wish of your unhappy Grand mother
If you could get any person to lend one hundred dollars I could pay them in August when I have money to receive in good hands.
