This indenture, made this twenty second day of November, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and fifty two, between the Cumberland Coal and Iron Company, incorporated by an act of the General Assembly of the State of Maryland, passed at December Session, 1840. Chapter 344 of the first part, and James Brown, John E. Williams and Lovell Holbrook, of the State of New York, trustees, as hereinafter mentioned, of the second part. Whereas, by full authority, and power given by the Stockholders of the Cumberland Coal and Iron Company to the President and Directors of said Company, the said President and Directors of said Company were authorized and Empowered to issue bonds of said Company, payable to bearer, and not Exceeding the sum of nine hundred thousand dollars, bearing interest from the first day of January last past, payable semi annually in sums of convenient amount, the payment of which according to their tenor was to be Secured by a deed of trust Executed to the said party hereto of the second part, conveying to them, intrust as herein done, all the mines, railroads, real and mixed Estate of said Company for this purpose. And Whereas, in pursuance of the power and authority so conferred, bonds of the said Company have been issued by the said President and Directors, all bearing Equal date herewith to the amount of Eight hundred and twenty five thousand dollars, Each bond being for the sum of $1,000, all payable on the first day of January, Eighteen hundred and fifty six, at the Office of Brown, Brothers & Company in the City of Baltimore, with interest thereon in the meantime payable on the first day of January and July in Each year, until they become due, and which bonds are respectively numbered from number one to number Eight hundred and twenty five, both inclusive, and all of which are payable to bearer. And Whereas, also for the purpose of securing the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds, according to the tenor aforesaid, these presents are Executed, Now therefore, this indenture Witnesseth, that the said party of the first part hereto, in consideration of the premises and for the further consideration of five dollars to him paid, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and the said party of the second part forever released and discharged from the payment of the same by these presents, hath, granted, bargained and sold, aliened, remised, released, conveyed and confirmed, and by these presents, doth give, grant, bargain, and sell, alien, enfeoff, release, convey and confirm unto the said James Brown, John E. Williams and Lovell Holbrook, and to the Survivors and Survivor of them, and to the heirs and assigns of said Survivor, all the mines and railroads, and Each and Every of them, and the real and mixed property and Estate of the said Cumberland Coal and Iron Company, lying and being in the County of Allegany, in the State of Maryland aforesaid, hereinafter mentioned and described; and also all other mines and railroads and Each and Every of them, and all the real and mixed property and Estate of the said Cumberland Coal and Iron Company, whether lying and being in the said County of Allegany and State of Maryland, or not; and also Whether the same shall herein after named, mentioned, specified, described, set forth or referred to; and in all cases Where the said real, mixed property and Estate hereinafter named, mentioned, specified, described, set forth or referred to, are called and mentioned by name or number, it is the intention of the said party of the first part by these presents to give, grant, bargain, sell, alien, remise, release, convey and confirm the same to the said James Brown, John E. Williams and Lovell Holbrook and to the Survivors and Survivor of them, and the heirs and assigns of said Survivor, to and with the same Extent force and Effect as if the said tracts and parcels of lands were herein after fully set forth, bounded and described; and in all cases where parts and parcels of land of any particular tract of land are mentioned and described as part or parcels of any named or numbered tract of land, and for the more full description of which, hereby sold and conveyed or intended so to be, references are herein after made to certain deeds, conveyances, deeds or records, as containing the full description, metes and bounds of such parcel of land: it is the intention of the said party of the first part, by these presents, to grant, bargain and sell the same to and with the same Extent, fact and Effect as if said parts or parcels were herein fully bounded and described. Said property hereby sold conveyed is as follows to wit: All that part of a tract of land called the "Walnut Vale" containing about three hundred and forty Eight acres of land, which was sold and conveyed to a certain John Neff, by Frisby Highman and Louisa Highman, and Sarah Hunt and Sarah Hunt, by a deed bearing date June 16th 1822 and recorded among the Land Records of said Allegany County, in the State of Maryland in Liber A.B. No 2 folio 180 and 181, a reference to which being hereby the metes and bounds of the same will fully appear, it being the same part of said tract of land hereby bargained and sold, is intended so to be. Also all that tract of land called the "Mans of Meath" containing, clear of all conflicting Elder tracts of land about three
