December Term 1857.

This cause is continued from Liber W.A.S. No 4 Folio 548 to 620.

"Interrogatories"

Daniel B. Banks and others
vs
Mary Barney and others
No 1848

In Baltimore County Court on the Equity side thereof

Cross Interrogatories to be propounded on behalf of the Complainants to Mrs Mary Barney a witness produced sworn and examined on behalf of the Defendants before Frederick Pinkney Esq Commissioner.

1st What personal property was Hannah Kitty Chase possessed of on the 2nd day of August 1844 or at any time subsequent 2d You say that he resorted to every means to obtain her property state what the means were that you refer to.

3d Do you know of certain promissory notes signed by Hannah Kitty Chase to the order of William Chase Barney and which you and Mrs Oldfield advised Daniel B. Banks to purchase for the purpose of being the sole creditor of Mrs Chase and to keep the notes off the street;

4th Did William Chase Barney ever give any notes in exchange for Mrs Chase's notes

5th You say that she conversed with you in reference to giving money, did she not tell you also that she had given him notes

J. Malcolm
Solicitor for the Complainants

"Interrogatories"

Daniel B. Banks and others
vs
Mary Barney and others
No 1848

In Baltimore County Court in the Equity side thereof.

Cross. Interrogatories to be propounded on behalf of the Complainants to Mrs Catharine E. Oldfield a witness produced sworn and examined on behalf of the Defendants before Frederick Pinkney Esq. Commissioner

1st Did any of the other members of your mothers family endeavor to obtain money, notes or property from Mrs Chase and did they obtain any, If so, state what property it was and who obtained it

2d Do you know of certain promissory notes signed by Mrs Chase to the order of William Chase Barney and which you and your mother Mrs Mary Barney advised Daniel B. Banks to purchase for the purpose of being the sole creditor of Mrs Chase and to keep the notes off the street.

J. Malcolm
Solicitor of the Complainants

"Interrogatories"

Banks and Stewart
vs

In Baltimore County Court on the