William T. Hamilton Solr for Complainant

Interrogatory to Mrs Elizabeth Emmert on re-examination

John Reynolds next friend to Larcina E. Schindel vs Andrew J. Schindel — No 1382 Equity

Interrogatory to be propounded to Mrs Elizabeth Emmert on re-examination

1st In your answer to the Sixth Interrogatory you state that Andrew called Barbara in the morning, got his breakfast and then left for as he said his fathers; How do you know this;

William T. Hamilton Solr for Complainant

Additional Interrogatories to Mrs Elizabeth Emmert on re-examination

John Reynolds next friend to Larcina E. Schindel vs Andrew J. Schindel — In Equity No 1382.

Interrogatories to be propounded to Mrs Elizabeth Emmert on re-examination

1st During the time the said Larcina was very sick and taking medicine did Andrew constantly remain in the room with her;

2d Was he or not during the time absent; How often, and when was he;

3d In your Answer to the 21st Interrogatory you state that Larcina told Andrew that he should not attend to her himself; Did Andrew in that conversation say anything about money that he intended to furnish her, or where he should deposit it, to which your answer above is supposed to reply;

William T. Hamilton Solr for Complainant

Interrogatories to Samuel E. Schindel on re-examination

John Reynolds next friend to Larcina E. Schindel vs Andrew J. Schindel — In Equity No 1382.

Interrogatories to be propounded to Samuel E. Schindel on re-examination

1st Mrs Julianna Schindel in answer to the 12th interrogatory put to her by the defendant states that in a conversation with you about Andrew and his wife you said that Larcina said she "wished Andy would die" State the whole conversation, and if any at all, to the best of your recollection: How it occurred; What was said; And when it was; And whether you are certain in your recollection as to what you now state; Did you ever hear Larcina say that she wished Andy was dead;

2d Did you ever hear your mother Mrs Julianna Schindel complain about the ill temper and disposition of Andrew; When and where and in what did she say;

3d Ann Amelia Schindel in answer to the 14th interrogatory put to her by the defendant states that she heard you say that Larcina "wished Andy was dead" and to the Cross interrogatory put by Complainant says that it was the same conversation which you had with your mother, and which has already been given; Now state whether you ever said so to her; Was she present when you had this conversation with your mother; Did you know whether she was in an adjoining room; Was the door open; Could you see her in it; If there did she remain any time and whilst, in what was she engaged;

4th Ann Amelia in answer to the 4th Cross Interrogatory say that Larcina got angry with her at tea because she asked you "who you were going to vote for; Have you any recollection of this occurrence, and whether Larcina exhibited ill temper upon this occasion towards her;

5th In answer to the 5th Cross Interrogatory Ann Amelia states that Larcina was talking all the time Cordelia was being examined; State whether this was so; Was there by any conversation had by her any interruption of the examination; Did she or not listen to the testimony with great interest and attention; And when during the examination of Cordelia and others she did speak or smile was it or not in reference to the details given by the Witness, and was it or not an expression of wonder and surprise and of mortification; And was this but seldom or otherwise, and did it or not interrupt the examination or disturb any person; Was it not in a low tone; How far from Amelia did Larcina sit; Was the room large or small;

6th Did you ever hear Ann Amelia speak about the bad temper of Andrew or about the trouble he gave them, or that she thought Providence Andrew and Larcina were getting off that then there would be peace; And if any thing what did she say in this respect;

7th What does Andrew do at Mr Levys and where does he board;

8th Jonathan Schindel in answer to the 4th Interrogatory propounded to him by the defendant states that he had a conversation with you in Hagerstown near Dayles Tavern; When you met Jonathan there, had you just come from home; Had Jonathan that morning brought Larcina home; Was Mrs Emmert her mother much distressed about it, and were you or not somewhat excited yourself; Did you upon this occasion ask why Andrew did not marry Larcina and that her mother then would be satisfied; What end need you to do this; And why did you say that her mother would be satisfied;

9th To the same Interrogatory Jonathan states that he told you in the same conversation that Larcina was forbid the house by her mother in his presence and that you replied that she was then angry else she would not have said it; Did you so say or what did you say; Were you present when this occurred in Mrs Emmerts house; When was it; Did Jonathan that day take Larcina away; What did occur then and what conversation passed between Mrs Emmert and Jonathan and yourself and what was then done by Jonathan;

10th Upon this day when Jonathan took Larcina to his house and it being the same day of the conversation first detailed by you, did you or not go for Mr George W. Smith; Why did you seek him and did he come to Mrs Emmerts house; What did he then do and what was then said; Did or not Andrew afterwards with Jonathan come to the house of Mrs Emmert and were you not present with them and Mrs Emmert; What was then and there said by Andrew; state the whole conversation as it took place;

11th How long before the marriage did Andrew visit his wife

12th Since your Examination has or not Andrew brought suit against