A CARD
From Dr. C. S. Burnett
TO HIS PATIENTS.

THE authorities of this city, with commendable promptness and zeal, have been putting a stop to the swindling operations of the hordes of medical Quacks, who, for the past few years, have been swindling the public under fictitious and assumed names, calling themselves "Old Doctors," "Retired Physicians," "Old Root Doctors," &c., &c., in order to deceive their victims. All letters addressed to such parties are ordered by the proper authorities to be sent to the Dead Letter Office at Washington.

During my absence from the city my letters were detained for a few days by mistake; but immediately on my return the mistake was rectified and a satisfactory apology given; and as the above detention was mentioned in one of our city papers, I consider this explanation necessary. After showing the authorities my Diploma, (which I hold from the Medical Department of the University of Edenborg, Scotland,) and inviting them to my office and laboratory, they expressed themselves satisfied and highly pleased with the honorable and philanthropic manner in which my business was conducted I would merely say, in conclusion, that most of the Quacks, &c, mentioned above, are imitators, and have been copying my "Recipe," &c, &c, and offering it for sale—also manufacturing an inferior Medicine Against all such empirics and swindlers the public are earnestly cautioned Very respectfully,
