you; For what did he sue you; Have or not reference to your going with Andrew's Wife to the house and assisting her to remove some of her property; When and under what circumstances did you go with her; What did you remove; Had she the articles you removed before her marriage and what, if not all; And has she now them in her possession; Did you speak to Andrew about it and what did he say; Did or not Lavinia ask you to remove the goods; Did she go with you and was she in the house with you; Had she the Key of the house; Did you leave any other furniture there;

William J. Hamilton Solr for Compl't

Interrogatories to Samuel E. Schindel on re-examination

Elizabeth Emment next friend to Lavinia E. Schindel vs
Andrew J. Schindel

Interrogatories to be propounded to Samuel E. Schindel on his re-examination

1st In your answer to the 15th Cross Interrogatory you state that you did not say to Henry Emment that you knew that Lavinia was going to separate from her husband, but that you suspected it from the last time she was at Mr Emments House What induced this suspicion upon your part;

2nd In your answer to the 14th Cross Interrogatory, you state that you took Lavinia with your Wife and Mr Emment to Hunkstown on the day of her separation; Was any thing said about it whilst with her that day; Did you know or suspect that day that she was going to separate from her husband; And at whose request did you take Lavinia with you and upon what reason and had you upon your part any ill feeling towards her, though prejudiced as you say she was against you

3rd You state in your answer to the 35th Cross Interrogatory that on the night of the separation Andrew appeared to be willing to live with Lavinia and treat her better; Was this the only time that he exhibited these feelings and where and when did he go, when he left the house of Mr Emment after that night; How was Andrew treated during the time he was there these four or five days;

4th You state in your answer to the 41st Interrogatory that Andrew has not been spoken kindly of since he has taken these proceedings, state to what proceeding you allude; and whether that spirit was not produced by the general conduct of Andrew and especially upon his going with Henry Freanor, a Constable of this town, and notifying Merchants not to trust her;

5th You state in your answer to the 24th Cross Interrogatory that David Schindel desired to know whether he should take money to Lavinia from Andrew; When was this - after the filing of this Bill; And whether her Counsel did not advise her to do any thing without their knowledge;

6th Did not the Counsel wait upon you and ask you your knowledge in respect to this matter - and get you to enquire of Lavinia what witnesses if any she knew that might be summoned for her;

William J. Hamilton Solr for Compl'nant

Defendant's Interrogatories

Interrogatories to Mrs Lavinia Schindel

John Reynolds next friend to Lavinia E. Schindel
vs
Andrew J. Schindel

No 1382 In Equity
Interrogatories on the part of the Defendant to Lavinia Schindel a Witness produced on the part of the said Defendant.

1st Are you acquainted with the parties to this Suit, and if so, how long have you been acquainted with them, and how are you related to them.

2d Are you well acquainted with the said Lavinia E. Schindel and were you acquainted with her before her intermarriage with the said Andrew your son;

3rd Did you ever talk with the said Lavinia before her said marriage in regard to the same and particularly with regard to her determination to marry the said Andrew and what did she say about the matter; Did she say any thing about her having knowledge of the said Andrew's temper and disposition;

4th Did you see much of the said Andrew and his said wife while they were living together as man and wife and were they frequently at your house together and did you frequently or not call to see them at their home in Hagerstown, and if so what seemed to be their feelings and dispositions towards Each other; Was it kind and affectionate or otherwise

5th How often and upon what occassions was the said Andrew at your house after his marriage and how often and upon what occasions did he stay all night at your house from his said wife;

6th Do you know about what time the said Andrew and his wife commenced house keeping to themselves;

7th If the said Andrew stayed all night upon any occasion at your house after he and his wife commenced house keeping and without his wife state why he did so, and when it was;

8th Do you know whether Mrs Elizabeth Emment the mother of the said Lavinia knew of the extreme sickness of Jacob your son, and if so how do you know it;

9th Did the said Elizabeth Emment ever visit the said Jacob while he was sick or did you ever tell the said Elizabeth of it;

10th Did you ever visit the said Lavinia E. while sick at her mothers and before she and her husband commenced house keeping, and if so, did you notice whether the said Andrew was in attendance upon his wife or not;

11th How often if ever, did the said Andrew visit your house while his said wife was sick at her mothers;

12th Did you ever have any conversation with Samuel E. Schindel your son, in regard to the domestic difficulty between the said Andrew and his wife, after the separation, and if so what did he say that the said Lavinia said in regard to her husband;

13th Do you recollect whether the said Andrew was at your house during the harvest of 1855. and if so, what was he doing and how long did he stay; and state whether during the time which he was there, the said