wife did you not hear the said Lavinia tell him to go and that she never wanted to see him again; or that she did not care if she never saw him again; and if she did not so say, what did she say upon that occasion;

14th Since the said separation up to this time has not the said Andrew been the subject of comment and remark by the said Lavinia, yourself and others about the house;

15th Have you or the said Lavinia in talking of the said Andrew spoken kindly of him;

16th Have you not frequently heard the said Lavinia declare that she would not live with her husband again;

17th Have you not heard the said Lavinia employ towards her said husband terms of great contempt and reproach;

18th Did you ever hear her say upon any occasion, that she would not take up with the puppy "again" meaning her husband;

19 Did you ever hear her declare that she wished that the said Andrew was dead

20th Were you ever asked by David Schindel or any other person, whether the said Lavinia would see or would like that her husband would come to see her, and if so, what was your reply

21st When the said Andrew left your house the last time did you not hear him ask the said Lavinia what he should do with the money he intended to furnish her, or where he should deposit it; and if so, what was the said Lavinia's reply;

22d Did you ever see your daughter the said Lavinia write, and are you acquainted with her handwriting; If so look upon the letters marked A. B. and C. and say whether they or either of them and which of them are or is in her handwriting;

23d Is your daughter the said Lavinia now here present, and has she been present during the examination of yourself in chief 24th Has there been a child born of the marriage since the separation and is it still living and how old is it.

R. H. Alvey
Atty & Solr for Deft

25th When was the Doctor attending your daughter Lavinia during the time she was sick at your house, and did he attend her often;

26th What did the said Andrew say to the said Lavinia the last time he was at your house, and when the said Lavinia told him she did not want him to attend to her business, what was his remark that drew out this turn of Lavinia's

R. H. Alvey
Atty & Solr for Deft

Cross Interrogatories and Additional Cross Interrogatories to Samuel E. Schindel.

Elizabeth Emmert next friend to Lavinia E. Schindel vs
Andrew J. Schindel

No 1382 Equity

Cross Interrogatories to be propounded to Samuel Schindel a witness produced on the part of the Complainant

1st Were you or not on ill terms with the said Andrew Schindel before and at the time of his marriage, and did you not frequently abuse him and use towards him harsh and scurrilous language.

2nd Did not both you and your wife oppose the marriage of your brother with your sister in law, and did you and your said wife several times try to persuade the said Lavinia not to marry the said Andrew;

3d Were you not on ill terms with the said Lavinia at the time of the said marriage, and was it not because of her determination to marry the said Andrew Schindel your brother;

4th Were you living in Hagerstown with your mother in law Mrs Emmert at the time of the marriage of your brother to the said Lavinia;

5th When were you at the time of the marriage of your said brother Andrew and the said Lavinia, and why were you not present at the wedding;

6th You know nothing of your own personal knowledge of what transpired between the said Andrew and his said wife while on their bridal tour to the North;

7th Did you and your wife not live in the same house, eat at the same table, and occupy the same parlor and sitting room for a near or quite three months after the said Andrew and his wife returned from the north, and if not so long, for what length of time;

8th Were you ever in the house of the said Andrew Schindel your brother, after he moved from Mrs Emmerts to his own house in Washington Street in Hagerstown and if not why; Having were you brother and his wife house keeping before their separation;

9th Are you ever on speaking terms now with your said brother, Andrew Schindel, and have not been in a state of enmity with him for a long time

10th Have you not repeatedly since the said Lavinia left her said husband abused the said Andrew and applied to him various abusive epithets when talking to persons in regard to the difficulty between the said Andrew and his wife; and in various other ways manifested your hostility towards him;

11th Have you not on account of the said difficulty between your brother Andrew and his wife contracted ill feeling towards your father and mother and have you not been and are you not now on such account on bad terms with your said father and his family; and do you go to their house, and why not;

12th Have you not always when occasion offered blamed and abused your brother and entirely justified his wife in her course;

13th Have you ever since the separation of the parties attempted to bring about a good understanding and reconciliation between them by trying to dissipate the ill feeling and prejudices of the said Lavinia towards her said husband, and have you upon any occasion attempted to commend the said Andrew for anything or have you not always acquiesced in the charges, complaints and imputations made against the said Andrew and frequently joined in with them and assented them yourself

14th Were you not in the frequent habit of talking with the said Lavinia in regard to her affairs and the affairs of her family before she separated from her husband; and was not the said Lavinia frequently at the house where you were living, and was she not in