To the second interrogatory. that he was acquainted with Levin Carey in his life time and knew him about 40 years
To the 3d 4th 5th & 6th interrogatories - that he knows nothing
To the seventh interrogatory - that the personal estate of Levin Carey he would suppose was worth $400. dollars
To the eighth interrogatory. that he hath no knowledge.
To the ninth interrogatory, that he was acquainted with the family of Levin Carey; that he left three sons and three daughters - that he doth not know their ages - two of the daughters are married - Mary married Peter L. Davis and Nancy married Thomas Dennis doth not know when they were married: Nancy lived with her father at the of her marriage - Mary with her Uncle Thomas.
To the first additional interrogatory - that he was acquainted with Levin Carey in his life time.
To the second additional interrogatory. that he was acquainted with a part of the land claimed by Levin Carey in Delaware and Maryland; that the part of the land in Maryland he has been over, and has been on part of the land in Delaware and is acquainted with the general character of the whole land; that he has known it a great many years that he has been on it and looked at it and viewed it; that he has understood from Mr Carey that he claimed to own 3,600 acres; that a large portion of it is as rich land as he ever saw in this section of the Country he would judge to be about 300 acres cleared. would think that the most part of the land is swampy or low land; but believes every acre of it could be cleared and brought into cultivation. A good deal of the timbered land is green cedar timber. If the land belonged to deponent he would not like to take 40.000 for it.

To the third additional interrogatory - that he doth not know.
To additional interrogatory, to be propounded to Lemuel Showell. that he was informed by Levin Carey the year before his death that the proceeds of lumber and grain off of his land were about 250 or $ - thinks there was only a small part from the lumber - thinks also, that Levin Carey told him that the crops of Corn was about 4000 bushels. Thinks that it would bring at least fifty thousand dollars, if sold in small lots, to suit purchasers
