Whereupon for that the Court here is not advised its Judgment to give of and upon the premises day thereupon is given to the said parties to hear thereof its Judgment until the second Monday of November next. And now here at this day the said second Monday of November term in the year aforesaid came again into Court here the parties aforesaid by their Solicitors aforesaid. And thereupon afterwards during the said Term term, on the third day of December in the year aforesaid the Court passed and filed in said cause the following opinion in writing and order to wit;

Joseph P. Reppell & Henry P. Reppell &c vs Thomas Wilson & others } In the Circuit Court for Balto City. Injunction. Motion to dissolve

Several questions have been discussed upon the hearing of this motion, which it may be necessary for the Court to decide at some future stage of this cause. Those only that have a bearing upon the Enquiry as to the Validity of the Deed of Trust referred to in the proceedings can properly claim the consideration of the Court at this time. Can this Deed there be sustained by this Court as a valid Instrument of writing. I am of opinion that there are no Entrinsic facts or circumstances pre-
